Democrat and Sentinel.

THE BLESSINGS OF GOVERNMENT, LIKE THE DEWS OF HEAVEN, SHOULD BE DISTRIBUTED ALIKE UPON THE RIGH AND THE RICH AND THE POOR.

V SERIES.

EBENSBURG, PA. WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1860.

VOL. 8-NO. 4.

TERMS:

MOCRAT & SENTINEL! IS PUBlished every Wednesday Morning at MAR AND FIFTY CENTS per annum. advance; ONE DOLLAR AND SEVENTY ers if not paid within six months, and LARS if not paid until the termination

MOCENO MOLES

TONIC, DIURETIC

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA.

APOTHECARIES, DRUGGISTS, GROCERS AND PRI-VATE FAMILIES.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familia: in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schiedam of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and ries and Grocers in Philadelphia successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every

United States, who sell nothing but imitations,

Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope, A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical

Sexual Debility, Nervousness and Involuntary

BY ROB. J. CULVERWELL, M. D.,

The important fact that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without other empirical devises, is here clearly demonstra

the receipt of two postage stamps, by addressing House, IN THE CITY.) M...ufacturers and

BROOMS, Patent Grooved CEDAR-WARE, warranted not to shrink, WOOD & WILLOW

WARE, CORDS, BRUSHES, &c, of all descrip-

Mouldings suitable for Carpenters, Builders, Cab. inet and Frame Makers, always on hand. Any Pattern worked from a drawing. Agents wanted in the various Towns in his portion of the State, to whom opportunities will be offered for large

JACKSON & CLARK,

SURGEON DENTISTS, JOHNSTOWN, PA.

during which time all persons deifind him at the office of Dr. Lewis, nearly oppo-

MODICE.

The Pamphlet Laws of the last Session of the

C. D. MURRAY.

Attorney at Law, Ebensburg, Pa.

OFFICE OPPOSITE CRAWFORD'S HOTEL.

JOSEPH M'DONALD, Prothonotary.

Legislature of this Commonwealth, have been re-

[may25,1859tt

ring his professional services can Ebensburg, July 25, 1860.-35-tf.

profits to themselves. SILAS E. WEIR.

tions. Please call and examine our stock.

April 11, 1860 .- ly.

boon to thousands and thousands

New York, Post Box 4586.

March 4, 1857 .- 1y.

February 17, 1858:tf

site Blair's Hotel.

entitled to get them.

July 25, 1860.

MANHOOD,

How Lost. How Restored.

ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

September 12, 1860.-6m.

scription will be taken for a shorter an six months, and no subscriber will be to discontinue his paper until all arare paid, except at the option of the erson subscribing for six months will be E DOLLAR, unless the money is paid Advertising Rates.

One insert'n. Two do. Three do $ 50 $ 75 $1 00 24 lines 1 00 1 00 2 00 ues, [36 lines] 1 50 2 00 3 06 3 months. 6 do. 12 do $1 50 $8 00 $5 00 4 50 12 lines 7 00 12 00 res, [24 lines 9 00 14 00 10 00 12 00 20 00 15 00 22 00 85 00 All advertisements must be marked with or of insertions desired, or they will be ed until forbid, and charged accordingly,

TO CONSUMPTIVES AND NERVOUS SUFFERERS.

HE subscriber, for several years a resident a discovered while there, a simple vegetav-1 sure cure for Consumption, Asth chilis, Congàs, Colds, and Nervous De-For the benefit of Consumptives and Sufferers, he is willing to make the se who desire it, he will send the Prewith full directions (free of charge); gample of the medicine, which they will entiful combination of Nature's simple Those desiring the remedy can obtain it um mail, by addressing J. E. CUTHBERT.

BATONIC PHYSICIAN. No. 429 Broadway, New York. pel 18, 1860,-8m.

chased the entire stock and fixtures of the sharz Foundry, the subscriber is prepared puchs, Plough Points, Stoves, Mill frons, Thresiding Machines, estings of any kind that may be needed in estrict attention to the business of the con-hopes to merit, and trusts he will receive emlyaternage from those in want of articles builtes done at the Foundry.

