

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

HALIFAX, March 12.—The American arrived at this port this morning, bringing Liverpool dates direct to the 26th ult., and by telegraph via Queenstown to the 26th, four days later. Her news is interesting.

The English Channel fleet had departed for the Mediterranean. This movement is said to have been occasioned by the demands made by Spain upon Morocco, requiring a large portion of territory from Morocco, as one of the conditions of peace.

Austria rejects England's Italian propositions, and abides by the Villa Franca agreement. She will not employ force at present, but reserves the liberty of doing so if necessary in the future.

Spain demands from Morocco a large indemnity, and possession of all the conquered territory, etc.

The Atlantic Telegraph Company propose to attempt the restoration of the old cable. THE ALLEGED ALLIANCE BETWEEN AUSTRIA AND RUSSIA.

The morning Chronicle publishes the following in its second edition: Intelligence received from a source in Vienna is to the following effect: Russia has decided on renewing her old alliance with Austria. The treaty is on the point of being signed, and will be carried to St. Petersburg by Prince Alexander, of Hesse. We have excellent reasons for believing the provisions will be as follows: The most ample concessions as to all that relates to the holy places at Jerusalem will be made by Austria to Russia. Second, with a view to eventualize that which will have every probability of being refused, Austria to conform her policy to that of Russia as to the Danubian provinces and Servia; Third: As a compensation for these concessions in the East, Russia will guarantee to Austria the whole of her territory, including Hungary and Venetia, against insurrection and foreign foes.

The Paris correspondent of the Daily News, fears that it is but too true, that at a Ministerial meeting held on Friday, and presided over by the Emperor, and which lasted for four hours, a resolution was taken against Italian unity, on the pretext that Russia and Prussia object to the annexation which alone can satisfy the Italian people.

The French government, it is alleged have resolved to reject the annexing Plebiscite to Tuscany must be abandoned altogether. The people of Tuscany will be called upon to choose sovereignty, and their will be no objection to their choice falling upon Duke of Genoa, Victor Emmanuel's nephew. Specially the Duchies of Modena and Parma may be annexed to Piedmont by the consent of the inhabitants. Thirdly, the question of Romagna is to be submitted to a conference of the powers. But still the idea of creating a separate State of the sovereignty of the Holy See, and annexation subjects to that sovereignty either to Tuscany or Piedmont, is not abandoned. Piedmont will be required to adhere to these proposals made under the threat of withdrawing the French army from Italy, and leaving her to the mercy of Austria.

Horrid Murder at a Party. Last evening, at a quarter past seven o'clock, one of the most horrid murders was committed that ever outraged the feelings of humanity. A social party was assembled at one of the apartments in No. 71 East Broadway, visiting the family who resided there. Among the number was Patrick M'Hugh, his wife Bridget and their two children. The evening appeared to be passing pleasantly with them. They were talking and amusing themselves together, when suddenly Patrick said to his wife, "Won't you give me some beer?" to which she replied, "Why, no, Patrick, I never give you anything now." As she spoke this he placed his arm around her neck as to embrace her, but in his hand was an open razor, with which he suddenly cut her throat. The stroke was given with such power as to cut away even a part of the bone (the third vertebrae). She fell, and fell without the utterance of a word.

The sight presented to us as we entered the house, was pitiable in the extreme. There lay the mother, so frightfully mangled. At her head sat one of the guests of the party, with an infant in her arms, stained with blood which had spirted from the wound, while around her were gathered the son and his two sisters, rending the air with a piteous wail. The son, a manly fellow of seventeen, declared to us how the father had been disengaged from the Ohio penitentiary, where he had been incarcerated for seven years, for kidnapping his mother's life. She died with the marks of the wounds received on that occasion still upon her person.

Since his discharge, the son relates that he had been kind to his mother, and that whenever he could slip home from his duties along the river, (where he worked) he would find his father at home, until Monday night, when his father began to drink again, and the result was the result. After the murder the father deliberately walked to his residence, in Longworth's wine barracks, on Sixth street, east of Broadway, and began to talk to his son, who knew nothing of the murder, and said Bolzer and Anderson entered and attacked his father. The three children are James, who is seventeen years of age, Mary and Hannah, who are aged respectively ten and eight years.

