M. M. O' Nill

NEW SERIES.

TERMS:

DEMOCRAT & SENTINEL' IS PUB-lished every Wednesday Morning at BOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS per annum. rable in a leance; ONE DOLLAR AND SEVENTY re Cears if not paid within six months, and To DoLLARS if not paid until the termination the year.

No subscription will be taken for a shorter liberty to discontinue his paper until all ar- skin. rages are paid, except at the option of the

Aux person subscribing for six months will be ged ONE BOLLAR, unless the money is paid Advertising Potes

Queen	isert'n.	77.		C 11	Thead	An square, [12 lines]	the second second second	Contraction of the	- 100		$1
squares, [24 lines]		00		00		00
squares, [36 lines]	1	50			3
	3 mon	ths.	6	do.	12	do
lines or less.	$1	50	$3	00	$5	00
square, [12 lines]	2	50	- 4	50	- 9	00
squares, [24 lines]	4	00	7	0.0	-12	60
aquares, [36 lines]	6	00	9	00	14	00
Al a columna	10	00	12	00	20	00
me collima.					35
15- All a learthemer	sts mu	st be	- 101	arke	eff w	ith
he number of insertion	ns desi	ired.	or t	hey	will	be atinued antil forbid.	and e	harg	ed a	eco	rding	dy.

It is a fact that, at some period, every menithe human family is subject to disease urbance of the bodily functions; but, the aid of a good tonic and the exercise lain common sense, they may be able so to te the system as to secure permanent In order to accomplish this desired he true course to pursue is certainly hich will produce a natural state of is at the least hazard of vital strength and for this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has ined to this country a preparation bearing ae, which is not a new medicine, but one been tried for years, giving satisfaco all who have used it. The Bitters powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, r, restoring them to a healthy and ## Miscellaucons.

LUKE BLAIR'S ENCOUNTER WITH A PACK OF WOLVES. "God have mercy upon us!" This exclaim-ation was not more sudden than startingly uttered, and sent the chills creeping from the ied than six months, and no subscriber will be leaping heart in pricking sensations over the

It was the first time I had ever noticed such a tremor in the squatter's tones, or a manner which indicated that he ever felt fear. It was something unusual, and with my young pulse quickened, I watched the old man by the diar light of the Gre-I had known Luke Blair-"Old Luke." as he was called-for ten years, and yet know nothing of his history. There was a m/s tery about him which none ever penetrated. and an eccentricity of manner which gave his movements a peculiar interest to his rough but true hearted comrades. He spent his time in the woods, and never brought in any thing but wolves' scalps. " There was a fierce burning look in his eyes as he flung them upon the ground, and he would sit for hours after one of his excursions with his head bowed between his hands. As unsocial as was the squatter, he was respected by all who had come in cortact with him. He was brave to madness, and yet as cool in danger as in his camp. Nor was there anything rough in his manners; on the contrary there was an easy bearing. which-almost elegance-bespoke a' day of e lucation and refinement. And when he did speak his language was well chosen.

Blair had other qualifications which won the respect of the hardy spirits around him. He was six feet in height, broad shouldered. full ehested, Land form erect, and his limbs were models of symmetry and strength ; hair and beard had grown unshorn since we had known him, and were thickly sprinkled with gray But the forehead, though darkly that how! went to the soul ! I reeled in ut- built our cabin within sight of the brother's edly told his tribe that if they did not let him mental agony."

EBENSBURG, PA. WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1859.

Blair dropped his head and thrust his fingers into his ears, as if that terrible sound was again ringing through the forest. A moment, and he hurriedly resumed:

"I remember no more nutil the morning broke and the Sun smiled through the trees upon the terrible scene It was horrible! The ground was torn and stained with dar k spots, where pools of blood had sunk away. Seven long black bodies lay around "gashed by the axe, some of them glaring fiercely as they fell, their tongues thrust out and the white fangs gleaming fearfully in their open jaws. The axe itself lay within reach, red with bloood its entire length. My own arms were also stained, and still damp. But, God of mercy a worse sight than all this met my gaze of returning consciousness. Tightly in my arms I was holding the head of my wife, her form bare, and limbs torn into shreds.

