UDOLPHO WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHNAPPS

A SUPERLATIVE

—AND—

INVIGORATING CORDIAL

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA.

APOTHECARIES, DRUGGISTS, GROCERS AND PRIVATE FAMILIES.

Wolfe's Pure Cognac Brandy.
Wolfe's Pure Madeira, Sherry & Port Wine.
Wolfe's Pure Jamaica and st. Cro x Rum.
Wolfe's Pure Scotch and Irish Whiskey.
ALL IN BOTTLES.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schiedam Schnapps. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at retail by all the Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

GEORGE H. ASHTON, No. 832 Market st., Phila.
Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

Read the following from the New York Courier.

Enormous Business for one New York Merchant.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than forty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope to beat that two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their mind to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, Nervousness and Involuntary Emissions producing Impotency, Consumption and Mental and Physical Debility.

BY ROB. J. CULVERWELL, M. D.,

The important fact that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without internal Medicines or the dangerous applications of caustics, instruments, medicated bougies, and other empirical devices, is here clearly demonstrated, and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the celebrated author fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly, and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day. This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands

LIST OF SPECIFIC REMEDIES.

No. 1.—For Fever, Congestion, and Inflammation.
No. 2.—For Worm Fever, Worm Colic, Weeping Bed.
No. 3.—For Colic, Crying, Teething, and Wakefulness of Infants.
No. 4.—For Diarrhea, Cholera Infantum, and Summer Complaints.
No. 5.—For Colic, Gripings, Dysentery, or Bloody Flux.
No. 6.—For Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Vomiting.
No. 7.—For Coughs, Colds, Influenza, and Sore Throat.
No. 8.—For Toothache, Faceache, and Neuralgia.
No. 9.—For Headache, Vertigo, Heat and Fullness of the Head.
No. 10.—Dyspepsia Pills—For Weak and Deranged Stomach, Constipation, and Liver Complaint.
No. 11.—For Female Irregularities, Scanty, Painful, or Suppressed Periods.
No. 12.—For Leucorrhea, Profuse Menses, and Bearing Down of Females.
No. 13.—For Croup, Hoarse Cough, Bad Breathing.
No. 14.—Salt Rheum Pills—For Erysipelas, Eruptions, Pimples on the Face.
No. 15.—Rheumatic Pills.—For Pain, Lameness, or Soreness in the Chest, Back, Loins, or Limbs.

C.—For Catarrh, of long standing or recent, either with obstruction or profuse discharge.
W. C.—For Whooping Cough, abating its violence and shortening its course.

In all acute diseases, such as Fevers, Inflammations, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Croup, Rheumatism, and such erative diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious. In all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, bronchitis and consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach, Constipation, Liver Complaints, Piles, Female Debility, and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum, and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in every or nearly every instance. Often the cure of a startle chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

SELF SEALING AND SELF-TESTING, AIR-TIGHT, PREMIUM FRUIT JARS & CANS!

These Jars and Cans being perfectly simple in their arrangement and requiring no cement in order to make them air-tight, any one of ordinary judgment can hermetically seal them by simply screwing the cap down tightly after the fruit has been put in hot.

Besides their simplicity and ease of adjustment and the impossibility of stoppers blowing out, &c., the greatest advantage is that you can at any time see the condition of your fruit by simply looking at the top of the cover. If the gum gasget is concave the fruit is good; if convex it is going to spoil, but will always show itself in time to be saved.

The absence of this test has ever been a matter of anxiety, and frequently of serious loss to those putting up Fruit or Vegetables.

These are advantages which no other Fruit Jars or Cans in this market possess.

BLANK SUMMONS AND EXECUTIONS FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE

MISCELLANEOUS.

An Amateur Phrenologist.

Col. S. tells a good story of a certain wag in Erie, a jolly publican, who contributes a good deal to the life of that pleasant, but sometimes obstinate boro. One morning, a traveling phrenologist arrived at his inn, and took up lodgings. The next day in the village paper appeared an advertisement, stating that Professor B. was in Erie, and would make, 'for a consideration,' examination of the heads of citizens, and accompanying the same with accurate, reliable charts of character. For three or four days the calls were scarce; but on the fifth day there was a rush of five or six to the apartments of the Professor.

One morning a countryman entered the inn where the Phrenologist had his rooms and said to our landlord aforesaid:

'Is this the place where the Phrenologist holds out, who can tell a man's karacter by the bumps onto his scull?'

'Yes,' replied Conifaee, with a reserved and dignified manner.

'Wal, I want my potato-trap looked into a little. Where's the man?'

'I am the man,' said the landlord.

'Oh! you be, eh? Wal, put in; feel o' my bumps and give us a map. What's the swindle?'

'There is no swindle, sir. Phrenology is a science, sir—a liberal science.'

'O, yes!—spect so; but what's the price of feelin' a feller's head?'

'One dollar, with a chart.'

