FOR GOVERNOR. HENRY D. FOSTER, OF WESTMORELAND COUNTY. NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET. Assembly, M. D. MAGEHAN, of Ebensburg. Register & Recorder, ALEX. M. GREGG, of Millville Boro. Commissioner, JOSEPH GILL, of Chest tp. Auditor, JACOB R. STALB, of Susquehanna tp. Poor House Director, HENRY HOPPLE, of Carroll tp.

Money! Money! Money!!! We are again compelled to call on our subscribers to pay us the subscription now due. We do not like to be dunning them all the time, but we must have money now, and we request those persons indebted to us for subscription, job work or advertising to call and settle up their accounts. The coming court will be a good time for those coming from the country to call and see us and square up. By so doing they will confer a favor on us which will long be remembered.

The County Ticket. We are rejoiced to find that the Ticket placed in nomination by the Democratic County Convention last week, gives general satisfaction to the true Democracy of the County. It could not well be otherwise. The ticket is composed of as good men and as good Democrats, as our County can produce, and it is therefore natural that it should command the support of all sincere Democrats who "have a local habitation and a name" in little Cambria.

Where Are You Now, George? We beg leave to inform Captain Smith, that a great many of his friends are anxious to know where he now stands. He was temporary Chairman of Forney's State Convention which assembled at Harrisburg on the 26th of July, and of course endorsed its proceedings. That Convention appointed a State Central Committee before adjourning. Said Committee assembled a few weeks ago, and after repudiating and denouncing the action of the Democratic State Executive Committee at Cresson, appointed a Straightout Douglas Electoral ticket. Now good Captain, which ticket do you intend supporting? Do you intend to stand by the Cresson compromise, or have you determined to vote Forney's Electoral ticket? It is quite natural that you should desire to sustain your action at Harrisburg on the 26th of July, but still we hardly think you are willing to assist John W. Forney in his efforts to cut the throat of Henry D. Foster.

Miss Louisa E. Vickroy—We are pleased to learn, that this gifted daughter of Cambria, of whom we have all just reason to feel proud, will deliver her Lecture on the Poets and Poetry of America, in this place on Tuesday evening of next week. This Lecture is pronounced by those who have heard it, as highly interesting and instructive. Miss Vickroy has attained a high position among the Poetesses of our country, and is emphatically a child of song. All of our friends who wish to encourage native intellect, will of course attend.

On Dit—That George N. Smith intends delivering a series of Lectures next winter on the following subjects. Lecture 1st—Political consistency—what it consists of. 2d. The latest and most approved method of turning political summer sets. 3d. The method by which Anti-Douglas men were in a moment transformed into Douglas men at Charleston.

The Democracy of Huntingdon County, is well known as one of the working Democrats of the Northern portion of the County.

He is an excellent business man. If successful on the second Tuesday of next October, he will, we entertain no fears, discharge the duties of the office with an eye single to the interests of the taxpayers of the County. Our candidate for Auditor, Mr. Jacob B. Stalb, is one of the unflinching Democracy of Susquehanna township, and is a young man possessed of excellent business qualifications and a good education. A better selection could not possibly have been made.

For Poor House Director, the Convention placed in nomination Henry Hopple, of Carroll township. Every one who knows the man must concede this an excellent nomination. He is one of the substantial and energetic farmers of Carroll township, who have made it the garden of our County. If elected he will make a prudent and economical, but at the same time a humane officer.

Such, fellow Democrats, is the County Ticket presented to you for your support this fall. Go to work at once with the determination that it shall be elected.

