There will be no Election Tickets printed at this office unless ordered and paid for.

No Time for Sleeping.

If the Democracy of Cambria intend performing their duty, their whole duty, at the approaching election, it is time they were up and doing. As the election will be held in about a month from the present time, this is no time for inaction. We believe the party is now thoroughly united, but unless proper efforts are made, many democrats may not attend the election. The enemy are actively at work, rallying and drilling their forces. The Democracy should imitate their example and at once go into the fight, with energy and zeal. If the proper efforts are made to get out the vote, the County Ticket will be elected by 1000 of a majority, and we can give Durbin from 1200 to 1500 of a majority, which will render his triumphant election certain. We say then Democrats of Cambria, prepare for the contest at once. Effect a thorough organization of the party in every township, ward and borough in the county, in order to prevent the possibility of a single democratic vote being lost on the day of election by the non-attendance of democratic voters. This all that is necessary to secure a brilliant triumph over the united hosts of the opposition.

Ex-President Pierce.

This illustrious statesman has recently returned to his country after an absence of nearly two years, on a tour through Europe. His name occupies a conspicuous place on the list of illustrious Statesmen, who have filled the office of Chief Magistrate of the Republic. When his maligners are forgotten, his administration will be regarded as an epoch in the history of our country, and a model worthy of the imitation of those who shall hereafter be called to preside over our National affairs. When he adopted the Kansas-Nebraska Bill as an administration measure, he encountered a tornado of opposition and calumny in the Northern States, which would have appalled any man not conscious that he was upholding the right. He scorned the abuse that was heaped on him, and by his influence and example, infused confidence into the breasts of the timid and faint hearted. Although all the New England States, including New Hampshire, his native State, at once deserted him and arrayed themselves under the Black Republican banner, yet he stood firm, and never faltered for a single moment. The principle of popular sovereignty owes more to him than any other man in the country for its success. Without his endorsement and influence, the Kansas-Nebraska Bill, would have been hooted out of Congress. We of course do not know whether it is Gen. Pierce's intention to hereafter take an active part in politics, or to spend the remainder of his days in retirement. But whether in public or private life, he will always be sure to command the approbation and esteem of the intelligent and patriotic portion of his fellow countrymen.

The Brooklyn Post office, was robbed on last Friday night. All the letters were opened, and about $3000 dollars stolen.

Our old friend Mordicai, and Bitters of the Alleghanian, after taking a Nip together a few days ago, commenced talking about the chances of Durbin beating Hall at the approaching election. "I don't know," said Bitters "how it will be in this county, but I am certain Hall will run a very large vote in Blair." "Why do you think so?" asked Mordicai, "Because," answered Bitters, "the Editor of the Hollidaysburg Whig intends going into his support with an ardent spirit." "Bitters," said Mordicai, "what kind of an ardent spirit is the Editor of the Whig familiar with I hope it is the pure extract of rye, and not the villainous compound composed of the essence of corn and strychnine. He should have a reverend care of his health, since his services are of so much importance in the campaign. But as I understand he knows how to keep a Hotel, I presume he is a judge of the genuine article, and will use the best in the market." "Mordicai" said Bitters, "you say some very queer things occasionally. Its a great pity you hadn't been sent to College when you were a boy. If you had, you would doubtless have been a greater man than even Lewis W. Hall, and probably as great as Raymond of the Whig, or Swank of the Tribune." "Lets take another Nip," said Mordicai, evidently pleased with the flattery, and just as the two old friends were preparing to imbibe, we left.

Three travellers, or last Wednesday, entered the dwelling house of Mr. William O'Keefe, a short distance from town, and stole several articles of clothing. Mr. O'Keefe was absent at the time. On returning home and discovering the theft, he "on reasonable grounds of suspicion," procured a warrant for the arrest of the travellers, and an officer immediately started in pursuit of them. He succeeded in arresting them several miles west of this place. We understand the stolen articles were found in their possession. After a hearing before the Justice, they were committed to Jail.

