Mr. Wolfe, in his letter me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at Retail by all the Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia. George H. Ashton, No. 832 Market st., Phila. Sole Agent for Philadelphia. Read the following from the New York Courier.

Enormous Business for one New York Merchant.--We are happy to inform our fellow-citi-zens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udol 's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thir y thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases-Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port and co-ordinate, and that the Territories are Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally property which was recognized as such in the successful with his Brandies and Wines. His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to this right, and that, therefore, the territorial discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves. and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors. We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness. ### HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY.

There are, we know, very many democrats at the North who frankly admit that the platform adopted by the national democracy at the Maryland Institute, in recognizing the constitutional rights of the South in the Territories, does that which is strictly just, but who, frightened by the growing proportions them, believe that it is inexpedient to assert those rights, constitutional though they be, the North may lose votes in the coming elecrepublicans.

Amos Kendall.

The Hon, Amos Kendall's recent Union letter has brought him out again, and revives the stories of his influence during the Jackson period. Miss Martineau's sketch, written in Washington, when Mr. Kendall was Maguus Apello, is worth reprinting in this connection. Miss Martineau says:

"I was fortunate enough once to catch a glimpse of the invisible Amos Kendali, one of the most remarkable men in America. He is supposed to be the moving spring of the-Administration; the thinker, planuer and doer; but it is all in the da.l. Documents are issued, of an excellence which prevent their being attributed to persons who take the responsibility of them; a correspondence is kept up all over the country, for which no one seems to be answerable; work is done of goblin extent and with goblin speed, which makes men look about them with superstitious wonder; and the invisible Amos Kendall has the credit of it all. President Jackson's letters to his Cabinet are said to be Kendall's; the report on Sunday mails is attributed to Kendall; the letters sent from Washington to remote country newspapers, whence they are collected and published in the Globe, as demonstrations of public opinion, are pronounced to be written by Kendall Every mysteare afraid to do so; -we address a few re- ment for all the States. The Gro th of the Country .- The growth, and prosperity of this country in population, products and enterprise are shown by the census returns, are something marvellous to contemplate. If our forefathers of two generations past could behold the wonderful increase in population, the extent of territory under cultivation, the abundant returns from the soil, the number and magnitude of cities and towns thickly covering the county, the vast mineral sources being daily developed, the railroad and steamboat enterprise flourishing everywhere, they would be struck with astonishment as profound as would be the ancient barbaric nations could they behold the marvels which science and knowledge have wrought in our day. In the history of the world there is truly no parallel for the rapid growth of the United States.

The process of keeping accounts among the Norway lumbermen is of unique style. The book keeper, after comparing accounts with the workmen, sends him to the cashier for his wages, with the amount due to him chalked on his back; and when the cashier has paid him, he takes his receipt himself by brushing off his chalk marks.

Beautifal .- There is a touching beauty in the radiant look of a girl just crossing the limits of youth and commencing her journey through the checkered space of womanhood. It is all dew-sparkle and morning-glory to her ardent, buoyant spirit, as she presses forward exulting in blissful anticipations .- But the withering heat of the couflict of life creeps
