the Great Erial Trip-Description of the Voyage--Great Reception of the Excurtionists.

TROY, N. Y., July 4 .- The balloon Atfantic landed yesterday at two o'clock at Hen derson, Jefferson county. The four voyagers are all well, and on their way to New York city. The Daily Whig learned from Mr. Gager, one of the passengers by the Atlantic, who arrived in Troy this morning, the following particulars: On Saturday at half-past one o'clock, St. Louis time, we of the wind, which was blowing a perfect hurricane, unaccompanied by rain, The supplace it above the storm. The vessel was im mediately headed for shore. When the storm was at its highest the vessel was not more than about thirty feet above the level of the Take. We reached land in a few seconds in the town of Henderson, Jefferson county, with all hands on board. We landed in an edge of woods with the basket swinging to and fro, making rapid evolutions among the clinging to the rigging. The strength and office. general excellence of the arrangement of the balloon basket probably saved the party. The balloon was left in a high tree swinging above the boat, and much damaged The county, at 2:20 Saturday p m. Mr. Lamontine remained in charge of the balloon. Mr. Wise, Mr. Gager and Mr Hyde, will and Mr. Hyde to New York.

The pilot, captain, crew and all the other officers were called on deck at the sight of land. The course was changed and made ber afteen miles from Cape Race. About a quarter past four o'clock a very dense fog came up. At half past five the captain spoke to a fishing schooner. He stopped the enscheoner, be asked:

Where are you fishing?

Auswer-On the Eastern side of Trepassy Bay, a mile and a half or two miles off. The Captain ordered the helm to be put hard aport, the engines to go on in full speed and the vessel to be kept S. S. E by the standard compass. This should have taken her clear of the land. The Captain and all officers were on deck. The officer in charge at the wheel gave the order, "Steady," as the ship brought up to her S. S. E. course. At that moment breakers were seen, and the engines stopped and reversed at full speed. tel. Before the ship got sternway upon her, she grounded her bow on the rocks at Fresh Water Point, eight miles from Trepassey The boats were lowered and got ready, when the passengers embarked with but little confusion. The women and children were cared for first. Anchors were then passed out at the prow and stern, the coals thrown overboard, less and Blue Jacket were despatched imme- | weather luxury to give him a call. diately. Sails, ect., were sent ashore, tents tunde to protect the passengers, and when the provisions and baggage could possibly be got at, they were also sent. The fishermen plun dered the ship. A hundred came around her on hearing the stgool guns. They cut way her masts, and completely skinned her.

At 4 p m, the ship filled, fell on her beam onls, and sunk in six fathoms of water The buggage belonging to many of the passengers | OFFICE on Clinton Street, a few doors north was lost. There was no house within eight miles of the shore where she struck. At 5 p. m. a boat returned from Trepassy with assurances that two steamers were on the way from St. Johns to assist them Tuesday night was passed with a tolerable degree of comfort. On Wednesday the steam arrived and brought off the passengers and a part of the baggage. They return this afternoon for the erew, taking with them solproperty stolen from the ship; they can get been received at this office, and are ready for can be recovered from the wreck. The passengers are all quartered and provided for berg. The will be sent on as soon as arrange ments can be made.
