A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harrassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbing ly tender, that the mother. especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her ex treme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is gegerally aggravatel. Here then, is a necessity for a stimulent to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodyily strength. All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhoea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, super-nuated invalids, persons of sedentary accupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own phy-

Sole Agent for Philadelphia. Read the following from the New York Courier. Enormous Business for one New York Merchant - We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udel pho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21. Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thir y thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases-Virtuges of 1886 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wice, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamsica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. . Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dezen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Branches and Wines. His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every pothecary in the land make up their liscard the poisonous soul from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruicous alike to human health and happiness.