George W. Gump of Bedford, and A. H. Coffroth of Somerset, have been placed in nomination as the Democratic candidates for Assembly in the Bedford and Somerset district. We are well acquainted with General Coffroth, and know him to be a gentleman of ability, should he be elected, and we entertain no doubt he will, he is a prominent and influential member of the next Legislature. We are not acquainted with Mr. Gump, but doubtless he is worthy of the support of the party.

It is said that the Yankees, away down East, are beginning to regard the old fashioned style of weddings, as decidedly too slow in order to be married fast, the "happy couple" are now in the habit of inviting the bridal party into a rail-car, and are spliced at the rate of thirty miles an hour. When the Ebensburg & Cresson Rail Road is completed, we entertain no doubt the "new system" will be very popular among the Mountaineers who wish to get married.

A number of Democratic Journals are out in favor of Hon. Henry D. Foster of Westmoreland as the next Democratic candidate for Governor. The Berks county democratic convention, also recently adopted a resolution declaring him their first choice for Governor. We hope the General may be nominated and elected. He is every way worthy of the confidence and support of the democracy of Pennsylvania.

Yesterday was cold enough to render warm stoves a decided luxury. Although we will doubtless have some very pleasant weather during this and the next month, yet we cannot but feel, that autumn is now "even at our doors" and that the long and pleasant reign of summer is over. Let us then bid her farewell in the language of Tom Hood; "Delightful summer! then adieu! Till thou shalt visit us anew; But who without regretful sigh Can say adieu, and see thee fly? Not he who e'er hath felt thy power, His joy expanding like a flower That cometh after rain and snow, Looks up at heaven, and learns to glow."

No politician ever occupied a lower place in the confidence and esteem of the people of Pennsylvania than John W. Forney now does. He has now no followers, no friends; "The few who loved him once have fled, And they who flatter scorn him." He is a living proof of the facility with which vaulting ambition can overleap itself.

Capt. Smith of the Johnstown Echo, was in town yesterday. Pennsylvania does not contain an able Editor, or better democrat than the Captain. He is also a gentleman in the true sense of the term, and always maintains the dignity of man with a soul erect. He is one of the favorites of the "frosty sons of thunder."

The last Alleghanian whispered a very sensible word of advice into the ears of its cotemporary of the Hollidaysburg Whig and Johnstown Tribune. We entertain no doubt they will take the hint, and talk no more about Mr. Durbin's ignorance and boorishness.

Those who want to see a beautifully executed plate of the Fall and Winter Fashions, should call at the Clothing Store of Hughes and James, and all who wish to purchase fashionable and cheap clothing, should call at the same place.

The Editor and Publisher, return Hon. David Taggart, President of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society their thanks for complimentary tickets of admission for themselves and Ladies, to the ninth annual exhibition of the Society, at Philadelphia, on the 27, 28, 29, and 30 inst. As the Editor has not yet engaged a lady, he would be very glad to hear of some "fair one," anxious to attend the Fair.

The city of Paris has given a farm to the illustrious French author, Lamartine. Authors must be a popular class in Paris.

It is said that nearly all the Vinegar manufactured in New York, is diluted with sugar of lead and other dangerous poisons.

A Cricket Club has been organized in this place, and the first game was played on last Saturday. As it is composed of active and energetic young men, we doubt not it will live and flourish like a "green bay tree."

The persons convicted of Larceny in the Court of Quarter Sessions last week, are still in jail awaiting sentence. They will probably be removed to the Penitentiary about the first of next week.

A mule is now on exhibition at the National Horse Show, Dayton Ohio, which stands nineteen hands high, and weighs eighteen hundred pounds. He is certainly a whopper.

A German, whose name we could not learn, bled to death on Saturday last, in Carrolltown. His remains were sent to Philadelphia.

All pleaded guilty and submitted. Each sentenced to pay a fine of $20 for use of School district and Costs of Prosecution. A number of persons indicted for the same offence, succeeded in getting their cases continued until next session.

Com'th vs Florida Brown.—Indictment for Larceny. Jury find the Defendant guilty. No other cases of importance were disposed of.

