Commissioner, JOSEPH GILL, of Chest tp.

Auditor, JACOB R. STALB, of Susquehanna tp. Poor House Director, HENRY HOPPLE, of Carroll tp.

Archibald M'Allister.

The above named gentleman was placed in nomination as the Democratic candidate for Congress, by the Conference which met in Johnstown on Monday of last week. He resides in Blair county, and is, we are informed the Proprietor of a Furnace in the neighborhood of Williamsburg. He has always been a radical working Democrat, and is possessed of all the abilities necessary to make a useful, intelligent and influential member of Congress. Being connected with the Iron business, he is of course all right on the Tariff,-Mr. Blair by his course last winter, proved himself to be an ultra Abolitionist, and therefore is not entitled to the support of any union loving conservative man at the approaching election. Mr. M'Allister will receive a large vote in this county, and if our brethern in Huntingdon, Blair and Somerset do their duty, he will be triumphantly elect-

FACTS.

It is a fact, that Stephen A. Douglas was not nominated at Baltimore, according to the established rules and customs of the Democratic Party.

It is a fact, that his squatter sovereignty doctrine if carried out in the administration of the government, would destroy the equality of the States, by depriving the citizens of the Southern States of the right to emigrate to Territories, which belong to the whole coun try, with their property.

It is a fact, that he wishes to make Vermont the home of Abolitionism, the superior of Virginia, the native State of Washington. Jefferson and Madison.

It is a fact, that H. V. Johnson the Douglas candidate for Vice President, does not endorse the squatter sovereignty doctrine, and does endorse the platform on which Breckinridge & Lane stands.

It is a fact. that is now reduced to a certainty, that Douglas & Johnson, will not receive the electoral vote of a single State of the Union.

It is a fact, that Senator Douglas's speeches in the U.S. Senate prove, that he is the enemy of a Protective Tariff, and a rabid Free Trader.

It is a fact, that since the fall of 1857, he has endorsed and sustained the efforts of John W. Forney, to sell the Democratic Party to Black Republicans. And it is a fact, that all the foregoing are facts which cannot be galusaid or denied.

Foster on the Tariff.

The great Tariff speech delivered by our gallant candidate for Governor in the U. S. House of Representatives, while he was a member of that body, will be found on our first page this week. Of course it will attract the attention of all our readers. It proves conclusively that "Harry of the West" is the true friend of the great industrial interests of our noble old Commonwealth.

Douglas on the Tariff.

All of our readers are doubtless aware, that Stephen A. Douglas has recently been, and is still engaged in "stumping" the country, for the purpose of infusing if possible, vitality into his rotten and dying cause. Like a true Demagogue, he varies his political views and doctrines, to suit the various localities he visits. In New England he is in for Squatter sovereignty, "up to the hub" and repudiates the Dred Scott descision. In Virginia he is the friend of State rights, and venerates the descision of the Supreme Court. In Pennsylvania he is the advocate of a protective tariff, and is indignant at Congress for so long neglecting to foster the great Coal and Iron interests of our State. Now this is all an electioneering humbug. Senator Douglas is not now, and never has been the friend of a Protective Tariff. His speeches in our National Legislature prove that he is a free trader. In a speech which he delivered in the U. S. Senate in 1855 he said.

"I am for a reduction of the tariff to a strict revenue standard. I am a free trade man to the fullest extent that we can carry it, and, at the same time collect revenue enough to defray the expenses of government."

He also, in the same speech thus expressed

"When you call upon me as a revenue turiff man or as a free trader, to abandon my principles and turn protectionist, I wish to know first how far you are going to carry your protective doctrines. Sir, I shall be against this measure at the first blush, on the ground that it was not a revenue turiff, that it is not a free trade measure; that it is a return of what I had hoped was the exploded doctrine of protection."-[Congressional Globe, vol. 30 Second Session 33d Congress, page 1060]

Candid reader, does not Senator Douglas in the above extract, distinctly declare that he is a free trader and no protectionist. And now for the purpose of humbugging the people and gaining votes, he proclaims himself in Pennsylvania, the friend of protection and the enemy of free trade. What confidence can be reposed in such a two faced demagogue. Doubtless, but for the fear of being detected and exposed, he would while in Vermont, have avowed himself a regular blue light abolitionist.