The old man sobbed convulsively, and wrong his hands until it seemed that the blood would start from his fingers. "Coming !"

Again, and near than before, the dismal howl rose above the storm. The camp fire burned dimly in the blinding storm of snow, and a sense of loueliness and terror came over the spirit darker than the sky overhead.

Here, take this," said Blair, as he handed me the locket, "and if you survive, carry it to -----, New York, and I will thank you. Boy. I am not afraid to die. Death will be rest, and I shall see Maria. We must take to the tree. It is freeze, or death by the wolves. Quick, boy ! Good by." I felt the hot tears drop on my hand as the old trapper pressed his quivering lips upon it, and then pushed on towards the ter weakness, a moment, but soon ralied, and grave. The oak is now dead and splintered, go to the States to search for his relations, with the speed and energy of despair, rushed and the spot where he cird densely covered they would take him from them by force. He down the path. I had reached the stream, with an undergrowth, whose vines shut out left his residence, Sept., 1858; left St, Pauls and was upon the old trunk thrown across, the light of day, and guarded it even from on the 16th of April, 1859, in company with when another and a different sound reached the footfall of man or beast. Last week our bis Indian brother, (chief elect, last fall,) six my cars. It seemed that my brain would dog brought out a skull, with the wide gash Indians, three ponies and five dogs. They burn into ashes under the fiery heat, and my of an axe hit through the top. Quickly, and heart burst from my bosom. That was the without the knowledge of my wife, I went taken sick and placed in the hospital for treat cry of my wife-a clear, wailing shrick of and tossed the momento into the thickest ment and kept there till he recovered. His growth of the place. - Daily Wisconsin.

An Indian Captive Reclaimed after Thirty-five Years.

[From the Tiffin (Ohio) Tribune.]

The fails - g harrative of the return and recognition of Mathew Brayton, the long lost son of Elijah Brayton, of this county, who was stolen by the Indians thirty five years ago, will be read with interest. It was kindly furnished by Mr. J. W. Chamberlain, of Cary, and can be relied upon as true: On the the 20th of September, 1825, two children of Elijah Brayton, then residing near Springville, in this county, were sent out for the cows After going a short distance from home, the younger one, Mathew between seven and eight years of age, became fatigued and started for a neighboring house close by, while the other continued the search for the cows. Since that time nothing has been heard of the child, until lately. The country was thoroughly searched by all the whites and friendly Indians that resided near this settlement, and continued for several weeks, but without effect. At the time he was lost there were two scars on his person. one on his head, caused by a boil, and one on the big toe of his right foot,

