FOR GOVERNOR, HENRY D. FOSTER, OF WESTMORELAND COUNTY. NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

- Assembly, M. D. MAGEHAN, of Ebensburg, Register & Recorder, ALEX. M. GREGG, of Millville Boro. Commissioner, JOSEPH GILL, of Chest tp. Auditor, JACOB R. STALB, of Squehanna tp. Poor House Director, HENRY HOPPLE, of Carroll tp.

Money! Money! Money!! We are again compelled to call on our subscribers to pay us the subscription now due. We do not like to be dunning them all the time, but we must have money now, and we request those persons indebted to us for subscription, job work or advertising to call and settle up their accounts. The coming court will be a good time for those coming from the country to call and see us and square up. By so doing they will confer a favor on us which will long be remembered.

The Friends of the Union. Who are the friends of the Union at the present time? The Black Republicans are not, because they constitute a sectional party which has not the shadow of an organization South of Mason & Dixon's line. Through its leaders, Lincoln & Hamlin, it has proclaimed a crusade against the institution of slavery in the Southern States, which has already been practically illustrated by the John Brown raid. Its principles if practically carried out in the administration of the National Government, as they doubtless would be in the event of the election of Lincoln to the Presidency, would inevitably lead to the dissolution of the Union.

The friends of Stephen A. Douglas for the Presidency, have but slight grounds on which to found their claims to be recognized as defenders of the Union. Their leader is the father of the squatter sovereignty doctrine, which is but little better than diluted Black Republicanism, and calculated to deprive the citizens of the Southern States of their rights under the Constitution. The Union can only be strengthened and preserved by securing to the citizens of all the States their constitutional rights. Douglas' squatter sovereignty doctrine if enforced, would accomplish exactly the reverse of this as far as the Southern States are concerned, and would weaken and probably dissolve the Union.

The friends of Bell & Everett, although they claim to be the Union Party, have really no platform; so that we are left in the dark as to the principles which they would expect to see enforced in the Administration of the Government, in the event of the success of their candidates. We have no means of ascertaining their true principles, and are therefore left to take their professions of devotion to the Union just for what it is worth, and no more. No party at the present time should be ashamed to avow its principles, if it has any.

The Democratic Party has taken high and National ground in the present contest. The great object it has in view, is the preservation of the Union from dissolution, and its members can therefore justly claim to be the true friends of the Union. Breckenridge & Lane its candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, are pledged if elected, to repudiate the squatter sovereignty heresy, and to labor for the preservation of the equality of the States and those rights to which they are all equally entitled. The Constitution and the equality of the States are the rallying cries of all its members in the contest; sentiments which must find a response in the breast of every true patriot in the land, and as Breckenridge has truly said, are the symbols of everlasting Union.

All the States came into the Union on terms of perfect equality. It was a union of equals for all were equally sovereign. Under that union Virginia is the equal of Pennsylvania and South Carolina of Vermont; and a Virginian is entitled to enjoy the same rights under the Constitution that a Pennsylvanian does. All must therefore agree that this being the case, a Southern man possesses the same right to emigrate with his property to the Territories which belong to the Nation, and purchased by blood and treasure of all the States, that a Northern man does. If he does not possess this right then he is the inferior of the Northern man, and his State is not the equal of the Northern States of the confederacy.

Any party which repudiates this doctrine, so exactly in accordance with the teachings of patriotism, equity and common sense, is not a national party, and the friend of the Union. The Democratic party is the only organization in the County which endorses it, and we must therefore naturally conclude that all other parties are hostile to the perpetuity of the Union. Although many of their members may honestly desire to uphold it, they advocate doctrines calculated to bring about its dissolution.

