OUR CANDIDATE.

The Democratic Congressional Conference which met at Johnstown last Friday, on the 111th ballot placed in nomination Cynts L. PERSHING, Fsq., of this county, for Congress, and to-day, we place his name at the mast-head of our paper as the Democratic candidate for that office, with emotions of pride and pleasure. It is unnecessary for us to say anything in praise of Mr. Pershing. He is well known to a majority of our readers, and it is impossible to know and not esteem him. He can justly claim undisputed precedence in the confidence, respect and esteem of the Democracy of Cambria, and even the leaders of the opposition acknowledge the purity of his private life, and his stern unbending integrity. There can be no doubt as to the course he would pursue if elected to a scat in our National Legislature. The principles of the Democratic party would be steadily adhered to on all questions of a political character, and he would never be afraid to say No-whenever principles or right required it. In this age of aspi- adjourned. ring demagogues and brawling politicians, such men as Mr. Pershing are rare, and consequently they should be promptly supported and sustained by the people whenever an opportunity for so doing presents itself.

The Johnstown "Tribune," in announcing the result of the opposition Congressional Conference, very property complains that the just claims of Cambria county to the nomination were treated with contempt. The members of the Democratic Conference were more just. They conceded the claims of Cambria to the nomination, and before adjourning, unanimously accepted her favorite son as the standard bearer of the party in this district during the approaching campaign. The result of their labors has created a spirit of enthusiasm throughout the county so unanimous and general that we did not anticipate it, and we now confidently assert that Cambria is good for at least fifteen hundred of a majority in favor of Pershing.

More than fifty years have elapsed since Cambria was organized as a county. During that long period of time a "dweller on her soil" has never occupied a seat in Congress, or even in the State Senate. An opportunity is now presented to the people of Cambria for wiping out this reproach against them. That they will embrace it we do not entertain a doubt.

Democrats of Cambria! awake from your lethargy. Cynus L. Penshing, a Democrat who has long been a resident of your county, who has field, in order to secure for us the precious grown with your growth and strengthened with boon of freedom. It is true the people of the your strength, who knows the interests and wants | Southern States contributed their quota toof your county, is now presented to you by the Democracy of this Congressional district as the candidate of the party for a seat in congress. Shall that nomination be sustained? Will the Democracy of Cambria sustain her favorite son? These are questions which the Democracy of Cambria will answer in language not to be mistaken at the ballot-box. Cambria county is good for fifteen hundred of a majority for Pershing, on the second Tuesday of next October.

LT It is said that the Hon J. R. Giddings is engaged in writing the "History of the Auti-Slavery Fight in Congress," and his retirement will enable him to finish the work at an early day.

OPPOSITION MEETING

The Know Nothings and Black Republicaus held a meeting at the Court House in this place yesterday evening, for the purpose of ratifying the nomination of SAMUEL S. BLAIR, Esq. for Congress. A. A. Barker, of Epensburg, presided, assisted by a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. After the President had stated the object of the meeting, A Kopelin, of Johnstown, was called on for a speech. It would be impossible to present a correct outline of the long, rambling, disconnected harangue with which he bored the meeting, and we will not therefore attempt it. After he had concluded, Mr Blair made his appearance on the stand, and proceeded to "define his position." He took occasion, before he had uttered ten words, to pitch into the National Administration, anxious no doubt to convince the people that he deeply sympathized with bleeding Kansas, and occupied a conspicuous place among the freedom shrickers who are willing to let the 'Union slide" if it stands in the way of their sectional party. He boldly declared himself day morning at 8 o'clock. the advocate of the doctrine that Congress has the power to prevent the introduction of elavery into the territories, but never during his speech, ventured to speak of the Republican party. No, the People's Party was all the go with Mr. Blair. Of what is the People's Party of which he spoke composed ?-Of Know Nothings and Black Republicans. Then why did he confine himself to the principles of the Republican party? Had he not time-had he not an opportunity for attending to Sam as well as to Sambo, and does he expect the suffrages of the Know Nothings of this district without endorsing their principles? These are questions which we hope Mr. Blair will answer in his next speech .-The people are anxious for light on the subject. The Johnstown Tribune and Tyrone Star, both Kuow Nothing organs, advocate the election of Mr. Blair Does he endorse the principles they advocate, and does he sus-

If Mr. Blair supposes that he can succeed in getting up a fight among the Democracy of Cambria on the Lecompton issue, he is very much mistaken. The Mountain Democracy are now united, and have forgotten all past differences. Their motto is, "Let the dead past bury its dead." They are not disposed to promote the success of the People's Party, the principles of which, if carried out, would inevitably lead to the dissolution of the Union, and deprive a large portion of the American people of the rights which nature and nature's God entitle them candidate of the Know Nothing party for President, denounced the Black Republican party as a sectional organization, which, if successful, would speedily dissolve the Union. Its principles have undergone no change since that time, and if Mr. Fillmore was then right, he is still right. And now Mr. Blair is the candidate of the People's Party, a large portion of whose members regard his principles as dangerous and sectional, and place. which, if carried out, would erase the name of the United States from the Book of Na-

OUR DUTY AS DEMOCRATS.

The Democratic Party has just emerged from a trying crisis; thank beaven the storm has past. While it lasted the timid and vacillating asked more than once, "Watchman how wears the night." But the storm is now over and the day is breaking. The American Democracy once more are a unit, and present an unbroken front to the enemy. We have, it is true, an arduous contest before us; but we are contending for the right; we are arrayed under a banner that we feel assured is invincible. Our cause and the principles for which we are contending, are just, and we entertain no fears with regard to the result with which it will be crowned.

The Democratte party never occupied a more thoroughly national position than at the present time. SAMUEL S. BLAIR, the opposition candidate for Congress, last night, openly acknowledged that he was the candidate of a sectional party. He boldly avowed that he was "in favor of excluding the inhabitants of the Southern States from the Territories." It is true the blood of the citizens of the Southern States was freely poured out on many a well-fought battlewards paying the amount required by law for the territories belonging to the United States ocquired by purchase. These are facts which Mr. Blair candidly acknowledges in his speech on Tuesday night. It would be well for him to remember during the approaching campaign, that the Democracy of Cambria county are not half-way men. They have always been and always will be, true to their first love. The State ticket can and will be elected in spite of all the efforts of the opposition; and the pray er of Rufus Choate shall be fully realized "God bless Pennsylvania! Wheresoever the pillars of the republic may tremble, still may she stand forth in her place of power and of beauty forever!"

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

The Democracy of Cambria assembled in Mass Meeting at the Court House, in Ebensburg, on Wednesday evening, the 12th inst GEN JOSEPH M'DONALD was called to the Chair; Irwin Rutledge, Henry Scanlan, Michael Movers, Matthew M. Adams, Paul George and Daniel Litzinger were appointed Vice Presidents, and Charles D. Murray, John P. Linton and Philip S. Noon, Secretaries. The President of the meeting stated its objects in an eloquent and terse manner. L. PERSHING, Esq , the nominee of the Democratic party for Congress, was then called on for a speech. He responded in an address of remarkable eloquence and power. He did Oa motion of Mr. White, the Conference not attempt anything like declamation, but proceeded to the nomination of a candidate confined himself strictly to the issues involved in the present campaign. He was followed by John Scott, Esq , of Huntingdon, and William A. Stokes, of Greensburg, who both chief point, however, for consideration, is self at liberty to give his name, but substitute delivered eloquent addresses. The meeting adjourned, with cheers for Pershing, and the State and county ticket.