The following letter and address speak for themselves. Read them. MUNSTER, SEPT. 18, 1859.

GENTLEMEN.—I have received your letter, and will endeavor to answer it in a satisfactory manner in as few words as possible. If elected a member of the State Senate, I would vote against any bill or measure which might be introduced into that body for the repeal of the Three Mill Tax on the tonnage of the Pennsylvania Rail Road. A number of letters have been addressed to me recently inquiring my views on this subject, I hope this will be regarded as a satisfactory answer to them all.

Very respectfully, Your Obedt. Servt. AUGUSTIN DURBIN.

To Richard Trotter, Jesse Patterson, Joseph Buck, John F. Barnes, C. H. Brady, John Flanagan, E. Buck, Wm. A. Glass, P. H. Shiels, Isaac Wike, John McGowan, Jos. A. Dimand, Philip Kearne, John G. Given, Wm. Rainey, Peter Somers, C. Bilestine, F. K. Herlinger, Thos. McConnell, J. Bearer, Robert H. Canan, P. McGough, and others.

To the Voters of Cambria County. Having understood from various sources, that it is desirable that I should define my position in reference to the policy of repealing what is familiarly termed the "Three Mill Tax," and being willing, as well as anxious, that my views on this, as well as on all other questions of State policy, should be understood by the electors of the County, I will state, that in the event of my election as a member of the next House of Representatives, I will not only vote against the proposed repeal of the "Three Mill Tax," but will steadily oppose the passage of any law contemplating that purpose.

Respectfully, &c. DANIEL LITZINGER, Chess Springs Borough, Sept. 13, 1859.

Sam Houston's Position.—Gen. Houston, in a speech at Nacogdoches during the late campaign, declared himself a democrat of the "old school," and, furthermore, an "old fogey," because he clung to the primitive principle upon which the Government was founded. He was opposed to know nothingism. He abandoned that order in 1855, and now believes that it could never accomplish any good. He supported Mr. Buchanan; he believed the President was an honest man and a patriot; he was opposed to the reopening of the slave-trade and to disunion, and stood by all the old cardinal principles of the Democratic party. He was in favor of acquiring Cuba, establishing a protectorate over Mexico, and building the Pacific railroad. It will be seen that his position is not exactly identical with that of the opposition newspapers throughout the country, who have been so loudly congratulating themselves over the result in the Texas election.—New York Day Book.

According to the American Railroad Guide the first locomotives in the United States were imported from England in the fall of 1829, or spring of 1830. The first Stephenson locomotive ever imported was the Robert Fulton, in 1831, for the Mohawk and Hudson Railroad. The first locomotive built in this country was at the West Point Foundry, in 1830, for the South Carolina Railroad. The second was built at the same place for the same road. The third was built at the same establishment in the spring of 1831, and was the first locomotive ever run in the State of New York.

An Earthquake among the Knobs.—There was a severe earthquake shock felt at Iron-ton and vicinity, in Missouri, on Saturday the 27th ult, about 5 o'clock p. m. The sky was cloudless at the time. A heavy rumbling noise was heard coming from the west, and passing off to the east. Then came the shock, lasting about thirty seconds, and resembling the concussion which follows a heavy volley of thunder, though much harder. It is not known how far the shock extended. Young earthquakes, says the St. Louis News, among the Knobs, are harmless and interesting phenomena; but a growl from a full-grown monster, making the mountains to knock their heads together, would be rather "skerry."

Worth its Weight in Silver.—Hon Joseph Morton President of the Morgan County Agricultural Society, a few days since tendered to the agent of the "Cashmere Shawl Goat Company" of Tennessee, for one of the pure blood Cashmere Goats, its weight in silver which was refused. The Company will not part with the pure bloods at any price.—The seven-eighths blood produces the wool which commands eight dollars per pound in the market.

The mammoth steamer Great Eastern was called the Leviathan, but the name did not seem to take. The Colonel suggested that, in honor to the heir of the British throne, it should be called the Prince of Wales, thus combining the royal with the cetaceous idea.