Douglas' squatter sovereignty doctrine is founded on the idea that the States are not equals. A careful examination of it will convince every candid man in the land, that it amounts to about this—that the Territories belong to the Northern States, and that they can at any time, prevent the citizens of the Southern States from emigrating to them with their property. It claims for a Territorial Legislature, the child of Congress, powers which Congress does not possess itself, and seeks to invest a few fanatical squatters imported into the Territories, by emigrant aid societies, with power to rob American citizens of their birthright. The National Democracy now arrayed beneath the banner of Breckenridge and Lane, demand that the Territories shall remain open to all the inhabitants of the States, and that no earthly power shall prevent them from emigrating to the Territories with their property, whenever they desire to do so. When the inhabitants of a Territory frame a constitution preparatory to asking for admission into the Union, they possess the right to decide whether slavery shall or shall not be an institution of the new State; but a Territorial Legislature possesses no control over slavery, and can neither introduce it or abolish it. This is the true Democratic Doctrine; it is the doctrine on which Breckenridge and Lane stand, and it is the only one which can ever settle the slavery question, restore harmony to the country, and strengthen the Union.

A Monster Cucumber. Major Gideon Marlett of the "Walton House," Cambria township, raised in his garden during the present season, a cucumber which measures 16 1/2 inches long, & 13 inches around. Mordecai who arrived in town yesterday from Monkbarns, and who is now very happy, having just imbibed several glasses of small beer over at Wissels, says he thinks that that cucumber is some Pumpkins. If Mordecai was only a scholar, he would be the very man to run for the Legislature this fall. Although he don't understand Latin, he says some good things occasionally. Mr. Editor, he remarked to us a few moments ago, I ain't much of a scholar, but I know Dampfool, don't spell my name correctly. But it's a family failing. I never yet knew a Dampfool that ever distinguished himself at a spelling school. And then the old man muttered to himself wrathfully. Asses and Owls unseen themselves betrays Jonathon Oldback says so, and of course he ought to know Mordecai, said we, has Jonathan Oldback got through with his harvest yet. Yes, said Mordecai.—With the assistance of four men and sundry gallons of old rye whiskey which cost 37 1/2 cents a gallon, he succeeded in getting his crop into the barn in excellent order. He is now engaged in finishing his "History of Cambria County." He intends having it published in book form. The motto on the title page will be an extract from "Baxter's Shove." Good-bye Mr. Editor.

We enjoyed the pleasure a few days ago, of becoming acquainted with Mr. James B. Dodge, of Pittsburg. He was in town transacting business for the firm of Kay & Co., Booksellers &c. Like nearly all of the citizens of the Smoky City who visit our town we found him to be affable, gentlemanly & intelligent. We were pleased to learn from him, that a fair correspondent, the productions of whose pen excite the admiration of all who peruse them, has not forgotten us, and that we may hope to hear from her often hereafter.

It will be seen by an advertisement in our columns this week, that the Cambria Co. Agricultural Society, will hold a Fair at the grounds of the Society in this place, on the 3d 4th and 5th of October next. A liberal list of premiums will be issued, and as our farmers have been blessed with an unusually abundant harvest this year, they should promptly aid in getting up an exhibition that will be a credit to little Cambria. The Managers have made arrangements that all premiums shall be paid.

Business has prevented us from giving the usual attention to our editorial columns this week. Several important subjects were compelled now to pass by, will be attended to next week.

Democratic County Convention.

We this week raise to our mast head the ticket placed in nomination by the County Convention yesterday. We have not room to publish the proceedings this week, but will do so in our next issue. The ticket is composed of as good men and as good Democrats as the County can produce; men of undoubted ability, who, have never bowed the knee to the foul spirit of Abolitionism. Next week we will speak of them in "detail." At present we have not time to do so.

A series of able resolutions were adopted by the Convention, recognizing John C. Breckenridge as the Democratic candidate for the office of President, and Joseph Lane for the office of Vice President of the United States, and Henry D. Foster for the office of Governor of Pennsylvania. The plan for uniting the party adopted by the State Executive Committee at Cresson was unanimously endorsed. We never attended a Convention whose proceedings were so harmonious. The only object the Delegates seemed to have in view was the sustaining of the men and principles of the Democratic Party.

We have been asked if we think the ticket placed in nomination yesterday can be elected. We entertain no doubt that, if the friends of the nominees are active, energetic and vigilant from now until the election. Such men as Michael Dan Magehan, Alexander M. Gregg, Joseph Gill, Henry Hopple and Jacob B. Stalb must and will command the support of the Democracy of Cambria. It is only necessary to name them in order to convince a Democrat, that they are worthy of his support. Augustin Durbin Esq., was appointed Chairman of the County Committee, and George Walters, C. D. Murray and S. B. McCormick Congressional Congressmen.