During the latter part of last August, it was ascertained, through the medium of the papers, that a returned Indian captive was at Cleveland, searching for his relatives. Search was made for this person, but he was not found until Tuesday evening, November 15th lowing different topics of conversation at one when he was discovered at a farmer's house, time : near Sugar Grove, Warren county, Pa., by William Dayton, who started with him imme The news flew like wildfire through the neighborhood, and the people have been visiting him constantly since his arrival, ques- cattle, "that I sold for"tioning and cross-questioning him until he is almost exhausted The scars, corresponding to those on Mathew Brayton when lost, were found on his person. He is a man about five feet seven and a quarter inches in height and of light complexion. He has some tattoo marks on his chest, also some scars on his right log, enged by wounds received in an Indian battle some three years ago. The In dians in performing the necessary surgical operation, strapped him to a log and sewed up the woand (some eight inches in length) with a buckskin thong, making but three stitches. The scars made by the needle and thong are nearly as large as that made by the cut of the tomahawk. He has with him his Indian dog, named Nemi, and a large pipe made of fint, which weighs nine cunces .-He says it took him one moon to drill the hole through the pipe, which he did with a piece of steel, some bears oil and water. He was stolen by the Pattawatamie and Canada Indians, and was shifted from one of these tribes to the other, until he was sold by them to the Pawpaw Indians, who gave five and a half gallons of whiskey for him, and they sold him to the Winnebagoes for seven and a half gallops. They were living in Michigan at that time. The Chippeways bought him of the Winnebagoes, and kept him two months and a half, and then sold him to the Sioux for eleven gallons of the fire water. This he loes not recollect himself. but it was told him by the various tribes, as he traced him self back to Ohio. He remembers back to the time he was owned by the Sioux, which he says was twen ty-six years ago To use his language, "I was then a head shorter than I am now." He was purchased from the Sioux twenty-five years ago last April, at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, by the Saakes and Copperheads, with whom he has resided ever since. He lived in Iowa two years, then moved to Minesota, where he staid six months; thence to California, where he resided five and a half years, thence to Oregon where they staid two years, thence to the Russian possessions, where he has resided ever since, except when travelling to and from their trading post. He lived near Behring's Straits, 200 miles northwest of "Big Esquimaux" village, 60 degrees north latitude. He mas crossed the straits several times in the winter season on the ice. He was crossing once a few winters ago, on the back of a large elk, going at a pretty sharp pace, when the elk stepped into an air hole, throwing him over his head into the water .---At the time this took place the lamented Dr. Kane, with his expedition was in that section. After getting out of the water he met one of his crew, a man by the name of Thom as Ilickey. Since his return to the States, on the arrival in Cleveland, when he got off the train, he saw Hickey, who recognized came with him to Chicago, where he was Indian friends there left him and returned to the tribe. He went from there to Detroit, Michigan; thence to Ohio: thence to Northern Pennsylvania, where he was found by William Brayton He was then on his way to some Indians in New York. He can speak five different Indian languages, viz: Snake, Copperhead, Crow, Utah and Flathead. He also speaks the English language very fluently and correctly, which, he says came to him almost intuitively on meeting with the whites The tribe with which he lived had a compass and watch enclosed in one copper case which they used in travelling. They purchased it of the Russians for $100.

He says the Snakes, Copperheads, Crows, Utahs, and Flatheads, together number 100-500-men, women and children included. He married the daughter of the Grand Chief. seven years ago. He has two children a son and daughter. His daughter's name is Tefrona, (Tame Deer.) and is five years old. His own name is Owahowah Kishmwah -When he arrived at Chicago he was dressed in Indian costume, daubed and painted, his hair hanging down to his knees. While in hospital they cut off his hair and scrubbed him with saud, soap and water. until all vestige of the paint was removed. He ate meat raw, but will not eat food containing salt.

Country Meetin' Talk.

An Illinois editor, who sometimes has an attack of Phonography, attended a country meetin' where he took down the fol-

"Vote for Lovejoy!" exclaimed a political aspirant indiguantly, "I'd as soon vote I'll be hanged if I didn't think they would diately for Adrian, where he arrived Thurs- for Lloyd Garrison himself, loaded down as gone into fits. They yelled and hooped like he is with"--

VOL. 7---NO. 4

SONG OF THE NEWSPAPER.

I am a Newspaper I carry the news To all of your dwellings-Wherever you chocse; A more faithful servant Can hardly be found-Almost omnipresent I'm scattered around.

Like the stars in the heavens, And sands on the short; Like leaves that have fallen When summer is o'er I fly o'er the land,

I pass o'er the sea. I brave every danger ---It's pleasure for me.

I gather the news from The steamers and care, And telegraphs, sparkling With trade, peace and wars; I fill up my mission, Defending the truth, And teach useful lessons.

To old men and youth.

A Funny Sketch.