EDWARD GLASS.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION. PHILADELPHIA.

escalent Institution established by special En mond, for the Relief of the Sick and Dis-und, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic Dinners, and especially for the Cure of Dis-

EDICAL ADVICE given gratis, by the Acting Surgeon, to all who apply by letter | dation of small dealers in the country, puts up ha description of their condition, (age, occua, habits of life, &c..) and in case of extreme erty, Medecines furnished free of charge, LUABLE REPORTS on Spermatorthea, other Diseases of the Sexual Organs, and on NEW REMEDIES employed in the Dispensent to the afflicted in sealed letters envel s, free of charge. Two or three Stamps for stage will be acceptable.

Address, DR. J. SKILLIN HOUGHTON. ting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 ath Ninth Street, Philedelphia, Pa. By order EZRA D. HEARTWELL, President.

EO. FAIRCHILD, Secretary. feb. a. 1860 .- Iv.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!! NEW GROCERY STORE.

signed would respectfully beg leave orm the citizens of Ebensburg and vi- ted, and the entirely new and highly successful that he has just received, at his store treatment, as adopted by the celebrated author one door West of Davis & Lloyd's Store, fully explained, by means of which every one is and fresh lot of Groceries, which he ofat sale cheap for Cash or country Produce, wack consists in part of the following arti-

WAR COFFEE. TEA. MOLASSES. TOBACCO. SEGARS. CHEESE, FISH BACON, AND THE

EST OF FLOUR AND CORN MEAL teps on hand a large and we'l selected School Books and Stationary, Notions per by strict attention to business to d receive a full share of public patronhe feels satisfied his stock is good and he as cheap as any other house in town

EVAN E. EVANS. Bensburg, Aug. 17, 1859. tf.

WAR IN MEXICO. D. J. EVANS & SON,

TAVE this day received from the East, and tow offering to the citizens of Ebensburg and y a well selected assortment of MENS' and BOYS' CLOTHING,

8, a large lot of DRY GOODS, consisting in et of the following articles, viz: MINS, VELVETS, CLOTHS, CASSIMERES,

DOE SKINS, SATINETTS, TWEEDS, JEANS, FLANNELS, MUSLINS, DRESS GOODS of every style, of BOOTS & SHOES, HATS AND

APS, BONNETS, TRUNKS, CARPET SACKS, STATIONARY, HARDWARE, GROCERIES, FISH, SALT, &c., &c., er with such other articles as are usually a country store, which they will dispose I low for cash or country produce. it The Tailoring business avill be carried on its branches, all work will be done in short and on the most reasonable terms. Ensburg, Feb. 1, 1860.-10-tf.

ABRAHAM KOPELIN.

Attorney at Law---Johnstown FFICE on Clinton Street, 2 few doors north of the corner of Main and Clinton. 28, 1868

MISCELLANEOUS.

"A Touch of Nature makes the Whole World Kin"

On board the steamer Ocean, between Cleveland and Detroit, a circumstance occurred last week which is pleasantly told by a correspondent of the Cleveland Herald.

A young girl, apparently about seventeen years of age, was seated upon a pile of cheese boxes, with her two little brothers, aged elevand twelve years. They were orphans, bound from Allegheny, Pennsylvania; to Michigan, where they expected to find a home with an

After having purchased second class tickets Wolfe's Pure Cognac Brandy.
Wolfe's Pure Maderia, Sherry & Port Wine.
Wolfe's Pure Jamalea and St. Croix Rum.
Wolfe's Pure Scotch and Irish Whiskey.
ALL IS BOTTLES. for three, the girl had spread her old quilt on the pile of cheese boxes and prepared to pass the night in quietude. She had hardly arranged her hest however, before she was accidentally discovered by a second class passerger, a tall young man of twenty-three years, who had loved her secretly almost from her infancy, and who, for the past two years had Schnapps. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter me, speaking been rafting lumber on the Ohio river. Having about two hundred dollars in bard currency, he came to Cleveland on the 10th to participate in the celebration, when, as he expressed it, "some mean kuss had picked his pocket of every cent but four dollars."

of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the pro-prietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of Being unable to find the thief or the money, he started for the West, with the determihis signature on the certificate. The public are nation to bire out on a farm. To his surprise respectfully invited to call and examine for them- and joy he found himself on board the same selves. For sale at Retail by all the Apotheca- vessel with the object of his heart's earliest appearance of ill humor.