Pic Nic.—There will be a Picnic at a grove in the vicinity of Jefferson on next Saturday, and we advise all of our friends who desire a little relaxation from the business and cares of life to attend. Refreshments will be furnished in abundance, and we are certain all present will enjoy themselves. Those who love to behold, "The gay dance of bounding beauty's train, Link grace and harmony in happiest chain," will be gratified. All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, and therefore we advise all our politicians who have during the campaign exhausted their mental and physical energies in their efforts to save the country, to go to Jefferson on next Saturday. But for heaven's sake don't talk politics while at the Picnic. By so doing you would drive all the ladies from the ground.

A Change.—James C. Noon, Esq., has resigned the editorial chair of the Mountaineer, and intends hereafter turning his attention to a more lucrative business. We learn his withdrawal from the editorial corps of this county with regret, and hope that prosperity may go with him. His successor, Mr. John Lloyd, has not yet laid down his programme, but we presume the political complexion of the paper will undergo no change.

Our friend, Mr. Wm. Barnes, has now on hands at his establishment in this place, a very large assortment of Carriages, Buggies, and all other vehicles in his line of business. As a coachmaker he enjoys an enviable reputation, and employs none but the best of workmen. We especially recommend him to the patronage of our farmer friends.

H. V. Johnson the Douglas candidate for Vice President, is the open and avowed enemy of Douglas' squatter sovereignty doctrine. His views with regard to the rights of slaveholders in the Territories are more ultra than those of Breckenridge & Lane. This is certainly consistent consistency over the left. The idea probably is, for Douglas to advocate squatter sovereignty in the North, where it is supposed to be popular, and for Johnson to denounce it in the South where it is known to be unpopular. A very pretty arrangement certainly, but it won't work.

A Patriotic Sentiment. Stephen A. Douglas who is now engaged in stumping the United States, recently delivered a speech in the Abolition State of Rhode Island, in which he said he cared more for the baked clams of Rhode Island, than he did for the Niggers of Southern Slaveholders. This if wit at all, is certainly of a lowest kind, and borders closely on the vulgar. We presume that he wishes by the remark, to convey the idea that he cares no more about protecting the rights of Slaveholders, than he does about a heap of inanimate clams. What a National and patriotic sentiment!

MEETING.—The National democracy of Cambria County are requested to meet at the Court House in the borough of Ebensburg on Monday Evening of next week, the 3d inst, for the purpose of ratifying the nomination of Breckenridge and Lane for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States, and Henry D. Foster for Governor. Able speakers will be present.

A DURBIN. Chairman County Committee.

Commendrum. Why are the Editors of the Mountaineer like the British Cabinet? Because when they got in a snarl, they resign.

For the Democrat and Sentinel. The Lincoln Meeting.

A meeting of the friends of Lincoln was held on the Public Square, in the Borough of Johnstown on Saturday week, and was addressed by S. S. Blair, "Glory to God" Covode, & L. W. Hall of Altoona. The turnout was not half so large as was expected, and the third of the number present, was either Spill, Breckenridge or Douglas men.

The speeches were really dry and prosy. Covode especially. Mr. Blair talked sensibly while discussing the "cause and effect" of a tariff, but was sadly wrong in the history of tariff issue. He doubted Douglas' tariff sentiments as he hailed from a State, that was notoriously "free trade!" He forgot that Lincoln hailed from the same State.

Mr. Hall made what was sat down for a Bell and Everett speech and was listened to attentively. Mr. Covode made an eulogistic speech having used the pronoun I about one thousand times. He said he was at Washington, and he was on the investigating committee, &c., &c. He harped on corruption; he said if he had run out of money, sundry things would have been done. He referred to his Report of the Investigation committee. This Report cost the Government more than a million of dollars, spent all the precious hours of Congress, and finally proved nothing but that both parties are in the habit of circulating private funds for the purpose of paying poor printers who print Presidential tickets, Governors tickets, and other State and County tickets, for which they seldom receive any other pay. It was not long since there was a dispute in the People's Republican Wigwag about certain money that was spent in Pennsylvania, and even in this County, for the same purpose. The money came from Ohio, the names of the papers who received the money were published, and our County was represented. We do not blame them for taking money enough to pay them for their labor during the campaign, but we do blame them for insinuating that the other party ever took any public money for any such purpose.

