AT The Japanese Embassy left this country on their return to their far off home, on Saturday last, after perhaps one of the most favored sojourns that so extraordinary an embassy from one country ever enjoyed within the borders of another. The splendid United States steamship Niagara sailed with them from New York about two o'clock on Saturday afternoon direct for Japan, via the Cape of Good Hope, and will reach her destination in about one hundred days. The preliminaries and preparations for the departure on the previous day was somewhat interesting, as ollows:

The embassy left the Metropolitan Hotel and were escorted to pier North river by the common council committee, the seventy-first regiment, and the naval commissioners. After a delightful sail on the Harriet Lane, up CAMBRIA COUNTY, SS. the North and East rivers, viewing the Great Rastern and the navy yard on the route, they were placed on board the Niagara, and their escort bade them adieu. Before leaving the first ambassador had taken off his outer garment or coat, with which he invested Mr Leland, explaining it as the highest order of Japanese compliment. "Tommy" had also presented Mr. W. W. Leland with the suit of clothes which he wore at the reception of President Buchanan, saying, "I hope you will keep them in my remembrance." The five princes of the Japanese were present at a wedding ceremony, in full costume, on Wednesday last, at Grace Church. The princes had expressed a wish to see a funeral, a lawsuit and a wedding, and were gratified. This was their only entrance into a place of religious worship in America. They expressed themselves surprised and delighted by the beauty of the edifice.

How a Jour Printer Raises the Wind .-The people of Geauga county are justly indignant at the manner in which they have been victimized by a Cleveland jour printer, who has been giving "blind man entertainments" in that section. Covering his eyes with hideous green goggles and hiring a small boy to lead him, he goes through the country with a small panorama and a collection of puppets. In his bills he makes touching appeals to the community to "help a poor blind man," and usually draws full houses. The joke of the thing-if there is any joke about n- is this: he isn't blind at all. People in the "provinces" will do well to look out for this bogus blind man. He forgot himself at Burton the other night, when he threw off his goggles to whip a fellow who endeavored to palm an old fashioned cent on him for half a dollar.

THE PERSIAN FEVER CHARM.

July 4, 1860.-3t.

For the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers. This wonderful remedy was brought to the knowledge of the present proprietors by a friend who has been a great traveler in Persia and the Holy Land.

While going down the river Euphrates, he ex. perienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague-On discovering his condition, one of the Boatthent of follicles and consequent thickening of men took from his person an Amulet, saying, Wear this and no Fever will touch you." though incredulous as to its virtues; he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all malarious complaints.

On further investigation he found that the boatman attributed to it miraculous powers, and sail that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun. Some time afterwards, the gentleman in conversing with a Priest obtained from him the secret of its preparation, and ascertained where the medicinal herbs were found. of which it was compounded. The wonderful virtues of this article have induced a full belief

Since his return to America, it has been tried Since his return to America, it has been tried with the happiest effect by several Ladies and Gentlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been a specific in Persia for hundreds of years, for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers—is now offered to the American people.

The undersigned begs leave to inform the city zens of Cambria and adjoining counties that he has just received a fresh stock of the finest ITALIAN and other Marbles, at his eitablishment on Franklin street, Johnstown. An aperient and stomachie preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Senetified by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it.

ergy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable Innoxious in all malladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz: In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipution, Diarrhoa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruction, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Feeers, Pimples on the Face,

Impurities of the blood, depression of vital en-

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from Chronic complaints one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotton in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from a protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exbaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to Medical men, the operation 5000 of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating, and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative or inflicting a dis-

It is this latter property, among others which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant costineness.

In unchecked Diarrhora, even when advanced to Dysentary, confirmed emaciating and apparently malignent, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debiliating cough, and remittent heetic, which generally indicates Incipient Consumption, this remedy has atlayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances. In Scrofulous Tuberculsis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of idione, without any of their well known liabillities, The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the caces peculiarly affecting them. In Rheumatism, both Chronic and juffamatory