George H. Ashton, No. 832 Market st., Phila. Sliding up to her he, exclaimed: Sole Agent for Philadelphia. Read the following from the New York Courier. "Why, Cynthia Ann! why how do you dew? I don't hardly know you! Why how Enormous Business for one New York Merchant .- We are happy to inform our fellow-citi- | you've growed! Where you going?" zens that there is one place in our city where the "I'm going to uncle's in Michigan," was physician, apothecary, and country merchant, the feeble reply. "You knew mother was can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as dead, didn't you?" pure as imported, and of the best quality. We

"Why, no!" and his voice softened .do not intend to give an elaborate description of "When did she die, Cinthia Ann?" this merchant's extensive business, although it 'She died last January Uncle wrote to will repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udol me that if I'd come up there he'd give me pho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, and the boys a home.' Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on 'Cynthia Ann!' and the young man's voice hand ready for shipment could not have been less trembled-there ain't no man 'ill be so glad than thir y thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten to give you a home as I will! I've allers tho't thousand cases-Vintages of 1886 to 1856; and a heap of you! I told your mother when you ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and up I was goin' to have you. Now Cynthia St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to agitated maiden. one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we

'I'll go with you and leave 'em to your unhope in less than two years he may be equally cle's and then we'll go West, and hire out this fall and winter, and then next spring we will buy a small farm and live to hum?

lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should The girl gave a warm sigh of acceptance, send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every leaned her head against the honest breast of Apothecary in the land make up their minds to the hardy youth, as much as to say-if you a false step.' discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves. want anything, take it.

and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and The man snatched a kiss from her ripe ruby lips, sprang down from the cheese boxes, he is. We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommoand exclaimed-'If there's a minister or a Justice of the Peace on this boat; I've got a assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a job for him !" man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the 'I am a Justice of the Peace,' remarked a venerable looking old man from York State. 'remount the cheese boxes, and you shall be a married man in less than five minutes.'

money, but I'll give you an all jofired good 'Never mind about the pay,' said the worthy squire. 'I'll take my pay in seeing you Cure of Spermatorrhood, or Seminal Weakness,

The fellow remounted the pile of cheese. Emissions producing Impotency, Consumption and Mental and Physical Debility. three minutes the ceremony was performedhe had entered into a new existence. Kissing his little bride on her ruby lips, he seatinternal Medicines or the dangerous applications of caustics, instruments, medicated bougies, and ed himself on a big cheese and commenced. no doubt, for the first time, to realize what he was, where be was, what he had done, and what ought to be done.

Starting up suddenly, be exclaimed half aloud, to himself-well, by boky, this is a enabled to cure himself perfectly, and at the least pretty hard way of passing the first night !' possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day. This Lecture will prove a The bride blushed, and replied-never Sent under seal to any address, post paid, on rich. Come, sit down!' But John had an idea, and he was bound Dr. CH. J. C. KLINE, M. D., 480 First Avenue, to put it into operation. Going to his pile of baggage, consisting of one large meal bag, containing a change of shirts, socks, necker-JOHN H. ALLEN & CO., NOS. 2 & 4 Chestnut Street, (south side, below Water,) PHILADELPHIA. (THE OLDEST WOOD-WARE chiefs, and old boots, he took from the leg of one of the boots an excellent ax, and walking up to the Clerks office, he exclaimed: 'I say, look here, Cap'n, I've paid for a Wholesale dealers in Patent Machine made deck passage, but I want a bed for myself and w-i-self and woman. I haint got no moneo, but here is an all joined good ax.'

The gentleman in the office replied that the Clerk had stepped out, but would be back in a few moments; whereupon he went back to DHILADELPHIA WOOD MOULDING MILL the pile of cheese to look upon his precious Willow street, above Twelfth, north side- treasure.

Having our sympathies aroused, we hastily ran around among the passengers told the story, and took up a collection to procure a state room for the young couple. To the credit of our lady passengers, they were the most liberal in their donations, and in less than ten minutes, we had collected $14,92. Presenting this sum to the agreeably surpri- arrange it. sed young man, we informed him that he ONE of the firm will be in Ebensburg during could now procure a state room with two beds, she was surprised to find her room occupied, one for himself and wife, the other for the and her furniture doubled. Decamps awaihe rushed to the Clerk's office, where he was met by Captain Pierce, agent for the line : Captain Evans, commander of the boat, and

Mr. Carter, the clerk. Capt. Pierce exclaimed : 'Here my good fellow, here's a ticket for yourself and wife to go to Chicago. Get West as fast as you ceived and are ready for distribution to persons can ; go to work on a farm, and look out for the landsharks.' Capt. Evans pulled out a glittering coin. self in a good condition, and-' here the worthy captain forgot his speech and ran off [mar17,1858 | laughing.

one for yourself and wife, the other for the furniture.