Covode referred to the abominations carried on in printing the "Public Documents" at Washington, but he forgot to tell the people that the "Report" of his "Investigating committee" was the greatest abomination of all, having cost the Government more time and money, than the entire expenses of Buchanan's Cabinet, for four years, while it is of no practical benefit to anybody. The more shrewd Republicans laugh at its ridiculousness and folly.

The truth is the administration spent no public money that all administrations from Washington down were not in the practice of spending, while Covode was the direct cause of getting one hundred thousand copies of his nonsense printed at the public expense.

MARRIED.—At Loretto on last Sunday by the Rev. Mr. Reynolds, Mr GEORGE YINGER to Mrs. PRISCILLA DILLON.

The next duty a man owes his country after voting the Democratic ticket, is that of getting married. George is a good democrat and therefore as a matter of course is not indifferent to the claims of "God's last gift to man," which quotation being translated into English, means woman. Mr. Yinger and his bride have our best wishes for their future happiness.

DIED.—On the 21st inst., MATTIE, daughter of Robert Davis, Esq., of this place, aged about 12 years.

We announce the death of this truly beautiful and amiable child, with feeling of sincere sorrow. Her sweet face was always radiant with smiles, and to gaze on it gladdened the heart in its loneliest hours. The entire community sincerely sympathize with her surviving parent in his melancholy bereavement.

If that high world which lies beyond Our own, surviving love endears; If there the cherished heart be found The eye the same, except in tears— How welcome those untrodden spheres, How sweet the very hour to die! To soar from earth, and find all fears Lost in thy light—Eternity. It must be so, 'tis not for self; And striving to exclaim the grief, Yet cling to beings severing link— Oh in that future let us think To hold each heart the heart that shares With them the immortal waters drink, And soul in soul grow deathless there!

Mrs. Mary Durbin, died at her residence in Loretto on last Saturday, aged 73 years. The deceased was universally beloved by a large circle of friends and relatives, who mourn her death with sincere and heartfelt sorrow. She was one of those who loved the "cool sequestered vale of life," and therefore her only acquaintances were her kindred and those among whom she had been raised. Her pure and blameless life gives us every assurance that mortal beings can have, that her eternal happiness is secure. May she rest in Peace.

Died.—In this place this morning, Mrs. Jane Owens, consort of Charles Owens, aged about 37 years. Mrs. Owens was a kind and devoted wife and mother. Her husband and children in her death have encountered a heavy loss.—Her life was pure and blameless, and we are certain she died without an enemy in the world.

The Great Holland Remedy. BERRHAVES HOLLAND BITTERS.—Persons subject to nervous or sick headache, will find in Berrhaves Holland Bitters, a safe and pleasant remedy. It soothes the throbbing head, corrects acidity of the stomach, assists digestion, and creates a healthy appetite. It is, without doubt, a most delightful preparation, and an effectual remedy. The fact that it is now a very popular medicine throughout all the Holland settlements in Wisconsin, New York, Michigan, Illinois and Indiana, speaks much in its favor. See advertisement in another column.

General Foster.

The Centre Democrat the Lincoln organ of Col. Curtin, published at Bellefonte, the residence of Col. Curtin, has taken up the cudgels in defence of Gen. Foster against the malignant slanders of his own party.

We take the subjoined extract from that paper of the 19th ult: "A finer gentleman than Gen. Foster cannot be found in the State, and it is an infernal outrage for his party to treat him so scabiously. He is the model of an American gentleman and Statesman. He is an upright consistent man, and such men are always welcome to our ranks. One thing we will promise him, if he joins us we will at least, treat him decently, and that is more than the democrats are doing for him at the present time. We are sorry that we are placed in a hostile position towards Gen. Foster, for we like him very much, and come what may, no word of abuse shall escape our lips, when speaking of him, nor will we stand by and bear him traduced by any one. The man that maligns him in our presence will be told that he is mistaken—if he repeats his abuse he will be told he is a liar—and if he reiterates a third time, what we know to be false, we will smash his teeth down his throat." For Gen. Foster we have the warmest feeling of personal friendship.

