Who are Responsible.

If the old saying that a guilty conscience is an unpleasant companion be true, the leaders of the Black Republican party, must be truly miserable at the present time. The sectional and fanatical doctrines they have been actively engaged in promulgating during the last five or six years, were the real cause of the insurrection at Harper's Ferry. But although conscious of their guilt, they will not admit it. They contend that they are innocent, that Brown was a reckless fanatic and that he alone is responsible for the attempted insurrection. The course of the Black Republican leaders is quite natural. The man "whose conscience with injustice is corrupted" is seldom willing to acknowledge his guilt, and notorious criminals generally protest their innocence on the scaffold even at the dread moment, when the drop is about to fall. But for the encouragement old Brown received from the prominent men of the Republican party, he would never have dreamed of raising a servile insurrection among the slaves. He corresponded or had personal interviews with nearly all of them, and many of them furnished him with money, without which no enterprize either good or bad can be carried on. Senator Seward knew that the Insurrection would be attempted, and done nothing to prevent it.

In a previous number of our paper, we endeavored to explain the dangerous and treasonable tendency of Mr. Seward's "irrepressible conflict." doctrine. It is a doctrine calculated to alienate the South from the North and to cause the inhabitants of the Southern States to regard their fellow citizens of the North as their deadliest enemies. It is also calculated to encourage fanatical Abolitionists to commence a crusade against the "peculiar institution" of the South, by encouraging the slaves to rebel against their masters Similar and even more treasonable doctrines have been promulgated by Horace Greely, John P. Halo and other Black Republican leaders. Joshua R. Giddings, one of Brown's backers, said in a public speech several years ago, that he believed the day was not far distant, when there would be a servile insurrection of the slaves in the Southern States, and that when it came, he would hail it as the dawn of a great political millennium.

The course of the Black Republican leaders since the organization of that party, is well described in the following extract from a speech delivered by distinguished statesman in the U. S. Senate, years ago. "There is a spirit which like the father of evil, is con stantly walking to and fro about the earth. seeking whom it may devour.

It is the spirit of false philanthropy. The persons whom it possesses, do not indeed throw themselves into the flames, but they are employed in lighting up the torch of discord throughout the country. Their first principle of action is to leave their own affairs, and neglect their own duties, to regulate the affairs and duties of others. It is a spirit which has long been busy with the Slaves of the South. It is the spirit of which the aspiring politician dexterously avails himself, when by inscribing on his banner the words Liberty and Philanthropy, he draws to his support that class of persons who are ready to bow down at the very name of their

The Democratic Senatorial Conference which met in Tyrone on the 3d inst., appoint ed Capt, G. N. Smith of this county, Deletion. This a well merited compliment to a talented and working democrat. On the action of the next State Convention, will in a measure depend the result of the approaching Presidential contest in this State. While Capt. Smith's course in the Convention will, firm adherance to the principles of the Democratic Party, he will at the same time, unless we are very much mistaken in the man, endeavor to put an end to the miserable dissensions which have recently distracted the ranks of the party, and enabled its enemies to achieve an easy victory over it.

The Saltimore Election Riot.

The city of Baltimore has recently obtained an unenviable notoriety, as the home of the most abandoned, reckless and blood thirsty set of miscreants, that ever polluted the face of the earth. They have inaugurated a reign of Terror in that city, and its condition is now almost as deplorable as that of Paris during the French Revolution, when life, liberty and property were at the absolute disposal of such wretches as Robespierre, Marat and Dauton. The plug-uglies of Baltimore have proved themselves eminently worthy, as the lowest and vilest of mankind, to wear the mantle of the Jacobins of Paris. They rule the city, and respectable citizens are afraid to oppose or object to any thing they do. Their power is at present as absolute, as that of the Emperor of Russia over his subjects, and they are not backward in exercising it.

Doubtless all of our readers recollect the disgraceful riots which have attended all the elections in Baltimore during the last two or three years; in fact ever since the Know

Nothing Party attained the ascendency there Only a few months ago, several of the ringleaders of the plug-uglies were executed for Murder. It was hoped at the time that these executions would dismay the rowdies, and induce them to pay some respect to law and order But subsequent events have shown that the reign of Terror was then only commencing. The election on last Wednesday for members of Congress &c., was attended with more than the usual amount of rioting and bloodshed. The respectable citizens of the city discovered at an early hour, that they could not vote without endangering their lives Nearly all of them who attempted to exercise the right of suffrage were driven from the polls, and many of them were beaten and maimed. Sometime ago the friends of law and order, organized under the name of Reformers, for the purpose of protecting themselves and breaking down the power of the rowdies. They soon found on last Wednesday, that they could not accomplish anything and the majority of them abandoned the unequal contest in dispair. The polls in nearly all the wards were blocked by rowdies immediately after the opening of the election, and the police, all Know Nothings, looked or uietly, as though nothing remarkable was occurring. No man who was not known to be a Know Nothing, was permitted to vote, if the rowdies by any means fair or foul could prevent him from so doing. Adam B. Kyle, certainly if he done nothing to encourage, he | Jr., one of the most respectable and influential Merchants in the city, and a prominent Reformer, was shot in the temple. He died in a few hours His brother was also dangerously wounded. In several wards, the Reformers were resisted by armed men, and a number of persons seriously injured. Nearly all the Rowdies were provided with awls, with which they stabbed the Reformers, who attempted to vote Firearms were freely used in every part of the city, and in one of the wards, the Rowdies brought a swivel on to the ground. William P. Preston a Democratic candidate for Congress, was knocked down with a "billy;" and severely beaten. The Reformers in order to prevent further bloodshed, finally abandoned the contest. As far as the expression of the voice of the people of Baltimore was concerned, the election was the most perfect farce that can be imagined, but the mangled and inanimate remains of Kyle & others, show that it was also a tragedy the like of which we hope will nev-

> The men who thus trampled under foot, law and order, call themselves Americans. They contend that no man born in a foreign land is fit to enjoy or exercise the rights of an American citizen. They should learn human ity from a company of Rocky Mountain Indians, before they undertake to set themselves up as American patriots. They are a disgrace to the land of their birth, but eminently worthy to stand before the world, as the last rempant of the once powerful Know Nothing Party. "

The Opposition.