Truth. Our beloved and venerated friend of the Johnstown Echo, stated a few weeks ago, that we, at the time, endorsed and justified, through the columns of the Democrat and Sentinel, his course in seceding from the caucus of the Democratic members of the Legislature in 1857, convened for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for United States Senator, and that we now condemn him for so doing—and thereupon he charges us with gross inconsistency. We took no notice of these charges at the time, but as we have since frequently heard them repeated, we will say a few words in explanation. We were not editor of the Democrat and Sentinel at the time Capt. Smith seceded from the Legislative caucus. The thunderbolts which were then hurled at his enemies through the columns of this paper, were forged, we believe, in the neighborhood of Hemlock. We did not then, as every Democrat in Ebensburg knows, endorse his course, but we did oppose the movement of certain members of the party in attempting to read him out of the party for so doing. Some seven or eight months afterwards, we took charge of the editorial department of this paper. Capt. Smith was then a candidate for re-election to the Legislature, and was opposed by a Democratic volunteer candidate. We then contended, that his course in seceding from the Legislative caucus was not a justification for a sincere Democrat, in opposing him. We maintained that Mr. Buchanan had interfered in an improper manner, in the contest for the United States Senatorship, and that whether right or wrong, Captain Smith was honest in pursuing the course he did, and was actuated by pure motives. This was the head and front of our offending at that time. Captain Smith acknowledges that he then voted against the regular nominee of the Democratic party for United States Senator, a National office, and yet he says in the same article, that he is willing to swear that he never voted for any other than the regular nominees of the Democratic party for National, State or County offices since 1849. Hold Captain! don't be too rash. Look before you leap. Can you swear that you voted for the Democratic County Ticket in 1854, and for the Democratic nominee for U. S. Senator in 1857? Speak now, or hereafter and forever hold your peace.

Disunionists. Mr. Breckinridge is accused with being a disunionist, because Hon. W. L. Yancey, it is said intends voting for him. This is certainly very bad logic. We believe it is true that Mr. Yancey several years ago, advocated the dissolution of the Union. But he indignantly denies that he is now a disunionist. But even if he is, Mr. Breckinridge is not responsible for his sentiments. R. L. Johnston, Esq., the member of the State Executive Committee for this District, and a Douglas man, denounced John W. Forney at the Cresson meeting, as a Black Republican and enemy of the Democratic party. Mr. Forney is a warm supporter of Douglas. Therefore, according to the logic of Douglas men, Douglas is a Black Republican and an enemy to the Democratic party. We know a man who was a Know Nothing in 1855, who intends voting for Douglas. Therefore, according to the same logic, Douglas is a Know Nothing. But Douglas is supported by Southern fire eaters as well as Mr. Breckinridge. In order to prove this, it is only necessary to publish the following extract, from a speech delivered by Colonel Gaudin, of Georgia, in the Charleston Convention. He was then and still is an ardent supporter of Douglas. Recollect the following are the sentiments of a Douglas man.

"Col. Gaudin said he would do all he could to reconcile his friends in Georgia to this doctrine, and denounce congressional protection as an abstraction. In the course of his remarks he referred to Virginia as 'slave-trading and slave-breeding Virginia.' 'A delegate from Virginia objected to the designation applied to that State—'Mr. Gaudin.—Well, I'll say slave-trading Georgia, then. I don't object to the designation—I am a slave breeder—I face the music. Come down to my plantation and I'll show you a fine lot of young niggers there and pure Africans, too.' 'Col. Gaudin then proceeded to advocate the revival of the African slave trade, and believed Massachusetts herself would shortly advocate it. He did not see why he should pay $2,000 for a negro from Virginia, when he could buy him in Africa for $50. He denounced the treaty for the suppression of the African slave trade, which, he said, was against the laws of God and nature's God. The doctrine of non-intervention should be applied to that trade. It was intemperate to send back to Africa the negroes at Key West, half of whom would die and the balance be delivered over to cannibalism.'"

H. V. Johnson, Is the Douglas candidate for Vice President. He repudiates Douglas' squatter sovereignty doctrine as a political heresy, and endorses the platform on which Mr. Breckinridge stands. The following resolutions were drafted and reported by him to the Georgia State Convention, held on the fourth day of last July. Read them carefully. Douglas said recently, in a published letter, that "intervention is disunion." So according to his doctrine his colleague on the ticket is a disunionist. Democrats of Cambria, what confidence can you repose in a party which supports men for the highest of earthly stations, whose views on an important political question are as far asunder as heaven is from earth.