What the People Want. No great public want can long remain unanswered. When a condition of things has become developed so that a great public want is realized, either in theology, civil government or physics, that very want or demand is sure to create a supply. The hour will create the man, and the need the thing. Witness the sewing machine, the reaper, the telegraph. There may be several abortions. Many may run before they are sent, but ultimately humanity will triumph and the want be supplied.

It cannot be that Medicine will long remain what it has been—a mass of intricacies, of which they who know most know little, while the confident pretender is sure to be a knave. Nor will it be always a system so intricate and obscure that only priests of the temple can speak its language or interpret its symbols; or an oracle so equivocal that he who consults the priest fares as ill or worse than he who abjures the temple altogether. There must ere long be a system that comes down to the wants of humanity in every-day life—that meets the wants of the mother at her cradle, the nurse at the bedside, the father on his journey, or the sailor on the sea. Some thing or some system that everybody can have, and everybody can use, to arrest the first invasion of disease, and to restore the ruddy current of life ere its fountains are vitiated and its forces undermined.

Old school medicine, with its crude drugs and poisons, can never meet this want. That is a game long since played out, a thing well understood. Equally futile the wanted panaceas and elixirs which ignorance has begotten and folly sustained. The water cure can never be more than a doubtful expedient or useful palliative in the hands of the people. Nor can the usual form of Homeopathy, however large its domestic manual, or complete its assortments of tinctures and pellets, be ever anything more than an amusing pastime in the hands of the people. The system was never designed for such use, and can never fill such a place.

It is contended that HUMPHREYS' system of Specific Homeopathy does meet this want. In a small treatise, are comprised some twenty Specific Remedies for all the more common complaints to which a family are subject, and the whole are so arranged and simplified that any person of ordinary intelligence can successfully apply them. They are free from danger or intricacy, and, according to the testimony of thousands of the most reputable persons who use them, entirely successful. Why then, may not this great problem be considered as solved, and that here is a system that does meet the wants of our common humanity, in every day-life—the great popular system of medication for the relief of the people and adapted to their wants. Surely nothing can be more harmless than these Sugar Pills, nothing more convenient or successful than these SPECIFICS.

The Pittsburgh Post administers the following scathing rebuke to John W. Forney, who is now so faithfully laboring to disrupt and destroy the Democratic party by getting up a straight-out Douglas ticket. The Press charges that we "pretend to be for Douglas, and advocate a scheme denounced in terms of bitter indignation by Douglas himself" If to insure the success of the great Democratic party, a compromise is permissible in Virginia, New York, and other States, we think it is equally so in Pennsylvania. We are the friend of Mr. Douglas. We have been so from the first. We believe in the great doctrine of popular sovereignty, and as a Pennsylvania Democrat, and the editor of a Democratic newspaper, we claim freedom to act as one of the popular sovereigns of the Keystone State. It is not that we love Caesar less, but more, that we advocate a united Democratic ticket. We believe that the best interests of Mr. Douglas, as well as of the Democratic party in Pennsylvania, will be best served by a faithful adherence to the Cresson proposition.

Out of Mr. Forney the seeds of Democracy have multiplied and died. He has a contract to fulfill with his masters. It is to keep up discord in the Democratic party in Pennsylvania. He prates about principle. Bah! His principle is comprised in five loaves and two fishes. The Clerk of the Republican House of Representatives is not the man to give us lessons in Democracy. He has been thrown off and discarded by all who truly love Democratic principles. His partisanship of Mr. Douglas would be an injury to him if it were not manifestly hollowhearted and insincere.

The last thing in the way of political advertising is a letter envelope surrounded with a rail fence. On one end of the envelope is a portrait of Old Abe, and beneath it the identical flat boat which is said that individual used to run. The engraver failed to produce the bar at which he used to sell tangle-foot whiskey. No doubt "Old Abe," to use the Republican sobriquet, has split rails, and it is equally true that these rails will split him.

