TER MERTER & ATTRACK TO THE PATRONS OF THE "DEMOCRAT AND SENTINEL" JANUARY 1st 1860.

Each age has deemed the new born year, The fittest time for festal cheer, Little we heed the tempest drear, While music, mirth and social cheer, Speed on their wings the passing year. SCOTT.

The happiest day hath come of all the year, And so dear friends, your carrier boy is here; Pray don't frown on him then with haughty scorn.

To do so would disgrace this happy morn, When care and sorrow all their griefs forego "And leap exulting like the bounding roe." The happiest brightest spot on earth is home; The outcast wretch compelled by fate to roam Through foreign lands, never forgets the spot, Where stood the humble solitary cot. Beneath whose lowly roof the holy light, Of heaven first burst upon his infant sight; Where first a mother's gentle love he knew.

Which fell upon him like the vernal dew. That wake from death the bright and beautious flowers.

Which with their smiles make glad the summer hours:

The soldier sleeping on the field of gore, Dreams of the home that he shall see no more, The sailor boy while rude winds of the North, From their drear home in gloomy wrath come forth,

In dreams revisits home's bright glowing hearth, And finds it still the happiest spot on earth; But soon the spell is broke, the dream is o'er He wakes to weep and list the tempest's roar. But you are at your nomes kind friends to-day, With those you love, cheerful and happy, gay, No treacherous gossip's in your midst to spy, Yeur faults and follies with dull envy's eye; The storm without but serves to make more bright

The scene within, for the pure holy light, Of filial and parental love is there, And quick dispels the gloom of grief and care. The song is sung the cheerful jest is told, And ancient Margaret feels no longer old, Though forty years have flitted o'er her head, She feels to day she's young enough to wed; The gentie Miss emerging from her teens, Thinks Jack is stow, she don't know what he

Above we present you with a likeness of DR. MORSE-the inventor of MORSE'S INDIAN ROOT PILLS. This philanthropist has spent the greater part of his life in traveling, having visited Europe, Asia, and Africa, as well as North America-has spent three years among the Indians of our Western country-it was in this way that the Indian Root Pills were first discovered. Dr. Morse was the first man to establish the fact that all diseases arise from IM-PURITY OF THE BLOOD-that our strength. health and life depended upon this vital fluid. When the various passages become clogged, and do not act in perfect harmony with the different functions of the body, the blood loses its action, becomes thick, corrupted, and diseased; thus causing all pains, sickness and distress of every name; our strength is exhausted, our health we are deprived of, and if nature is not assisted in throwing off the stagnant humors, the blood will become choked and cease to act, and thus our light of life will forever be blown out. How important then that we should keep the various passages of the body free and open. And how pleasant to us that we have it in our power to put a medicine in your reach, namely, Morse's Indian Root Pills, manufactured from plants and roots which grow around the mountainous cliffs in Nature's Garden. for the health and recovery of diseased man. One of the roots from which these Pills are made is a Sudorific, which opens the pores of the skin, and assists Nature in throwing out the finer parts of the corruption within. The second is a plant which is an Expectorant, that opens and unclogs the passage to the lungs, and thus, in a soothing manner, performs its duty in throwing off phlegm, and other humors from the lungs by copious spitting. The third is a Diurctic, which gives double case and strength to the kidneys; thus encouraged, they draw large amounts of impurity from the blood. which is then thrown out bountifully by the uri nary or water passage, and which could not have been discharged in any other way. The fourth JUST RECEIVED. s a Cathartic, and accompanies the other properties of the Pills while engaged in purifying the blood; the coarser particles of impurity which cannot pass by the other outlets, are thus taken up and conveyed off in great quantities by the boweis.

From the above, it is shown that Dr. Morse's 10 00 Indian Root Pills not only enter the stomach. but become united with the blood, for they find way to every part, and completely rout out and ES, CLOCKS, &c., and also of a large manufac cleanse the system from all impurity, and the life of the body, which is the blood, becomes per-For further particulars apply to the Superior feetly healthy; consequently all sickness and of the College. HOWARD ASSOCIATION. PHILADELPHIA.

At all events to day she'il happy be, Tom's at her side, and who's more fond than he. The Miss of thirteen thinks she ought to know. She's old enough to day to have a beau, And smiles on Johnny lingering by her side, Wondering meanwhile if e'er she'll be a bride.

Friendship and love to day reign o'er the town, E'en politicians cease to talk of Brown: Old Mordecai comes forth to take a nip. And Damphool joins him in a friendly sip. They nip and talk till reason's light is fled, When Bitters kindly takes them both to bed.

Old fifty nine hath bid the world farewell; Upon his merits friends twere vain to dwell, War, pestilence and famine were his friends, But for these faults he more than made amends; While strife made desolate fair Italy's plains, Peace o'er the rest of earth triumphant reigned. While on Magentia's field the soldier died, The lover kissed his long loved faithful bride, - While loudly pealed the dreadful cannon's roar, Old feuds were healed and foes were foes no more, Even when gore made red the verdant sol. The upright heart and pure returned to God.

And so my song is ended friends adieu, What's this ? Hurrah ! a dollar, good for you; May youthful sixty be your constant friend, And choicest blessings all your days attend; To day at least, you'll taste pure perfect joy. You've promptly paid the faithful CARRIER BOY.

LT How hard corn bread may be made will appear from the following story, told us by an old gentleman in Western Arkansas: --'I have been living down here below Fort Smith for twenty years. The desk in my office is at the head of a long flight of stairs. and in the haste of business my inkstand is often knocked off and rolled down. For a long time I could get no material that would stand this usage. Glass was out the question. Stone broke like crockery. The hardestwood I could find soon gave. Finally a lucky thought struck me. I sent up to one of my GUARANTEED to each purchaser. $100,000 neighbors-the widow B---- for a piece of her corn bread. After ruining several line tools I succeeded in hollowing it cut, and shaping it into an inkstand That was ten years ago; and, stranger. I've used that inkstand ever since, and I think its good for at least ten generations longer!"

LT For many years Moses, a negro, was a servant at the University of Alabama, and waited on the students very faithfully. He was, however, a great hypocrite, and was on that account commonly called 'Preach,' among the boys. One day he was passing a crewd of students, when one of them, out of mischief, called to him and said:

'I say Preach, what are you going to do when the devil gets you ?'

" Wait on the students," was the ready reply.

13 "Hance, where was you born?" "On de Halborask." "What always?" "Yaw, and before too?"

"How old are you then?"
