On the 28th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Harrison, Mr. WILLIAM GARRETT, of Brown county, Kansas Territory, to Miss Sarah McCULLOUGH, daughter of S. J. McCullough, Esq., of Munster, Cambria county, Pa.

From the Western (Kansas) Argus. A dog named darkey stowed away among the wood piles, during her last trip upon the cars. On being questioned as to where he was, he finally owned up that he was in the car, from Jefferson City, and had intended to land at Leavenworth. When asked what he was going to do there, he replied that he was told that colored people all had a new road, and held office in Kansas!

Cuff was pretty near right, if he reported the Minneola Constitution as the original law of Kansas. But the trouble with the "colored equal" was, that the land of equal equality was denied him. He was not to be a citizen, but a Minneola equality recognized in Kansas. When last seen Cuff was wearing "disgusted with politics" and was promising to himself that appropriate melody: "When I think of what I am, and what I used to be, I think I threw myself away. Without sufficient cause."