A Hoosier, an awful ugly man relating his travels in Missouri, said that he had arrived at Chickenville in the forenoon, and just a few days before there had been a boat bursted, and a heap sf people burned and killed one way and another. So, at last I went into a grocery, a squad of people followed in, and one bowed and said, "It's one of the unfortunate sufferers by the Lursting of the Franklin,"

Upon that he asked me to drink with him. and as I put the tambler to my mouth he stopped me of a sudden "I beg your pardon. but-"

"But what?" sez I.

"Just fix your mouth that way again," sez he.

n, and thus, by the simple pr strengthening nature, enable the sysmph over disease.

are of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nauamlency, Loss of Appetite, or any Bilions daints, arising from a morbid inaction he Stomneh or Bowels, producing Cramps, entery, Colic, Cholers Marbus, Sc., these rs have no equal.

Jiar hosa, dysentery or fiux, so generally coned by new settlers, and caused principally the change of water and dict, will be speedily ated by a brief use of this preparation. sin, a disease which is probably more lent, in all its various forms, than any s, and the cause of which may always tiributed to deraagements of the digestive ns, can be cured without fail by using STETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per ions on the bottle. For this disease every ician will recommend Bitters of some kind; why not use an article known to be infal-All nations have their Bitters, as a preve of disease and strengthener of the sysin general ; and among them all there is be found a more healthy people than ermans, from whom this preparation cunnted, based upon scientific experiments which ve tended to prove the value of this great ration in the scale of medical science. FEVER AND AGUE .- This trying and provokcase, which fixes its relentless grasp on dy of man, reducing him to a mere shaa a short time, and rendering him phyand mentally useless, can be driven the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S OWNED BITTERS. Further, none of the stated diseases can be contracted, even used situations, if the Bitters are used directions. And as they neither create nor offend the palate, and render unary any change of diet or interruption linary pursuits, but promote sound sleep ealthy digestion, the complaint is rered as speedily as is consistent with the proion of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Persons in Advanced Years, who are ring from an enfectled constitution and frm body; these Bitters are invaluable as a ntive of strength and vigor, and need be tried to be appreciated. And to a her while nursing these Bitters are indishie, especially where the mother's nourant is inadequate to the demands of the hild, consequently her strength must yield, nd here it is where a good tonic, such as ostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart emporary strength and vigor to the system. adies should by all means try this remedy is all cases of debility, and, before so doing, hould ask their physician, who, if he is nainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will mmend their use in all cases of weakness.

CAUTION .- We caution the public against using by of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask or Hostetten's Celebrated Stowach Bittens, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Bosteiter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side I the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap vering the cork, and observe that our autograph ignature is on the label.

♣ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany.

AGENTS .- Davis & Jones. Ebensburg; J. A; nsh, Summitville; Wm. Litzinger, Loretto. for Kinney, Munster. August 81, 1850 .- ly.

brouzed and deeply scamed, was almost mas-sive, and the head of faultless mould. The eve was dark. lustrous, and, in excitement of peculiar and fascinating power Around his neck was some sacred token, which no eve had seen, and which he guarded with a jealous care.

There was something about the old man his commading presence, his bravery, and his lonely h b is and sad manner-which wor my young heart, and I watched every opportunity of manifesting my regard. I had engaged him to guide me to the Mississippi, by nay of ---- Prairie.

For several days we threaded the dense forests which intervened, and under great difficulties The snow had fallen to an unusual depth, the cold was intense, and rendered more intolerable by the fierce wind upon the prairie waste. We were warnuly dressed, out there were times when the weary frame began to feel the dreary influence of the sleep which steals so fatally over the sences. On the night in question we had turned aside to seek the shelter of a grove of small i nher, and to fied fuel for our fire. We had faced the blinding storm all day, and could hardly keep sufficiently awake to kindle the fire and secure wood for the night. We had just accomplished this when the hunter made the exclamation at the head of the story. I was awake at once, and the blood tinged through my chilled veips, for I knew that Luke Blair would not speak without cause. "Hark ?"