As soon as the information reached the coroner's-street station house, the officers were despatched by Lieutenant Brockington, every direction in pursuit of the murderer. Immediately officers Bolzer and Anderson had been directed to his room in the barracks, which they reached just as he was making up his traps.—Cincinnati Commercial.

Proposed Change of Holding the National Democratic Convention, New York, March 14.—The Central National Democratic Committee are considering the propriety of changing the place of holding the National Convention to some other point. The reason of this is owing to the exorbitant prices which have been fixed by hotel-keepers and other places of accommodation at Charleston. A large number of the Convention and members have called the attention of the Committee to this matter, and the Committee believe they have power to make a change, backed up by the democracy of the Southern States. They will change the place of holding the Convention to Baltimore.

A man named Deight was recently married in Cooper county, Mo., to his third wife. The Ohio Legislature has resolved upon an extra session.

Corruption is the hobby of John Covode.

It is his mission to expose the malpractices of the Federal Administration. The emblem of political purity himself, he smells the scent of corruption in every breath of air. He offered a resolution in the House on Monday raising a committee to investigate whether the President, or any other officer of Government, has used money or other improper means to influence the action of Congress or the election of members of Congress in Pennsylvania or other States. The resolution was adopted. Covode will therefore enjoy the distinction of being at the head of a corruption committee. Great things are expected of Covode in this line. The Tribune is gratified, and will be disappointed if this inquiry does not result in some startling developments. Of course it will. Startling developments are what the committee was constituted for. The Republican party know how to manufacture any quantity of "startling developments" to order, and as there is a great necessity for material of this kind just now to give something very exciting will unquestionably be forthcoming. Covode is the man to do it. He will dissect and annihilate the Administration, and while he has his hand in, perhaps he might be induced to investigate the cause of his defeat at this place on the 22d of February, and the nomination of Curtin, merely to satisfy himself whether corruption had anything to do with that.—Patriot & Union.

It is said that Congress will adjourn for several days at the time when the Republican Convention is held at Chicago, and the Democratic Convention at Charleston.

DISEASE OF THE LIVER.—By this disease we understand an inflammation either in the membrane or substance of the liver, known by dull pains in the right side, the stomach always disordered, the yellow tinge of the skin, dry cough, tongue coated, costiveness, high-colored urine, and of a thick nature severe weakness and severe pains in the head in a morbid condition. The quantity of corrupted humors in the region of the liver causes a defective secretion of the bile. The liver when healthy, serves as a filter to the blood, to separate all impurity from it, or to refine it. When diseased, it cannot purify the blood, which, when sent to the lungs, brain, and other parts in a morbid condition, may cause Jaundice, Consumption, Insanity, &c., and withholding the natural stimulus to the intestines, causes Dyspepsia, Piles, and other complaints, as you perceive the direct way to unravel and tear the whole system to pieces.

A patient, suffering from this complaint should resort to speedy relief. Yet there are very few medicines worth a cent in curing diseases. What then shall be done? We say, use Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, as they are composed of plants and roots; they will be found a sure cure for this painful disease, because they purge from the bowels the corrupt and stagnant humors, cleanse and renew the blood, which is the cause not only of the disease of the liver, and the inflammation of the kidney and bladder, but of every description of disease. From 3 to 4 of the above pills, taken every night on going to bed, will in a few days entirely relieve the body of everything that is opposed to health.

See advertisement of Dr. Morse in another column. Sold by Thomas Devine.

CHILDREN AND FEVER! CHILLS AND FEVER!—One of the greatest remedies that has ever been laid before the public, for Fever and Ague, and which have received the highest encomiums from the press and the people, is DR. J. HOSIETTE'S "PAIN EXPELLER BITTERS," who would endure the tortures arising from this terrible disease, when it can be so easily cured? Who would endure sleepless nights, burning fevers and icy chills alternately, when a remedy can be obtained for a mere trifle? And yet how many families linger out a painful existence under this terrible ailment, until it becomes as common as their daily meals, and yet they are not relieved. None but the Bosh and weak would hesitate to procure these valuable Bitters, and save themselves intense agony.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally everywhere. See advertisement in another column.

AN ORDINANCE.
