American Agriculture.

It is a smelancholy truth and one that reflects much on the skill and foresight of American farmers, that while the wheat crop of England has increased at least fifty per cent, in the last century, that of the United States has fallen off in nearly the same proportion. A century ago, New England, Delaware and Virginia raised wheat as an ordinary crop; now a wheat field is a rarity in these states, and they may be considered no longer wheat producing regions. If we go on as we have for the past centime, we will not produce wheat enough to supply our wants. It is less than that time since Vermont was a large wheat exporting state; now she does not export a bushel, but imports at least two-thirds of all the flour consumed in that state Instead of increasing | Gents' Silver Lever Watche, the productiveness of our wheat land, as in Gents' Silver Lepine Watches. Work in the Garden.

Early Corn-should be planted by the middle of the month for roasting ears and at intervals afterwards, Manure well with com post, and give the seed a coating of tar, as the best protection against insects and birds,

Peas .- Plant at intervals of two weeks .-Have the sticks in readiness, if not yet in place for the high growing ones. Lima Beans. - This valuable vegetable one of the most profitable and easy grown should be sown by the last of the month, if the soil be a warm one. Poles should be got in time-one and a half feet in the ground, and six above is length enough. When the beans run to the top of these, stop the upward growth by pinching off the ends. They will throw out lateral shoots and bear more abundantly.

Strawberry Beds-may be planted out .-Old ones may be manured, the grass cleaned out of them and coarse litter or straw put over them to keep grass down, and preserve

Sweet Potatoes .- By all means have a crop of these in the garden.

Melons .- Early in this month lay off the ground for your crops. Haul out well prepared composts, and place sufficient quantity (and it must be large) on the spot where the hill is to be made, and draw the earth over it. Let it lie until it is nearly time to plant, when the earth and compost should be thoroughly chopped and intermingled. About the first of May is the time to plant, but the sooner the manure is placed on the ground

To Prevent the Worm in Peach Trees .-Clear away the dirt in April, from about the roots of the tree then take a small sheaf of straw—the size of the tree—wheat straw will answer, but rye is better-place it neatly around the body of the tree, with a small cord-adjust the straw then evenly around the base of the trunk, and throw the dirt back upon the lower ends of the sheaf. This prevents the earth from coming in contact with the bark of the trees when the moth deposits egg, and will always effectually prevent the depredations of the peach tree worm The straw leaves the bark of the tree in a very clean and swathy condition, while the tar or pitch binds and destroys the bark, leaving it in a very unhealthy state. PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD, IS A GRET scientific Medical Discouery, and is daily working cures almost to great too believe. It cures as if An Imperial Quarto containing 8 pages; or 40 by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and columns of original, interesting and facinating seldem more than one bottle is required to curs reading matter, from the pens of the best Amer any kind of Liver Complaint, from the west annelice or Dyspepsia to a common headache, all of which are the result of a Diseased Liver. The Liver is one of the principal regulators of the burnan body, and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The Stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions. when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in coasesequence of one organ—the Liver-having ceasone of the proprietors has made it his study in some remedy wherewith to counteract many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last foundt any person troubled with the Liver Complaint in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and A compound has been . One bottle taken for