The word was but a whisper, but had : terrible distinctness. His hand had involuntarily sought his rifle, and his head turned towards the woo's I heard nothing but the wil i roar of the storm as it swept by.

"There 'tis again! The devils are on our tract." and he clutched his knife handle with a steady grasp, and breathed hardly through ais thin nostrils.

I heard the noise this time, which had attracted his attention before, swelling, as the storm lulled an instant, into a wild, protracted howl, as from a thousand famished throats clear, dismal, and wailing with that fearful tones which startles the boldest, even at their firesides Blair turned, and as our eyes met he slowly whispered --

"A pack of hungry wolves! God have mercy upon us !"

A sickening sensation went like a flas' to the heart, and then came burning thoughts of home, and again the chills, as I thought of the shelterless prairie and blinding snow. "Again! the black devils are on our tracks!" Ar Biair spoke he laid his hand upon my arm, and with an expression of sadness which I never shall forget looked me steadily in the eye. There was a tremor of the lip which I had never seen before. It was not fear-I knew that-but some terrible rememberance or presentment which came over him with irresistible power.

. The hour has come! I knew it wouldhave felt it for days. I do not fear death, but it is horrible to be huated down in such a spot as this, and be tore by infernal dev-

His breath came thick and hissing though his clenched teeth, and his chest heaved with

had better come and take him away. Poop over their shaggy skins. The mangled body tribe being nearly famished by hunger, went deacon, as he quietly stepped to the side of over his head, and taking a locket attatched was snatched from them, and I cut down to Hudson Bay in search of provisions, where lad, and in a whisper affectionately inquirnever knew, but the original was once the from the tree and carried to the cabin. to it in his hand, "is the shadow of one you A down East editor says he has seen he first learned that he was a pale face The ed:light of my young life, and came with me to |. I was all Winter recovering from my the contrivance our lawyers use when they et Catlery, Razors, Brushes, Combs, Station whites being unable to purchase him (the In-dians refusing to part with him.) threatened this territory when the world was bright with juries The awakening from that dream of "How is it with you, my son?" Blank Books, Perfumery, Soaps, Tobacco, "warm up with the subject." He says it is The boy looked up, and supposing him to ars, Snuffs and other articles usually kept in hope. I left her in the cabiu, one day, and death was terrible awakening, and I suffered a glass concern and holds about a pint. to take him by force, but the great disparity went to my work, as usual. She crossed the more than pen can describe. be the exton, answered :-of their numbers prevented them from put- "Oh! very bad, and I want to go out-my ting their threat in force. They would not innards is kickin' up a revolution and the ma, Ma, didn't the minister say last Sup-R. S. BUNN, M. D. May, 4, 1859.-24-1y. Blair was buried on the edge of the prairday, that sparks flew upwards?" "Yes, dear; how came jou to think of it?" "Because valley, and came where I was working -Wishing to fell the tree I was at work upon, ie. and when I left in the Spring the early visit any white settlement for three years after fourth of July!-and if ever I eat a green I unged her to cross the log over the creek flowers were already sprung over his grave. that, for fear he would leave them, or be ta- currant pie again, my name ain't Jeems Bel-THIS WAY. yesterday I saw consin Sally's spark stagger-ing down the street, and fall downward." before dark, and I would immediately follow The old man rests sweetly under the shadow ken away by the whites. They then visited lings." Lord Selkirk's settlement on Red River,-UST RECEIVED AND FOR SALE A large her. She had not been gone but a little of the old oak. Willis eleverly says, in one of his sketches, that a literary reputation is to be built at this day, like the walls of Jerusalem ad spandid Assortment of American Pocktime: when there burst up between me and I carried the locket to its destination.- where they got into a skirmish with the whites our cabin that long, freezing sound, the howl The sister clutched it eagerly, and thanked The whites told him there, also, that he was AT It is said by some vankee to be an (Every knife warranted.) by our cabin that long, freezing sound, the howl The sister clutched it eagerly, and thanked The whites told him there, also, that he was excellent plan always to measure a man's of a wolf. It was answered as if from a me, though her heart almost broke under the a white man. He had been at St. Paul sev- length before you kick him, for it is better to GEORGE HUNTLEY. lugust, 10. 1859. St. thousand throats, and up and down the val- stroke. I remained in New York through the en or eight times on trading expeditions; also bear an insult than to make an unsuccessful with a trowel in one hand for plastering BLANK SUMMONS AND EXECU ley, until one wild, startling, unearthly howl Summer, and in the Autumn the sister re- at Lord Selkirk's settlement, Hudson's Bay attempt at thrashing a fellow, and get your friends-and a sword in the other for suiting TONS FOR SADE AT THIS OFFICE swelled on the slill evening air. God, how turned with me to --- Prairie, and we and St. Anthony's Falls. The whites repeat eye teath knocked out. epemies.