Resolved, That we reaffirm the Cincinnati platform, with the following additional propositions: "1st. That the citizens of the United States have an equal right to settle with their property of any kind, in the organized Territories of the United States, and that under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Dred Scott, which we recognize as the correct exposition of the Constitution in this particular, slave property stands upon the same footing as all other descriptions of property, and that neither the General Government, NOR ANY TERRITORIAL GOVERNMENT can destroy or impair the right to slave property in the common Territories any more than the right to any other description of property; that property of all kinds, slaves as well as any other species of property, in all the Territories, stand upon the same equal and broad constitutional basis, and subject to like principles of recognition and protection in the LEGISLATIVE, JUDICIAL, and EXECUTIVE Departments of the Government. 2d. That we will support any man who may be nominated by the Baltimore Convention for the Presidency, who holds the principles set forth in the foregoing proposition, and that we will not hold ourselves bound to support any man, who may be the nominee, who entertains principles inconsistent with those set forth in the above propositions, or who denies that slave property in the Territories does not stand upon an equal footing, and on the same constitutional basis of other species of property"

While deaths have been extremely rare in our town during the last year, weddings have been quite numerous. If this state of affairs continues, the population of our ancient borough will of course increase rapidly. So mote it be.

The Public Schools of this Borough opened on last Monday. The following are the names of the teachers: Superintendent—J. E. Sechler. Second Grade—E. D. Evans. Third Grade—Lemuel Davis. Primary Grade—Miss Charlotte Evans.

The first new Goods of the season are now being received and opened at the store of E. Shoemaker & Sons'. We have not yet had time to examine the stock, but as we know Theodore has an eye to fancy, we will venture to say the stock is of the best kind. We would advise our friends to call around and examine for themselves.

GRAND RALLY OF THE DEMOCRACY OF CAMBRIA! BRECKINRIDGE, LANE, FOSTER AND THE COUNTY TICKET ENDORSED.

In pursuance of the call of the Chairman of the County Committee, a large and respectable number of the Democracy of Cambria county, assembled at the Court House in the borough of Ebensburg, on last Monday evening. An organization was effected by calling William Kittell Esq., to the Chair, and appointing Paul George, Esq., of Washington, Francis Bearer, Esq., of Susquehanna, E. Buck, Esq., of Johnstown, and Dr. R. S. Bunn, of Ebensburg, George McCullough of Munster, Wm. Wimer of Johnstown, Vice Presidents, and M. M. Adams, Esq., of Washington, John M'Brice of Cambria, and William Barnes of Ebensburg Secretaries.

The meeting was then addressed at considerable length, and with much ability, by John F. Barnes Esq., of Johnstown, Gen. Joseph McDonald, Charles D. Murray, and Col. Michael Dan Magehan, of Ebensburg. They proved that Stephen A. Douglas was not nominated for the Presidency by the convention which assembled in the Front Street Theatre, at Baltimore, according to the established rules and customs of the Democratic party; and they also proved that H. V. Johnson was not nominated for the Vice Presidency by that Convention. They analyzed Douglas' squatter sovereignty doctrine, and proved that it was little better than diluted abolitionism. The claims of Breckinridge and Lane to the support of the Democracy were set forth at considerable length and in an able manner. The course of George N. Smith at Charleston and Baltimore was reviewed, and it was proved that his course at both those places, rendered him unworthy of the confidence and support of any party. All the speakers eulogized Gen. Foster, and urged the democracy to vote for him, and to stand by the Cresson compromise. They were frequently interrupted in their remarks, by enthusiastic outbursts of applause.

A letter from R. L. Johnston Esq., to Augustin Durbin Esq., Chairman of the County Committee, was read by one of the speakers, and was commented on by him at considerable length. The letter purported to be a "challenge" to the "Orators" of the National Democracy in this county, to meet him, the aforesaid, R. L. Johnston, Esq., in debate. The letter is smoothly written, but can hardly be called a specimen of polite literature. It starts out by asserting that Mr. Durbin and his friends are now the enemies of regular Democratic nominations, and there fore disorganizers. Mr. Durbin is politely informed that he is not the Chairman of a Democratic Committee, and that some of the leaders of the Breckinridge movement in this county, opposed a portion of the Democratic ticket during the last two years. The letter was on motion referred to a Committee of four to be appointed by the Chairman. Gen. White and Dr. R. S. Bunn were called on for speeches, but declined, on account of the lateness of the hour, making any remarks. The meeting then adjourned with three rousing cheers for Breckinridge, Lane, Foster the County ticket and the Cresson compromise. It was emphatically a large, respectable enthusiastic and harmonious gathering of the Democracy of Cambria, and one of which they had good reason to feel proud.

