The proprietors and manufacturers of HOS-TETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BIT-TERS can appeal with perfect confidence to playsicians and citizens generally of the United States because the article has attained a reputation heretof to nuknown, A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of citizens of the United States, between the ages bare assertions or blazoning puffers. The con-sumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the of twenty one and twenty-two years, and have resided in the election district ten days as last year amounted to over a half million bottley and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will teach near one million bettles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the proporation, and the sanction, of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommended the Bitters to their montals to its efficacy in all cases of stomachie derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom This is not a temporary popularity, obtained y extraordinary efforts in the way of trumberng the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsic and like diseases, is to the proprictors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It re-moves all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitalityto the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the ad vice of physicians, they have abandoned all delcterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harrassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbing ly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is gegerally aggravated. Here then, is a necessity for a stimulent to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting triof his duty, or shall block up in the window, or als and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, be tain to give a permanent increase of bodyily All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhosa, dysen-> ses or derangements of the stomach, superanuated invalids, persons of sedentary accupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welface by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.