A Model Challenge.

Last week a number of Handbills were stuck up around town, announcing the important news, that several Douglas meetings would be held in this county during the present week. The call concludes by stating that "the friends of the Northern and Southern Sectional candidates, are requested to meet us (the Douglasites) in public discussion."-We understand that they regard this as a challenge to the friends of Breckinridge to meet them in public debate. It is nothing of the kind. Mr. Breckinridge is neither a Northern or a Southern sectional candidate. On the contrary, he is the only National candidate in the field; the only one who knows no North no South under the Constitution, and who has for his motto "the Union in any event." Both Douglas and Lincoln are Nothern Sectional candidates. There is no Southern Sectional candidate before the people. From the wording of the "challenge," it is evident that the Douglasites were afraid that it would be accepted by the friends of Breckinridge, if put in the proper shape .-They know very well that Jonathan Oldbuck is not the only talking man in the ranks of the National Democracy of this county.

Senator Douglas is now politically dead. The political Cormorants who have followed him during the last three or four years. hoping to be gorged by him with the spoils of office, after the 4th of next March, are becoming discouraged and are now fast abandoning him. His electioneering tour was his last desperate struggle-the dying man catch ing at straws. He will not carry a single State in the Union. The fight is now between Breckinridge and Lincoln. Friends of the Union, vote for Breckinridge. Do not throw your votes away, by voting for Douglas, who has not the remotest chance of an elec-

Mean Act .- The Democratic Pole raised a short time since at the Hotel of Mr. Aloysius Martz, from which floated a flag bearing the names of Breckinridge Lane & Foster, was cut down on last Monday night. The flag was mutilated and a part of it was stretched across the Plank Road in the neighborhood of John M'Bride's, and one of the "individuals," left upon it a visible and strong illustration of "squatter sovereignty." The Douglasites wont make much by this dirty act.

Senator Clingman of North Carolina has taken the stump for Breekinridge and Lane. This puts to rest the assertion of the Douglasites, that he is the friend of their half Abolition candidate, and his half Abolition doctrines.

Meeting in Carrolltown.

Turn out Democrats to the meeting in Carrolltown. A beautiful Hickory Pole will be raised, speeches will be delivered, and are excellent band will be in attendance. Friends of Breckinridge, Lane Foster and the County Ticket attend.

A Duel Between Two Brothers-Both Killed.

The Natchitoches Chronicle of the 25th alt., records the following terrible tragedy: "A quarrel arose a few nights since be tween two brothers named Longino, (Wm and Burrell,) residing a few miles above Campte, when a proposition being made by one of them that they should fight it out immediately with double-barrelled shot guns, it was accepted by the other, and firing simultaneously, both of them were instantly killed.

At the distance of 130 feet two small veins of oil have been discovered. The workmen with full confidence of success are still engaged in boring deeper. We also learn that oil has been found in considerable quantities in Westmoreland county. Thus the "oil fever" gradually extends over our neighborhood, as we hear of contemplated attempts to bore for oil near this borough. -Indiana Messenger.

For the Democrat and Sentinel. To MR. JOHN LLOYD, EDITOR AND PRO-RIETOR OF THE MOUNTAINEER:

During the past two or three weeks you have been engaged in attacking citizens of the county, and among others. I have come up for a scare of your attention. You have abused me in every shape that you could; even the articles of clothing which I wear, have not escaped your denunciation; and in particular, you have descended like a thousand of brick upon my shirt. It is a new phase in politics, when a man's political conduct is to be tried by the material or color of his under garments. Regretting that the article has fallen under your displeasure, I am willing to do anything to appease your wrath, and will if you desire, send you the shirt in question, and as you are not likely to get my scalp, you can make yourself whole upon the garment. You can pitch into it at leisure with pen or seissors. You will find it to be veritable Democratic Check from neck band to the-other extremity. The shirt business is but a specimen of the absurdity and incoherent malevolence of your abuse, which is further distinguished by its total disregard of truth. A brief notice of some points in your articles will demonstrate this effectually.