Persons afflicted with the Fever and Ague should not spare either time, trouble or expense, to procure DR. HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS, whose beneficial effects upon the system has been clearly proved to those who have been stricken down in a short space of time by this dreadful curse, whose cheeks are wan and meagre, and whose nights are sleepless and restless, and whose eyes are dim and sunken, with death staring them in the face, this compound must prove a blessing; snatching them, as it were, from the mouth of the grave. None can know its true value until they have tested it. When all others have failed, these Bitters have restored the sufferers to pristine health. Their popularity in all the Western and Southern parts should introduce them to all the families.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally everywhere. See advertisement in another column. Again another proof that Berheaves Holland Bitters is worthy of recommendation. The plain and upright Mary Van Slie-drecht, daughter of Van Dyke, had last spring a dangerous sickness, but got so far well that she could leave her bed and be out of the doctor's treatment, out kept lingering on, so that she could get no appetite, and could not get strength enough to do her household work till within a few weeks past. She used but one bottle of the Bitters, which, with the help of God, has given her strength, and she feels quite well; for which her husband gave me, the undersigned, his thanks, for having recommended the Bitters for his wife, and requested me to have same inserted in the Sheboygan Newsbode."

L. DODGE, Grand Rapids Michigan.

The above is a literal translation from the last number of the Sheboygan Newsbode.

The Corn crop in this County promises to be an abundant one this fall. Nothing will prevent this but early frosts. Buckwheat also looks well.

Democratic County Convention

The Delegates to the Democratic County Convention, met in the Court House, in the borough of Ebensburg, on Tuesday the 28th, day of August, 1860, at the hour designated in the call. On motion, Hon. Harrison Kinkead, was appointed President, George Walters and Jacob Sharbaugh, Vice Presidents, and Thomas M'Connell, and S. B. M'Connell, Secretaries. The following delegates appeared produced their credentials and took their seats. Allegheny, John Maloy, Michael Maguire; Blacklick, Joseph Maros, Abram Maki; Cambria, John M'Brice, John O'Connell; Carrolltown, James Fagan, Hugh R. M'Nulty; Carroll, Michael Roach, Jacob Luther; Chest, Joseph Gill; Chestsprings, Peter Urban; Croyle, F. K. Hurlinger, William D. Hudson; Clearfield, Francis P. Turney, T. M. Durbin; Ebensburg, Edward Glass, Harrison Kinkead; Galitzin, Michael J. Smith, Michael Storm; Johnstown 1st Ward, Dr. J. M. M'Clure; 2nd Ward, William Wimer; 4th Ward, S. B. M'Connell, Hugh Maloy; Jackson, John Singer, Simon Danure; Loretto, George Yinger, Sebastian Fry; Munster, John Sanders, Geo. M'Clulloch; Summerhill, James Burke, Thomas M'Connell; Summitville, John Quayl, John Sharbaugh; Susquehanna, Francis Bearer, David Powers; Washington, Peter M'Gough, Thomas Short, White, George Walters, Christopher Noel; Wilmore, M. M. O'Neill, Anthony Long.

On motion Peter M'Gough, James Burke, Francis Bearer and Dr. J. M. M'Clure, were appointed a Committee to draft resolutions. On motion, where there was only one delegate present from a district, said delegate was allowed to cast two votes. On motion the Convention proceeded to nominate a candidate for Assembly, with the following result. 1st ballot: M. D. Magehan 23, Geo. Walters 13, Geo. Englebach 3 (withdrewn.), William Kittell 9 (withdrewn.)

M. D. Magehan, having received on the second ballot a majority of all the votes cast, was declared duly nominated. On motion said nomination was made unanimous. Alexander M. Gregg, of Millville Borough, was nominated by Acclamation for Register and Recorder.