tr.es We had need to be quick, for we had hardv reached the branches when a score of long. loomy shadows shot out of the surrounding darkness, and sent up a yell which went to the heart colder than the breath of the Winry blast. They paid but little attention to he dim fire, and scenting their prey gathered in a shadowy circle beneath as.

"Lash yourself fast, boy. and commend our soul to God. for will freeze, and better to rot on the oak than to be torn by the devils." "It's of no use," he continued, as I sug-zested that the sound of our guus might reach the inmates of the cabin, "they would not hear 'em in the storm, and besides, I swear by the living God, that I will send some of them to h-ll before I die."

Blair commenced his deadly work and as one of the wolves fell the others fought and snarled, and gnashed their teeth over the horrid feast. Their teeth sounded like the smitting of steel upon steel. Still they howled more ficrcely as the slaughter went on. "My gun is wet, and will not go."

heard Blair mutter with a curse. "Damn 'em I'll try them with the axe." My wildly uttered warning was too late, for, as it swelled above the sounds below, with unatural strength Blair leaped down with a shout of rage and defiance, and with his axe and knife fought the pack face to face.

I grew sick at heart as I watched with burning eye-balls the struggle through the darkness. I could see the black forms swarming around the trunk, where Blair had backed up. After the first howl of joy, as it seemed to me, when Blair jumped down, the wolves were less noisy, and apparently more weary, for they seemed to realize that they had an enemy to deal with. I madly called to him, and muttered curses, as I tried to untie the thongs with which I had lashed myself to the trunk.

"Ha, ha ! glorious sport here, boy; another devil the less." and his maniac laugh and shout came up scatcely less startling than those of the wolves around him. I knew that he was mad.

I could hear the vice-like jaws close constantly around Blair, and now then his axe sink with a heavy, crushing sound into some skull, and then all grew more dim; a delicious feeling of happiness crept over me; the sounds of the strife below died out, and sweet dreams stole over me like the summer's breath. The reports of our rifles had reached the cabin, which, as I afterwards learned. was not twenty rods from where we camped. The inmates, numbering some fourteen, by the addition of emigrants who had stopped in the storm, came out with dogs and guns, and head of a wolf that the corners remained fast, and the others tore him down. They were literally shot down with their fangs holding

He was in St. Paul when it only contained intense emotion. tears seemed to start every moment. Professor is in convulsions. Miss. you to the torn flesh, and his warm blood jetting "Here;" said he, lifting the solied string seven houses. About eight years ago his-A clear case of repentance, thought the old

"Two of the fattest beef critters you ever sot your eyes on." interrupted a dealer in

"That horrid yellow dress again," exclaimed Miss Spruse, in what might have sounded like a whisper if she had not been on the other side of the room; "painted, too, half an inch thick, and wears"-

"Teeth and nails to get to office," broke in another polititian, "but the people will not trust him; besides he is"-

