

PEN AND SCISSORS.

See the advertisement of Dr. Sanford's "Liver Investigator" in another column. A friend promised to furnish us with a communication for our paper, last week...

Our neighbors are all busy at present harvesting. The weather recently has been favorable, and our farmers have faithfully fulfilled the injunction of the old adage...

Harper's Magazine for August, is on our table. It is a highly interesting number. The article entitled the "Romance of Wyoming," is well written and beautifully illustrated...

Owing to the high price of ink, we still have a local institution, and a name on this living breathing world of ours. This fortunate circumstance prevented the editor of the Mountaineer...

We are now equal to the Mountaineer. We have at length succeeded in securing the services of a practical contributor. The following is his first contribution which will repay an attentive perusal...

While on our way to Cresson, last Friday, we called at the village of Hemlock, and passed a few hours in pleasant conversation with our esteemed friends...

The glory of the "Old Portage" has departed. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company have now a large "posse" of hands engaged in taking up the track, sills, &c...

In Town—Major W. W. Ivory, formerly of this county, now of Kansas. He looks well and is still steadfast in defending democratic principles...

Gen. James J. Keenan, formerly of Greenburg, Westmoreland county, now United States Consul to Hong Kong, China, was in town yesterday...

Mr. Henry McMillin, who was dangerously injured at the Steam Saw Mill of Mr. Cresson in the neighborhood of Strongtown, last week, is now out of danger...

White Mr. Solomon Schaub, was engaged in painting the "Arcade Hotel," last Friday, and he fell head foremost, a distance of about thirty feet...