One of your articles, after mentioning that had been in the Democratic County Convention of 1859, states that I "voted to nominate every candidate from Ebensburg." Now the writer of your article must have known that he was penning a positive false-hood. He knew that in that Convention I voted for G. N Smith, Thomas H. Porter, for Col. Heyer, for Mr. Barnes, for Dr. D.

In regard to the Breckinridge county meeting held on the 3d inst , you say:

"Richard White called the meeting, Richard White managed the whole programme, Richard White was the meeting." That is your statement-what are the facts? We find in the Democrat and Sentinel of August 29th the following notice:

Meeting .- The National Democracy Cambria County are requested to meet at the Court House in the borough of Ebensburg on Monday evening of next week, the 3d inst., for the purpose of ratifying the nomination of and Henry D. Foster for Governor. Able speakers will be present.

A. DURBIN, Chairman Co. Com. So that the published record shows that the neeting was not called by me, but by the rerular Chairman of the Democratic County

Now, as to who composed the meetingwas effected "by calling Wm. Kittell, Esq., to the Chair, and appointing Paul George, F. Bearer, E. Buck, R. S. Bunn, George M'Cullough, Wm. Winner, Francis Eberly, Vice Presidents, and M. M. Adams, John M'Bride and Wm. Barnes, Secretaries.' And further that "the meeting was addressed by John F. Barnes, Gen Joseph M'Donald, C. D. Murray and Col. M. D. Mageban" These gentlemen, and the hundreds of spectators present composed the meeting.

As to the "programme" as you call it, the tlemen above named can and do arrange their own programme. They have held many meetings in this county, in past years, and certainly. by this time, understand the business. you, contain three falsehoods, or one lie to

It is presumed that enough has been shown to satisfy any reasonable man, as to what credibility is to be attached to those statements of

As to your logical consistency:-your article of the 12th inst , recites that I am "played out." Very well; if that is so it is all right. But in the next breath you announce that you cannot give me "too much importance," and speak of me as "the head," "the soul," "the lion"-that I am "bold manly, and give tune, force, &c, &c. Now does this tally with being "played out?" It is to be hoped, that as your denurciations do not make me timid, your blandishments will not make me vain.

The fact is, Mr. Lloyd, your bald disjointed chat is hardly worth noticing, and I would not have paid attention to it, were it not for the fact that when my name is called, I have a small piece of cinder and a few bones. rather a propensity to answer to it.

In regard to the Washington election, it must be said that certain trials are now pending in the Court of this county, and in all justice and fairness those men on trial are entitled to a fair and impartial hearing. It is not right that their cases should be made the subject of newspaper slang, and a prejudice exoil well recently bored by J. Graff & Co , gives cited in advance. So far as I am concerned er time I am prepared to meet the issne.

Not wising to trespass too much on the now say to you that you shant spoil for a fight if I can help it. If you want a controversy with me, I am with you, and I hope that you | WITH MEN!" will be manly enough to give me a chance in your columns. You have a paper and I have not, and I dare not impose too much on the good nature of Messrs. Zahm and Murray. Let me further say, that, at first the secret of your attack was to me incomprehensible. I had never injured you-had never any particular association with you: but the mystery is now cleared up. I see by the papers that in 8154'5 and so on, you were a Know Nothing. You were attending their lodges, when all over the country, in Baltimore, in Cincinnatti, in Louisville, the Know Nothings were stabbing, shooting and burning inoffensive citizens.. At that time the Democrats of this county, myself amongst them, were combatting that organization, and trying to put it down as they best could. Of course bitter feelings were then excited, and I now find that you have retained the old spite against myself. Be it so. When a man with your record can of the Democratic party, and call men whose elect Foster in October. personal characters and political integrity are above suspicion and above reproach, "Disorganizers, Secessionists, Jackals, Tools, Minship of my card. Proceed with your slanders. I do not fear them, whether they come from an ex-Know Nothing, or the blackguard correspondent of a Jakey newspaper.