"Spavined in both hind legs, wind broken and foundered, to boot, as I told Mr. Jarvis at the time"--

"One tea cup full of butter, two of sugar, three of flour, four eggs, and a sprinkling of nutmeg, makes"-

"Both ends meet when the year come s ound, poor woman! for she has got six children, the oldest one blind, and"-

"No saddle or bridle to ride him with, somebody stole it while I was gone to Chicago after"-

"The long milennial day which we have no doubt is to be 'brought out through the ministration of"-

"Two Dutchmen, a monkey and hand-organ to grind it; and oh, it made the funniest music, and the figures danced around like"--

"Nine thousand miles of railroad track. and this at an estimate cost of"

"Five cents a dozen. I sold four hens to Mrs Wilson, and the hawks carried off three, besides any number of chickens, and"-

"Such a handsome young man, and he dances so be-ewtifully. Did you ever see a handsomer pair of whiskers, or more insinuating".

Handle to my new tea-pot, and Tommy declared he hadn't touched it at all, and I knes Emily hadn't for she had"-

"Running at the rate of 25 miles an hour with no lights on, and around is curve at that, when the locomotive broke the bridge over' .---

"That young Miss Brown that had the small-pox last spring. They do say that she is going to marry"- town. I wanted the gun the worst way, and offered him"-- and I don't know what he hadn't had, poor little darling. This is the first time I've taken him out at all since"-

"The Mexican War, which I consider perfectly unjustifiable, unless it be on the ground that'

"The preacher has come," exclaimed a boy, and depositing my report in my pocket, I proceeded into the school-house to muse on the utility of phonography.

How is it with you .- At a prayer meeting in the church of the village of Spunktown, in the State of Maine, a country lad was nohim instantly, cailing him by his Indian ticed by one of the elder deacons to hold down his head and wriggle in his seat, while the gus !"

I done it just as I was gwine to drink and a pack of wolves Finally one of the gang

"Don't make fun of the unfortupate; he's hardly got over being blowed up yet. Let's make up a puss for him."

They then throwed in, and made up five dollars. As the spokesman handed me the change, he axed me :

"Where did you find yourself after the explosion?"

"In a flat boat," sez I.

"now far off ?" "Why," sez I, "I never seed, but as near as I can guess, It was about three bundrd and seventy miles.

You'd ortor seen that crowd scatter to Ma, I want some liquid generosity on my bread and butter.

Some what, my child?

Some liquid generosity!

What in the world does the boy mean by liquid generosity? What is it like, my son? Gosh, mam! don't you know? Why its molasses, to be sure!

Here, Bridget, spank this boy and put to Swallowed a Hole .- The other day Charlie, five years old, found one of those curious bonne-rimmed circles which, I beheve, ladies have named eyelets, and while playing in the garden swallowed it. The family were in the house, busily engaged with a work on eta molagy, when Charley ran in with month wide open and eyes distended to their utmest capacity His mother caught him by the arm, and trembling with that deep anxiety which only a mother can fee!, inquired:

"What is the matter? what has happen-

The urchin, all agare, managed to articulate.

"Water!

It was brought him; when after drinking copiously, exclaimed,

"Oh! mother, I swallowed a hole!" "Swallowed a hole, Charley?"

"Yes, mother; swallowed a hole with a piece of ivory round it!"

19. A farmer in Minesota, while at work 'burning brush," a short time since, heard a furious growl proceed from the centre of a brush heap that was burning fiercely, and immediately after a bear, with the hair singed off of him rushed from out the blazing mass, and, after running about for a moment in a bewildered manner, disappeared in the WOODE.

LT A clergpman, catechising the rouths of his church, put the question from the catechisism to a girl :

"What is your consolution in life and death !"

The poor girl smiled, but did not answer The elergyman insisted.

"Well, then," said she, "since I must tell, it is the young printer at the "Ar-

"Two pointer dogs and the best gun in "The scarlet fever and whooping cough