not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udol pho Wolfo's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases-Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cares of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wide, Secteb and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Hum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfors also of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundeed and eighty thousand dozen, and we pe in less than two years he may be equally cossful with his Brandles and Wines. His business merits the patronage of every lover of his spacies. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Welfe, until every otherary in the land make up their minds to card the poisonous stuff from their shelves, MILLETS. We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, minons allke to human health and happiness. September 12, 1860.-6m.