R. WHITE.

The Republicans have carried Maine by a large majority. Senator Douglas does not appear to have effected much there, by his electioneering.

Our friend Dr. J. L. Brallier, handed us yesterday, a paper containing the following capital Campaign song. It is decidedly the best we have yet seen, and was evidently written by a true Poet, true Patriot, and true Democrat.

"Hurrah! for Breckinridge Lane!" Unfurl the banner to the breeze, From Georgia through the land to And let its waving folds dispiay The name of Breckinridge and Lane.

From East to West loud pæans ring; On Every hill-top—everp plain— The shout goes up from old and young, Hurrah for Breckinridge and Lane.

The statesman wise, the hero brave. Our rights and honor will maintain; And every threatening storm outride, Hurrah for Breckinridge and Lane. Our institutions shall abide.

Our glorious Union long remain, And every threatening storm outride. Upheld by Breckinridge and Lane. Disunionists in vain desire Our common country rent in twain;

Their spite and envy tend to give Success to Breckinridge and Lane. Aspiring demagogues may strive, And every nerve for office strain;

Such giants sink to pigmies small Compared with Breckinridge and Lane. Then let us to the contest haste; All opposition will be vain;

A glorious victory awaits The friends of Breckinridge and Lane.

Burning of Part of the Catholic Asylum at Toledo--Three Lives Lost.

The Toledo (Ohio) Blade has the details of the sad fire in Toledo, of which the telegraph has already advised us. The fire broke out at 12 o'clock at night, in a wooden building, the upper part of which was used as a dormitory. Twelve persons were sleeping in eople of the county know well that the gen- it, ten of whom were children, and one of the sisters and a servant woman. The inmates were forced to escape from the dormor windows. One child was taken from the roof, but not until it was badly burned. One So that, the three lines last quoted from of the Sisters was severely injured in escaping from the building. Three persons were missing-the servant and two children-and the remains of two had been found in the smouldering ruins this morning.

The child which was burned so badly on the roof is not expected to live, and the Sister who fell from the building, it seems, struck on a piece of timber, and has received injuries in the spine from which it is thought she cannot recover. She held on to the roof, calling for help, until the flames reached her clothes, and then she let go her bo'd and fell to the ground. Thus by this awful catastrophe, five persons probably have lost their lives-three burned in the building and two fatally injured.

All the remains of those burned were found -all were lying near the chimney, close together. The bodies presented a horrible sight, shriveled, crispened and blackened into Sound Republican Doctrine.

Cassius M. Clay one of the leading Republicans in the United States, recently addressed a Republican meeting at Tiffin, Ohio; in the course of his remarks he said:

"They [the Democrats] tell you we are for liberating the blacks-for setting the negroes free. SO WE AKE! We believe, as do you, that in 1776 'all men were created free and equal; endowed with certain inalienalienable rights!" * * * They meant just space of the Democrat and Sentinel, I must what they said, and they repeatedly spoke of negroes as men, and as persons. THEY MEANT THE NEGROES WERE EQUAL

This is pure, unalloyed Republicanism. White men of Pennsylvania, how do you like it. Mr. Clay goes nearly as his coadjutors of Massachusetts, who say that a negro is better than a white man.

Left the Party .- The Tyrone (Blair Co.) Star, which has hitherto supported Col. Curtin, for Governor, has taken down his name, and refuses longer to give him "aid or comfort." The reason assigned is that Col. Curtin, who was nominated by the People's Party, has, since that time, attended a Republican Convention at Chicago, and, by active participation in the movements, and open es pousel of the measures of that party, has become identified with it, and forfeited all claim to the support of national men.

Thus we chronicle, from day to day, acquisition, showing the growing strength of national feeling, and foreshadowing the doom dare arraign respectable grey haired members of sectionalism. Courage, friends! We shall