Rowdyism in Baltimore has reached such a height, and the authorities seem so powerless to repress it, that the citizens have called a public meeting to take such measures as may be necessary to preserve the public peace. The latest notable incident in the reign of rowdyism was the attack, by one of the notorious blackguards of the city, upon an editor in an omnibus. The latter shot the rowdy in three places, successfully defending himself from attack.

The New York Sun has now in process of construction, at a cost of forty thousand dollars, a press that possesses this advantage—namely, it will feed itself, and print both sides of the paper at the same time, and with the same rapidity that one side is printed on the mammoth Hoe presses now in use by the Times, Herald and Tribune.

From Utah. St. Louis, Sept. 10.—A special despatch to the Republican, says dates from Salt Lake City to the 19th ultimo, reached Atchison yesterday.

W. H. Hooper, Mormon, had been elected Delegate to Congress from Utah. Lieutenant Gray, with a party of forty two dragoons, had surprised a band of one hundred and fifty Indians, who were consigned in the late massacre of emigrants on the California overland route. Twenty of the Indians were killed.

General Johnston has sent reinforcements to Lieutenant Gray, in anticipation of an attack from the combined forces of the Indians.

The Carbon (Pa.) Democrat estimates that about 1000 bushels of plums were sent to the Philadelphia market this season, from Upper Susquehanna township, Lehigh county, yielding a total revenue of about 1500.

Hon. John Creswell.

The Democracy of Blair county, at their recent county Convention, recommended Hon John Creswell, Jr. late speaker of the Senate as the next Democratic candidate for Governor. There are few, if any, men in the State who would be more available as candidates none more deserving of such distinguished honor—none who better understand the duties of the position, or who are more capable of filling it—none who would support with more hearty good will. John Creswell, Jr. is one of the rising young Statesmen of this Commonwealth—a solid, substantial, honest and fearless man, who would creditably fill any station in which he might be placed. A democrat by instinct, education and practice, a firm friend & a truthful politician, high honors sit gracefully on his brow—as gracefully as he will discharge the duties of any position in which he may be placed. "The honest face of John Creswell" would well become the gubernatorial chair.—Clinton Democrat.

Mysterious Affair.—A Citizen of Philadelphia Charged with Murder.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 9.—A report has been current here to day, that a mulatto girl had made a statement before an officer in Carlisle, Pa., to the effect that money had been paid her to keep quiet in regard to what she knew of the murder of a man by a citizen of Philadelphia, during a quarrel which occurred in a gambling hall of this city, and of the burial of the body of the murdered man near the house, and that she was brought here and made a similar statement before Judge Pearson and the District Attorney. When the murder was committed it is not stated.

The Coroner and District Attorney refuse to give any particulars regarding the affair, until the Coroner has made an investigation. It is known here to night that the party supposed to be implicated, has been arrested in Philadelphia, on the strength of a telegraphic dispatch from the authorities of this city.

The Atlantic Telegraph Company have issued a new prospectus, which indicates a resolution to carry this great enterprise to a successful termination.

A new preferred stock will be opened, clear of all responsibility on account of the old. The shares are £5, and the whole amount to be issued £600,000 or three millions of dollars. Ten shilling per share is to be paid at the time of subscribing, and two pounds on allotments. From the hour that the cable is laid, the governments of the United States and Great Britain guarantee an annual income of £34,000, or $170,000.

The Cholera is said to be making destructive progress in Hamburg. The London Medical Times states that from the 25th to the 31st of July there were 424 cases in that city, of which 332 were fatal!

New Publications.