Mr. Peter Swamy, of Loretto, yesterday presented us a dozen of pears which were remarkably large and truly delicious. They weren't hard to take.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE CITY OF BALTIMORE. St. Johns, N. F., August 24.—The steamship City of Baltimore, from Liverpool on the 15th, for New York, passed off Cape Cod yesterday afternoon. Her arrival, which took four days later, were obtained by the yacht. The steamers Jura and North Star had arrived out.

The following political intelligence is furnished. Eighteen hundred more of Garibaldi's force have landed in Calabria. It is reported that Garibaldi has been to Naples in conference with the revolutionary leaders at that point. Naples has been proclaimed a city of siege. It is reported that Austria will renounce the treaty of Villa France, and announce the operations of Garibaldi in Naples threatening her interests in Venice.

Fifteen hundred English troops have landed in Syria. The Neapolitans claim to have repulsed an attempted landing of the Garibaldi forces at Reggio and at Caudriello.

It is reported that if Garibaldi lands in Piedmont, Gen. Lamoriceiro will cross the frontier under promise of Austrian support. Austria assumes a threatening attitude, demanding explanations concerning Garibaldi's letter to Victor Emmanuel, announcing an expected attack in Veneto. There is an activity in the Austrian army corps.

Mr. Breckenridge has no intention to Withdraw.—Louisville, August 29.—The Cincinnati authorizing Mr. Breckenridge to withdraw from the National Executive Committee at Philadelphia to contradict emphatically the rumor that he thought of withdrawing, and desired to withdraw from the Presidential test.

Never see a Gold Dollar.—The Philadelphia Inquirer says that not very long since a liberator's convict, from the Eastern Penitentiary, went to one of the spectators to ask for aid. The official gave him a gold dollar. The convict, in excitement, remarked for some time with curiosity, regarding that when he was in prison he had never heard of the existence of a coin of that denomination.

Many of the prisoners after their liberation for the first time of important political and social events which have had their excitement in their day, and which have directly lost their novelty to the world.

HOSTETTER'S GELATIN BITTERS, whose beneficial effects upon the system has been clearly proved by those who have been stricken down in a short time by this dreadful fever, whose strength and meagre, and whose nights are not restful, and whose eyes are dim and with death staring them in the face, the potent stimulant of a blessing snatching them away from the very mouth of the grave. None can know its true value until they have tested it. When all others have failed, Bitters have restored the sufferer to health. Their popularity in all the Western Southern parts should introduce them everywhere. Sold by druggists and dealers generally. See advertisement in another column.

PILES! PILES! PILES!—What is the cure?—Thousands of persons have been cured of this disease by the use of HUMPHREYS' Homeopathic Pile Specifics. It is not how it is cured. Every one who has manifested in the form of hemorrhoids, frequent bleedings, or in violent irritation, depends essentially upon a condition of the abdominal venous circulation, produces the enlargement, dilation of the formation of tumors, hemorrhoids, piles, and the disease can only be permanently cured by medicines which, taken internally, relieve this venous congestion. Heretofore washes, and even injections, are so inefficient. HUMPHREYS' Homeopathic Pile Specifics sugar pill, taken two or three times a day, cures the disease by cutting off the source from which the disease depends. HUMPHREYS' Pile Specifics, even the most obstinate, will be promptly benefited by it. Cures a box.

N.B.—A full set of HUMPHREYS' Homeopathic Specifics, with Book of Directions, and different Remedies, in large volume, price $5; ditto in small volume, price $2.50. Single boxes, price 50 cents. WORMS.—In a quantity of correspondence there is always to be found a most interesting item. They cannot, neither will they stay in the stomach. Weak stomach and bowels are the result. Hence a large host of people are afflicted with worms, and worms must be the result. Doses of these pills will disturb them in the bowels and drive them out of the system. It is remembered, that an occasional dose, will cure the disease from forming in the body. See advertisement of Dr. Morse in another column. Sold by Thomas Devine.