Captain Evans having returned, exclaimed-Give the boys another room, they haint no business iu-' here he broke down with laughter again, and burried away to give orders on the boat. The couple now retired to their sumptuous apartment, as happy asmortals are allowed to be on this earth, and the passengers gathered in knots to praise the liberality of all concerned, and the comical oddity of Captain Evans.

An et of Decamps.

Many singular stories are told of Decamps. the illustrious French painter, and here is one

Among the habitues of the little cafe in the Faubourg Saint Denis was an amateur of painting, whom the painters of that day have not forgotten, M. Jacques Lefort Lefort was a man of forty years of age, having an income of fifteen thousand francs, painter himself. He inhabited a third story apartment in the Rue de Provence, where Decamps went very often to see him, and where will constitute a quoram, and shall have pow- erator at work in the yard, he cautiously raihe felt quite at home. He passed many a long evening there talking and smoking bedens of the Hotel Lafitte and the Hotel Roth-

One day Lefort came into the cafe with an What is the matter? asked Decamps, on perceiving him. 'Well, I am sorry at leaving our room.' Do you leave it?

'Yes, my landlord wished to raise my rent. I resisted. He insisted, and I gave him notice that I should leave. I am quite sorry about it, for you were very fond of that room. 'Well, withdraw your notice'

'You are right. I will do so.'

Lefort was to move in the month of Octo- the law, for any such misdemeaner. ber. His landlord obligingly notified him middle of November, and he therefore had ample time to seek another room. It was on-Ann--jest say the word, and you're to hum ly necessary that Lefort should leave a por-'What'll become of the boys?' inquired the tion of the room vacant, to place the furniture of his successor. Lefort gladly consented to that, and it was brought to the house.

Decamps, seeing him continually quite sad at leaving his room, said to him one day : 'There may be a means of arranging with your successor. 'I do not know him, and do not care to risk 'Show me then, his furniture,' said De-camps, 'that I may see what kind of a man Lefort conducted Decamps into the apartment, and showed him the furniture. 'Hum, hum,' mused Decamps, as his eye glanced over it, 'all this is simple, comfortable, and in good taste. The furniture denotes an income of twenty thousand francsrecently acquired. It belongs to a man of 'Well, hold on 'squire! I haint got no sense-or rather it is a woman? Look at these articles for furniture use-this toilet table, this work table.' 'But the husband?'

'I don't see any signs of the husband here -no Masculine furniture, so to speak. The bed is too small for two. We must find out clasps the hand of his dearly beloved, and in now whether she is a young lady, a widow, or an old maid,'

How to know that?" ·Let us look.

He opened the drawer of the toilet table, and found a comb, between the teeth of the comb was some long hair of a fine gold color. 'Good. This doesn't belong to an old woman. Let us look further.'

He perceived a portrait with the face to the wall. He turned it, and took off the covering. It was the portrait of the young lady, mind John, we're just as hapyy as if we were a very pretty blonde, painted in 1825 by Her-

'It is the portrait of the lady,' said Decamps. It is the likeness of a married woman-the dress indicates it. This woman was about twenty four years of age when it was painted. and she is now a widow of thirty-four. She must still be very handsome She is an intelligent woman, and fond of the arts, I judge by the choice of books in this bookease, and of this piano. She is a good woman, I judge by her face. My friend, you shall not leave this room.'

'It will be necessary then to ask this lady to give it up to me.' 'No; only ask her to share it with you-you must marry ber!' You are mad! You are laughing at me! 'I speak very seriously. Your furniture seems made to go with hers. The room is too large for one, and quite right for two ' But I don't wish to marry

You are wrong, for you are forty years of age This woman pleases me, will suit you, and I want you to marry her. Leave me to When the lady returned from the country, one for himself and wife, the other for the and her furniture doubled. Decamps awaiboys. Thanking us with his big watery eyes, | ted her. He showed her the room arranged by himself, and the portrait of Lefort placed opposite her own. See, Madame,' said he, 'how marvelously this furniture barmonizes; what a fine companion this portrait makes for your own; it is the portrait of the husband you need.' The lady was good natured, and did not get angry, but laughed. Lefort presented himself, and as he was a man of means, of in-

The Clerk, Mr. Carter, handed the man a the happiest of men. Decamps remained key, and said, 'You are welcome to one of their friend, and both, whenever they saw the best rooms on the boat It has two beds. him, thanked him for having married their

A New Society.

