expired, and Leschi was not hanged. AF We find in one of our exchanges the following little lyric, entitled, "The Love Knot," by Nora Perry. The tying up of a young man's heart with a bonnet string, or a mitville. ringlet, is a sweet old story to which the world always listens; but it never bas been more daintly told before.

Tying her bonnet under her chip, She tied her raven ringlets in, But not alone in the silken snare, Did she catch her lovely floating hair, For tying her bonnet under her chin, She tied a young man's heart within.

They were strolling together up the hill, Where the wind comes blowing merry and chill And it blew the curls a frolicsome race, All over the happy peach colored face, Till scolding and laughing she tied them in, Under the beautiful dimpled chin.

And it blew a color, bright as a bloom Of the pinkest fuchsia's tossing plume, All over the cheeks of the pretiest girl That ever imprisoned a romping curl, Or, in tying her tonnet under her chin, Tied a young man's heart within.

Steeper and steeper grew the hill-Madder, and merrier, chiller still The western wind blew down and played The wildest tricks with the little maid, As, tying her bonnet under her chin, She tied a young man's heart within.

Oh western wind, do you think it was fair To play such tricks with her floating hair? To gladfully, gleefully do your best, To blow her against the young man's breast, Where he as gladly folded her in. And kissed her mouth and dimpled chin?

Oh, Ellery Vane, you little thought. An hour ago, when you besought This country lass to walk with you, After the sun had dried the dew, What perilous danger you'd be in, As she tied her bennet under i er chin.

A GOOD INVESTMENT .- Any investment of money that is certain to bring health, comfort and happiness to the family circle, must be a good one. The parchase of a GROVER & BA-KER Sewing Machine will do all this, and bring more joyous smiles to the face of a house-wife, then any other investment of a like sum of money. It is a deed of emancipation from the toils of hand sewing and will give her time for self-improvement, or for the mental culture of her children, and every family should be provided with one