The Convention then proceeded to nominate a candidate for County Commissioner. On the first ballot, Joseph Gill of Chest township, was declared duly nominated. On motion the nomination was made unanimous. Henry Hopple of Carroll tp., was nominated by acclamation for Poor House Director. Augustin Durbin Esq., of Munster tp., was appointed Chairman of a National Democracy and a county committee was appointed by the Delegates. The chairman was, on motion, authorized to fill all vacancies in said committee. C. D. Murray, S. B. M'Connell and George Walters, were appointed Congressional Conference.

The Committee on Resolutions reported the following which were unanimously adopted. Resolved, That we, the representatives of the Democracy of Cambria county,—deem it due to those we represent, and to our Democratic brethren throughout the Commonwealth, to publicly avow the motives by which we are actuated, and the objects which we have in view, in thus assembling in Convention.

Resolved, That we recognize in John C. Breckinridge and Joseph Lane, the representatives of the orthodox democratic creed as promulgated by the Fathers of the Republic; advocating as they do, a well defined Popular Sovereignty,—that infringes not upon the rights of the States, but harmonize the people of the Territories, in the manner contemplated by the Constitution; we hail them as worthy leaders of a National Democracy that cherishes all affiliation with Abolitionism under whatever name it may appear.

Resolved, That notwithstanding our settled preference for Breckinridge and Lane, as candidates for the offices of President and Vice President respectively, we have been, and are willing to test the relative popularity of Breckinridge and Douglas in this State, in the manner indicated, by the resolutions of the State Central committee. The leading friends of Judge Douglas having attempted the disorganization of the party of the nation, are now engaged in a like work in Pennsylvania. They take their stand outside of the organization of the party in the State, and place themselves upon a basis, independent of all restraints imposed by precedent or rule. The friends of Mr. Breckinridge adhere to the compromise, proposed by the State Central committee. We adhere to it, because we believe victory will be with the right, and that right is with us. Our opponents reject it, because of their conviction of their own weakness in numbers, and the weakness of their cause. Let the ballot-box decide between us.

Resolved, That the leading friends of Judge Douglas in this State, having rejected all propositions of compromise, by imperiously demanding a yielding of the majority, to a minority,—demanding the recognition of an odious principle, which would deprive the Democratic party of all claims to being a national party,—demanding the blind support of a candidate, who even with his bogus nomination cannot carry three States in the Union, and who had not a majority of legitimately elected delegates in the convention which presented him, from any Democratic State in Union except his own,—demanding in fine that the Democrats of Pennsylvania, shall stultify themselves by submitting to be marshaled under the standard of Forney and his aids,—there is no course left the Democracy of Cambria county other than to cling to the organization of true Democrats, under the leadership of the "Young Eagle of America," and present a county organization acknowledging the same platform of principles that is held by the National Democracy.

Resolved, That with this object in view, we present to the Democracy of Cambria county, a County Ticket, composed of Democrats who acknowledge the "Equality of the rights of the States," in the common domain, unorganized into States; who abhor the odious doctrine of "Squatter Sovereignty," the effect of the successful recognition of which would be to place the people of the Southern States, emigrating into the Territories with their property into the Territories, at the mercy of the hired emissaries of the Abolitionists of New England—the present candidates in the language of an eminent statesman now on the road to the Abolition camp. For the ticket this day placed in nomination, we bespeak the cordial support of every true democrat in Cambria county.

Democratic County Convention

Resolved, That the friends of Breckinridge and Lane, in Cambria County, will give Henry D. Foster, the Democratic nominee for Governor, an honest, enthusiastic and united support. In addition to our love for the man and his character, we esteem his nomination as binding upon every true Democrat in Pennsylvania. We hail with pleasure the cheering intelligence that comes up every quarter of the Commonwealth, which gives us the gratifying assurance of the unflinching election of Cambria's favorite, and we sincerely believe, Cambria's friend.

Resolved, That we view the administration of James Buchanan as one of the most malignant and unenvailed malice have attempted to tarnish it, but they have failed in their object. The private and public character of Pennsylvania's favorite son will be remembered in after years, when the names of the satellites will either be forgotten or remembered only to be scorned.