The Harper's Ferry insurrection, has been fatal to Senator Seward's Presidential aspirations. He never was a favorite of the Know Nothing wing of the opposition party, and the most ultra Black Republicans know that after the recent startling occurences at Harper's Ferry, his "irrepressible conflict" doctrine would sink him so deep if nominated for the Presidency next year, that a bubble would not raise over the spot where he went down. A large majority of the American people are sincere patriots and desire to see the Union preserved. They may ocgate to the next Democratic State Conven- casionally be deceived by the sophistry and disguised treason of fair-spoken demagogues, but they will never consent to support a man for the Presidency, who openly promulgates principles which if carried out in the admin istration of the government, would inevitably lead to the dissolution of the Union But we have no doubt, be characterized by a unfortunately for the opposition, their party does not contain within its ranks a man who would run better than Seward. Cameron is everywhere known as a bold and successful political gambler, who is destitute of all the qualifications which constitute an enlightened statesman. Bates and Crittenden reside too far South, and John P. Hale is even more of Gen. Foster is the unanimous choice of an abolition fanatic than Seward. If the Democracy select an able patriotic and conservative statesman for their standard bearer culty in electing him.

Senatorial Conference.

The Conferees of the Senatorial District composed of the Counties of Blair, Cambria and Clearfield. convened in Tyrone, Blair County, on Thursday the 3d inst., for the purpose of appointing a Delegate to represent said district in the next Democratic State Convention The following persons appeared as conferees, to wit:-

Blair, John Woods, Jesse R. Crawford, and E. B. Isett. Cambria, Michael J. Smith, Isaac Wike and Richard White. Ciearfield, Edward Perks, Robert J. Wallace and Eli

The Conference was organized by appointing Col. John Woods President, and Eli

Bloom and Michael J. Smith Secretaries. The Conference having been called to order, the following nominations were made for Senatorial Delegate to the Democratic State Convention, to meet in March next.

Mr Smith nominated Daniel M'Laughlin of Cambria, Mr. Wike nominated George N. Smith, of Cambria, Mr. Isett, nominated Thadeus Banks, Esq., of Blair, Col. Woods. nominated J. C. Osterloh, of Blair, Mr. Perks nominated W A. Wallace, Esq., of Clear-

As we stated last week, the evidence in the trial of Osawotomie Brown for Treason &c., at Charlestown, Va , closed on Saturday the 26th ult., and the argument immediately commenced. The case was argued at considerable length and with much ability by Messrs. Harding & Hunter for the Prosecution, and Messrs. Griswold and Chilton for the Prisoner. The Jury after retiring a short time returned a verdict of Guilty. A motion in arrest of Judgement was immediately entered by the counsel for the Prisoner. After argument it was overruled by the Court, and the prisoner sentenced to be hanged on the se cond of December. The trial of Con pes another of the insurrectionists commenced immediately after the termination of that of Brown. The evidence was the same as in the former case. He was found Guilty.

Mr. Godfrey Garman was killed on Tuesday of last week, near Wilmore Station. He was attempting to leap from one of the cars of the freight-train going west on which he had ridden from Hendock, when some object caught his coat-tail, and he was instantly thrown under the wheels of the cars. Several persons present ran to his assistance, but before they reached him he was dead. He was a young man of good moral character, and energetic and industrious. His mother and a sister reside in Johnstown.

The Mountaineers have been enjoying delightful Indian summer weather during the last week, and in the rual districts corn huskings and apple butter boilings have been all the go.

nen. Our Republican friends are in the habit of grumbling when they are called Black Republicans. A democratic contemorary proposes to compromise the matter by hereafter calling them Brown Republicans, er again be re-enacted within the limits of in honor of the illustrious fighting man of the party-the Harper's Ferry hero. Will our opposition friends accept the amendment?

The following song is said to have been composed by the Musician of Mary Queen of Scott's, and to have been addressed to her. Our friend Mr. George Burrett sings it beautifully. The truth is, at singing a song, or playing the guitar, he is hard to beat, and as a civil engineer, a type setter, and a gentleman, he has few superiors. Queen of my soul! whose star-like eyes, Are all the light I seek: Whose voice in sweetest melodies Can love or pardon speak, I bow me to thy loved control. Queen of my soul! Mary! Mary! Queen of my soul! Mountains of thy native shore Are cold and dim and gray; Ah linger mid their clouds no more. Thy home is far away, Where I taly's blue waters roll; Queen of my soul! Mary! Mary! Queen of my soul! The perfumed rose for thee is twined. The lute awakes its strain; Steal all thy sweets in vain?

No, fly beyond thy fate's control,

Queen of my soul! Mary! Mary!

Queen of my soul!