The Enterprising Publisher George G. Evans, No. 439 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, has just added to his extensive list, the following new books:

The Life of Col. David Crockett. Written by himself, comprising his early life, Hunting Adventures, Daring Deeds in Border and Indian Warfare, services under General Jackson in the Creek war, Electioneering Speeches, Career in Congress, Triumphant Tour in the Northern States and Struggles in the Texas War of Independence together with an account of his Glorious Death at the Alamo. In one 12mo. volume. Hand somely bound. Price $1.00. We copy the following from the Philadelphia North American: "The Life of Crockett is a volume in a republication of the genuine work, with necessary additions; and will be new to the present generation of readers. It is as marked and characteristic as the subject was; his portrait faithfully drawn, and none the less so that it is without effort, and perfectly naive and sincere. We well remember the amiable original in his northern tour, and recall many of the incidents to which his book alludes. We never have looked upon his like since, and rejoice in this republication as an act of justice; to retrieve an honest man from vulgar misrepresentation."

A copy of the Book, and a handsome present will be sent by mail, post-paid, upon the receipt of $1.00 for the book, and 21 cents for postage. A new Classified Catalogue of Books and Gifts with inducements to Agents, will be sent free, on application. Address, G. G. EVANS, 439 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

THREE PER CENT A MONTH, or the Perils of Fast Living; warning to young men, by Charles Burdett, Author of "Second Marriage," "Elliot Family," "Marion Desmond," "Never too Late," etc. etc. One volume, 12mo., cloth, Price $1.00. (From the Gazette.) "This book deserves to be singled out and noted as above the many novels which are published. Both in structure and style it is entitled to the name of art. It is a tale of Domestic Life, rehearsing the interwoven histories of a round of every day characters, and its aim is to show the follies of the too many, so called, passions and pleasures of fashionable life, touching in no part upon ground that properly belongs to the vast domain of romance."

The Bachelor Millionaire Uncle George, is a character reminding us of the Brothers Cheeryble, and although he teaches the "secret uses of Adversity" with severe discipline, it brings out the true beauty of Character, and shows how few there are who can go through the trials of everyday life, and in the end prove their constancy.

Copies of either of the above books with a handsome Gift worth from 50 cents to $1.00, will be sent to any person in the United States upon receipt of $1.00, and 21 cents to pay postage, by addressing the Publisher.

A new and Classified Catalogue of Books in every department of Literature, together with a list of gifts, and every information relative to the establishment of agencies in the Gift Book business will be mailed free to any one by GEORGE G. EVANS, Publisher, and Originator of the Gift Book Business, No. 439 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

READING FOR THE MILLION.—T. B. Peterson and Brothers have this day issued the second volume of their new and cheap edition of Charles Dickens' Works for the Million, to be completed in 28 volumes, one to be issued on each week Saturday, for twenty-five cents a volume. The cheap literature of former years did not tend much to elevate their readers, but the reading that Peterson now gives, at prices which scarcely cover the cost of printing, is of a very best character, and must exercise a wholesome influence over the public taste, by making all classes acquainted with the works of the best fiction writers in the English language. A reader in the country for one dollar, can have the first four of these volumes translated to him, or the whole twenty-eight volumes will be sent for five dollars. The second volume, issued to-day, contains the conclusion of Oliver Twist and the commencement of Pickwick Papers.

Important News from Mexico.

New Orleans, September 5.—Admiral from Vera Cruz states that Messrs. Greco and McLane had returned, having presented President Buchanan's ultimatum to Juan Comandante the immediate ratification of the treaty.

Nothing important from the Capital has transpired. Fagellada had ordered the troops at Tamico and neighborhood to march to San Luis Potosi which will be the general rendezvous of the Liberals. He intends attacking the Capital in October. All the Pacific coast, in the peaceful possession of the Liberalists. Vivandera is organizing forces at Nuevitas against the Indians and Americans.

Pesquiera had defeated the Indian depredators at Sonora after a severe battle.

Business at Mazatlan was good.

Topic had been recapitulated by the Revolutionists after considerable fighting. Marquez conducting $2,130,000 to San Blas from Guadajarra per the British war ship Calipso, the governor of San Blas has resolved to prevent its shipment if the duties are not paid and a difficulty is apprehended. Comala left Mazatlan with fifty men to join the Liberal forces in Jalisco, and to attack Marquez at Guadajarra.

Bolton and Barrows land claim is a forgery.