Resolved, That the vacillating course used by George N. Smith in housing the name of Mr. Breckinridge at home, and in attending straightout Douglas meeting at Harrisburg, while he feigns to support a union of the party at home, is sufficient to condemn him; the estimation of all honest and right thinking men.

Resolved, That our candidate for the Legislature be instructed in the event of an election to oppose any repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law. The Convention then adjourned with the cheers for Breckinridge Lane and Foster, and the ticket this day nominated.

H. KINKRAD, President. Geo. Walters } Vice President. Jacob Sharbaugh } Secretary. S. B. M'Connell } Secretary. Thomas M'Connell }

For the Democrat and Sentinel. Mr. Edmond.—There was what was called a "Douglas Meeting" here in Johnstown Saturday evening a week, but really it was an abortive attempt to bolster up a disunionist in the person of G. N. Smith.

A great majority of the meeting was composed of Breckinridge, Hill and Lincoln men who came to hear raving and ranting. A Miller from Harrisburg, who said he had three names, and who, for some purpose introduced by Col. T. L. Hoyer, a Wilson, discharged his gas pipe fire, and misrepresented the views of Mr. Breckinridge most unparadically, saying publicly that he was in favor of "a slave code in the Territories and of Congressional interference, as the people know that there is no substitute in the Breckinridge platform. Breckinridge is more of an anti-slavery man than Douglas, and is called conservative in South, the five orders opposing him. Douglas goes in for the rights of the people of a territory to establish slavery, while Mr. Breckinridge opposes such contemptible "squatter sovereignty" doctrine.

But he did more. He said that he was at the suggestion of Geo. N. Smith, that buttons on whose coat he loved, and that he had no objections to Mr. Miller's name, but the coat buttons of Mr. Smith, or of any of his ears either, as kindred animals sound do, but we assure that such a course is a violation of popular sovereignty, and that Mr. Linton told him so from the stand, the same night. A few years ago Smith was very much vexed at Col. B. for interfering with our county politics; he was right. But now when it suits his pose he changes tactics and sends for Smith to hold a "love feast" here for his Put that and that together.

The next speaker was Mr. Coffroth, Somerset, (pronounced Somerset), who hemmed and hawed and bowed and smiled and fizzled and palavered and talked and acted the baby. He said he was going to Charleston, which no doubt he had recovered his political sense, and thus chastized by a Providential hand, now when well, he was more diabolical ever. He proved that Douglas was nominated at Baltimore, that he received 1763 votes, and asserted that after the signatures of men in order to make a nomination. This was an important circumstance was not before made known. He asserted "he saw it with his own eyes." These speeches fell like the clay under a sledge hammer, so that a cheer could be heard. The Douglas speakers, so far, exhibited a scandalous-like, "they could have better yet their courage only tended to heighten Foster, a man for whose sake all the votes ought to be buried in the grave of abolitionism. John P. Linton Esq., spoke a sensible speech, reproving the abolitionist's passion for nations, and Mr. Linton's attachment for old baby every day, by making a straight-out Foster speech, leaving all other political points unmentioned. His remarks were relished by every Democrat. Messrs Linton and Foster, promising young men.

Messrs. Miller, Coffroth and a young looking man, from Bedford, tread all the discourse they could, and the brains of the whole trio would not make a whole hopewick pill, and they are very fond of trying to make monkey imitate the man." A Looker On. HON. HENRY D. FOSTER.—The ranks are daily gaining new accessions, we do not think there is now a more reasonable to doubt the election of Governor and accomplished candidate for Governor a large majority. He will certainly be supported by every sincere democrat in the State, and also by many who do not claim members of the party. The abolitionist's state, his unsullied reputation, his industry, and constant and able advocacy of industrial interests of Pennsylvania, secured him hosts of friends in every part of the State. This, Mr. Curtin will do, his sorrow on the second Tuesday of the Gen. Foster's friends should be energetic and vigilant in his behalf, all that is necessary to render a triumph. —Western Star.