Old men and young men, women and children, are admitted as members, if they possess the following qualifications:

1st. They must devote their whole attenneglect their own. 2d. When they bear a scandalous report about a neighbor or a friend, they must not ters the slightest intimation of a report. The following are some of the bye-laws and regulations of this society. Art. 1st. This society shall be known as the Tattle and Gossipping Society The fond of painting, and an excellent landscape principal and ruling officers shall be as follows: One great liar, and two lesser ones, three tattlers and four gossippers; any one of which er to transact business at any time. Art 2d. If any member of this society fore an open window, looking on the vast gar- shall be found guilty of knowing more about his own business than that of his neighbor's he shall be expelled forthwith.

Art. 3d Any person belonging to this sotwo or three times shall be expelled without | before you'd offer to come and help me."

Art. 4th. Any member who does not reand privileges of this society.

see, hear tell of, or even suspect that a young was held out, he eried out, "I p The next day Lefort was in a still worse man has waited on a lady twice, he must re- father hearing him, and having played some bumor. He had offered to withdraw his no- port them to be married soon, or already in his younger days, was horror-struck at the tice, but the room had been let on a lease of married, or he shall be looked upon as no tat-

Art. 6th. Any man or woman, who shall that the person who was to occupy the room neglect their own business to take the trouble wasn't mor'n so high, that when you growd would not return from the country till the to circulate about town scandalous reports which they know to be false, shall be deemed by all respectable citizens, as Commander-in | idence of a gentleman to solicit his vote. chief of said society, and shall be looked upon as such by all its members.

Steamboat Bialogue.

Hoosier, (stepping up to a down Easter) How are ye stranger? Bound to Noo 'Leans spect; what mout be your business? Want to buy some corn or oats?

Yankee-Tolerable, thank ye; how be verself? Bound to no place in particular. In for any kind of trade Hoosier--What kind of trade hey ye?

Yankee-Wall, i'ts a patent right. Hoosier-Patent right for what? Yankee-Patent right for a Machine for making all kinds of seed out of wood, from shellbark down to grass seed Hev also a patent right for the mirage life-preserver. Hoosier-Mecrage-what's that? Yankee-It's a Machine to be fixed on the front of a locomotive or steamboat, with reflectors of great power, to show the image of arything ahead, no matter how far it be offanything under a hundred miles.

Hoosier-Don't say! And are yer the in-Yankee-I be. Hoosier-Your'e a horse. What mout your name be? Yankee-Coffin Hoosier-Heered tell of ver family. You are a relation of the man that invented wooden bams and plaster paris shoe nails. Had a brother once, had'nt you, that get accidently choked with a rope round his neck Yankee-knew the man-wasn't a brother only a cousin to my wife's sister's brother's Tribune says: cousin. But what might your name be. HoosierIt might be Smith, but it taint .-

Calculate it's Caster. Yankee-Knowed yer family well from yer great grandfather down. You are one of two twins. One was a handsome, cute, bright-eyed little chap, and the other a tarnation ugly born fool; and I heered the cute chap died Here the dinner bell rang.

Getting out of a Scrape. - Two Yankees were strolling in the woods without any arms in their possession, and observing a bear ascending a tree with his claws clasped around the trunk, one of them ran forward and caught the bears paws, one in each hand. He instantly called out to his comrade; 'Jonathan, I say, go home and bring me something as fast as you can, till I kill the varmint. Mind, don't stay, for I'm in a flix !' Jonathan ran off as fast as he could, but was an exceedingly long time in returning. During the interval the bear made several attempts to bite the hand of him who held him. At length Jonathan came back .- Hallo, Jonathan, what the deuce has kept you.' Jonathan replied, ·Well, I'll tell you-when I was at home, breakfast was ready, and I guessed it would be as well to wait for it!" 'Here, now Jonathan,' said his companion, 'come and hold it, and I'll kill the critter in a juffy.' Jonathan seized the bear's paws, and held the animal. while the other could kill it. 'Well, Jonathan, have you got hold of him?' 'I guess I have ' he replied. Very well, hold him fast ; I guess I'll go to dinner !"

them morning and evening in cold water, rub with a rough towel, and run about the room telligence and good looks, he pleased her .and said : 'Here's five dollars! keep your- He married the widow, and did not leave the till they burn. In one month you will be re-He only quitted it last year at the death of plications are like rum to the stomach, relieve ship's scraper. No wonder that twelve gal-

Publication of Proposed Acts of the Legislature.