Gov. Doglass, has issued a protest against Harney's occupation of San Juan, and sent a message to the Vancouver Assembly, declaring that the British forces are to be kept at San Juan. There is a doubtful report that the British steamer Satellite attacked the Island and killed thirty Americans.

The Voice of the Democracy.

The voice of the Democracy, speaking through County Conventions, is rolling upon us from all parts of Pennsylvania. It is pleasant to the ear and falls upon the heart with a cheering sound, for it assures us that our friends everywhere are rallying with enthusiasm to the support of our State ticket. Every Democratic County Convention that has met, has endorsed Rowz and Wain in the most unqualified terms.

The Forney defection is a small affair. It never amounted to much, and now it is scarcely a ripple on the surface. The gentlemen who at first struck in with Forney, under the impression that he did not mean to desert the Democratic party, have long since become convinced of his premeditated design to go over to the enemy, and have cast him off. We have in our possession letters from a number of the most influential anti-Forney Democrats in the State. The writers assure us that they are for the State ticket, and that they will work as zealously as ever to secure a triumph this fall.

There is not a spark of disaffection here except in Philadelphia, where Forney is leading his Black-Republican subsidies by the nose against his former friends in Chester county, where Hickenham is acknowledged his gratitude to the Abolitionists and Know Notings who contributed so much to his election, by coarsely denouncing our nominees, and in Reading, where Gov. Pacific Flour Inspector, George M. Lammun, in the aid of a squad of bar room loafers, manages to keep up a kind of a drunken elation against the Democratic organization.

The loss of such men as Lava and a gain to any party. Bar-room politicians are always despised, and they injure any party that they hang on to. Whenever one of these individual deserts a party in which he has no welcome, a dozen decent and valuable men are sure to come over to it. In this way the Democratic party is always more than compensated for the corrupt and worthless men who slough off from them.—Valley Spirit.

The Three Persons Curious. One Napsy Falls Falls.—We published on Friday, the instant, a telegraphic rumor to the effect that a boat containing three persons—two men and a woman—went over the Falls their previous. The following particulars are given to the Lockport Advertiser, of Friday morning.

"Yesterday afternoon, about one o'clock a man by the name of Rousseau, and a woman and wife, started in a boat from the head of the Hydraulic canal, at Niagara Falls, to cross over the river to Chippewa when the boat was struck by a gale and capsized. They were observed by persons on shore with spy-glasses to get on the boat's safety. They were seen carried by the strong current into the rapids, and were last seen blowing a gale at the time, and the effort which were commenced for their rescue could not be completed before they were hopelessly engulfed in the fatal waters of the rapids. We learn that Rousseau was saved from a fall like this about a year since, and when rescued was so chilled as to be entirely helpless. He is reported by the citizens in his neighborhood to have been a smuggler by occupation. Mr. Morse was a jeweler, and resided at Chippewa.

POPULAR.—The Black Republican doctrine of intervention by Congress in the affairs of the Territories is exceedingly popular and the Opposition at the South. The Opposition State Convention in Georgia lately solved that Congress can Legislate on the subject of slavery in the territories—precisely what the Philadelphia platform resolved but only in one way, for its protection; the Black Republicans contend that the Constitution must be for its expulsion—the principle exactly, only with a difference in application. The Georgia Black Republicans have infinite faith in the virtues of the Convention—so have their brethren of the North with a "slight variation."

INAGURATION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF KENTUCKY.—Hon. Berian Magraw was inaugurated Governor of Kentucky Tuesday last. He was met a few miles from Frankfort by an imposing military and military escort, and after arriving in the city proceeded to the Capital square, where a large concourse of Kentuckians, men, women and maids, assembled to give the august ceremonies. At night there was a grand inauguration ball, which was presided by Vice President Breckinridge, Governor Morehead and other eminent citizens. The new Governor in his inaugural address advocated harmony and union between two sections of the country, remarking that the position of Kentucky, ever loyal and true to the Union, is to avoid the ultraism of the South, and the treason and dangerous fanaticism of the North.