At the last session of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, the following act was passed, which the public should take notice of :-

"That from and a'ter the pas age of this act, it shall be required that every application to the Legislature for any act of incorporation, shall be preceeded by a public notice or advertisement of the same, in two newspapers in the city or county for which the legistion to other people's business, and entirely lation is demanded, or in which the parties applying reside, if two newspapers are published in said city or county, and if there be not two newspapers published therein, then eat, drink or sleep, until the chief officers of in one newspaper, if one is publiched therein; the society are informed of the same. which said public notice or advertisement No person shall become a member unless | shall set forth the names of the commissioners be or she is a person of leisure; and can loaf; and incorporators of the bill for proposed legabout town, or make about seventeen calls a islation and its title and the same shall be week, and watch the actions of the people published or advertised in said papers before generally; and be ready to report at headquar | the bill or proposed law shall be presented to either branch of the Legislature."

Cool .- A gentleman residing in a village. finding that the dimunition of his wood piles continued after his fires were out, lay awake one night in order to obtain , if possible, some clue to the mystery. At an hour when all honest folks should be in bed, hearing an opsed his chamber window, and saw a lazy neighbor endeavoring to get a large log into his wheelbarrow. "You're a pretty fellow." said the owner, "to come here and steal my wood while I sleep," "Yes," replied the Art. 3d Any person belonging to this so-ciety who makes a practice of telling the truth there and see me break my neek with lifting.

A Warning to Encher Players - A young port regularly what his neighbors risiding man of Milwaukee, who is very fond of a within three doors of him have for dinner daughter of a 'pillar' in one of the popular every Sunday, and for tea every time they churches, was taking tea at the house of his have company shall be cut off from the rights adored, a few evenings since, and had some fruit cake offered him. Being somewhat con-Art. 5 If any member of this society shall fused on account of his situation, as the cake young man's infatuation of the game, and tler, and shall be fixed to the full extent of the ught he would teach him a lesson, and he spoke bluntly, "You pass do you? Then I order you up, and there's the door." The young man sloped.

2. A candidate for office calls at the res-Candidate-Madam, is your husband at Lady-Yes, sir; he has gone to haul away a dead dog, and will be back directly. Candidrte-Sheep killing dog, I reckon

Fierce spoken urchis-No, sir-just barked himself to death at candidates-so papa

What I would do -If I possessed the most valuable things in the world, and was about to will them away, the following would be my plan of distribution: I would give the world truth and friendship, which are very scarce.

I would give an additional portion of truth to lawyers, tenders and merchants I would give to the physicians skill and I would give to the printers their pay.

To gossipping women, short tongues. To young women, good sense, large waists and natural complexion.

The following beautiful stanza is copied from a young lady's sloum: "Fare made, when I Bhold ure face, & gaze in two ure azbur ize. my love is warmed in 2 a blaze & thauts within my bozum rise which leves my bart awl in a flutter." Le What a difference even a comma may make in an honest woman's reputation. The 2 big for my week tung to utter.

"Three bundred women of the town of Aylesbury (Bucks) England, have petitioned against the legalization of marriage with a deceased wife's sister."

An experienced old stager says, if you make love to a widow who has a daughter twenty years younger than berself, begin by declaring that you thought they were sis-

27 It is a pleasant thing to see roses and filies growing upon a young lady's cheek. but a bad sign to see a man's face break out in blossoms.

-A stranger riding along the road, observed that all the milestones were turned in a particular way, not facing the road, but rather averted from it. He called to a conntryman and inquired the reason. "God bless you, sir," replied the man, "the wind is so strong; sometimes in these parts, that if we weren't to turn the backs of the milestones to it, the figures would be blown off them clear and clear

-Peter, my boy, do you understand de seventh commandment?

Yaw.

You shall not play to tuyfel mit your neighbors ducks.

Verocious Story of a Verocious Shark -A shark, caught near Port Jackson, Florida. carried the following curious miscellany in his capacious stomach; Half a ham, several Cold Feet .- If you have cold feet, immerse legs of mutton, hindquarters of a pig. head and forelegs of a bull dog, a joint of stovepipe, a pair of old boots, head and foreiegs of a heifer, with a rope round her neck, a quanlieved. All these redpepper and mustard ap- tity of horseflesh, a piece of sacking, and a his wife, whom he adored, and who made him you to-day, but leave you colder to-morrow, lone of oil were obtained from his liver !