'Wal go it. What do I do?—lay down or sit up? Does it hurt?'

'Not in the least, sit; take your seat in this chair.'

There were four or five morning loungers in the tavern, who checked a laugh as the countryman took his seat, having first, as requested, removed his coat, vest and neckcloth. The wag of a landlord ran his hands through the hair of his 'patient' for a moment, and then said to the bar tender—

'Mr. Flipkins, take a sheet of paper, draw four lines down the whole length, and put down my figures under the head I mention you. Have you got it?'

'Yes, all right.'

'Very well,' said the landlord, who went on with an examination which was rougher, perhaps, than there was any necessity for 'put down philoprogenitiveness sixty?'

'Down, sir.'

'Very well. Reverence two?'

'Booked, sir.'

'Comparativeness, two hundred?'

'What's that?' said the victim.

'No matter, sir; you will see on the chart. Caution, one—credulity, four hundred!'

'What's that last bump?' asked the victim.

'Never mind, now; you'll understand it by and by. And now, (to the barkeeper) Mr Flipkins, you've put these in separate columns as usual?'

'Yes sir.'

'Very well; add them up.'

'Add em u-u-p-p!' exclaimed the subject; is that the way you do?'

'Of course. How else could we get the balance of the mind—of intellect?'

'Wal, go ahead.'

'How does it daboll, Mr. Flipkins.

'The columns are equal—foot up precisely the same!'

The landlord looked solemnly and sympathizingly towards his subject. 'It is very strange,' said he, 'but it is so.—Phrenology never lies. You have no predominant character, sir; you've no intellectual status; you don't know anything, sir. Excuse me, sir, but I must state the truth, whether you take a chart or not; but, sir, if there any truth in Phrenology, you are a d——d fool!—Under the circumstances, sir, I can scarcely expect you to keep the chart you contracted for; that is a matter of small consequence, as it will be a valuable illustration of an unique species, which I can use in my lectures. I authenticate all my lectures with real name and residence. The charge of deception in science is one that was never brought against me, and never will, sir—never!"

'Oh! never mind; give us the map," said the subject; "here's the swindle, for it is a swindle; but I'd rather pay it than to have you going around the country makin' a fool of me everywhere else, as you have here—you blasted humbug!'

With this explosion the subject retired.

Rich.—We once overheard the following dialogue between an Irishman and an Irish shop-lifter:

'What's gone of your husband woman?'

'What's gone of him, your honor?—Faith and he's gone dead.'

'Ah! pray, what did he die of?'

'Die of, your honor! He died of a Friday.'

'I don't mean what day of the week, but what complaint.'

'Oh, ah! he died suddenly.'

'Rather that way, yer honor.'

'Did he fall in a fit?'

No answer.

'He fell down in a fit, perhaps?'

'A fit, yer honor! Why no not exactly that. He fell out of a window, or through a cellar door—I don't know what they called it.'

'Ah, ah, and broke his neck?'

'No, not quite, yer worship.'

'What then.'

'There was a bit of string or coad, or something of that like, and it throttled my poor Mike.'

☞ My son,' said Mr. Smith to his little boy, who was devouring an egg, (it was Mr S's desire to instruct the boy,) 'my son, do you know that chickens come out of eggs?'

'Ah! do they, father?' said young hopeful. 'I thought that eggs come out of chickens!'

☞ The following startling and highly inflamatory despatches appear in a newspaper 'out West,' to which they were specially telegraphed—

Late, Later, Latest and Highly Important from Charleston—our Special Despatches by Underground Line.

"CHARLESTON, Supper time, January 15th.—All the babies in the entire South are in arms, and many in this city are now employed at the breast works."

"Two and one-half minutes Later.—Hundreds of the noblest women of South Carolina are behind the breast works, and they boldly express their determination to remain there."

"Later Still—Three quarters of a Minute.—A number of young ladies were in arms during the greater part of last evening, and many more are extremely anxious to follow the self-sacrificing example of their sisters. Shame on the young men."

"One quarter of a Minute Later.—We have learned from a reliable soure, that the study of Military tactics will be introduced into the female schools of this State immediately, as the spirited girls declare their willingness to take charge of the South Carolina 'infantry,' which is yet to be raised."

"A report from the interior says the negroes 'wear' drilling, but it needs confirmation. Everybody is in a blaze of enthusiasm, and the gas company has suspended in consequence."

☞ In one of the Northern towns of New York, resides an old dutchman by the name of S——, whose son was not making the wisest disposition of the property which he had received from the old man. At least so tho't the anxious parent. How to put a stop to Bill's extravagance was the question. After everything else had failed, he resolved upon a desperate measure. Application was made to the proper authorities, and a Court was appointed to decide upon the question of Bill's sanity. After the organization of the court, the old man was the first witness called to the stand. The following were the questions of the counsel, with the answers of the anxious parent:

Counsel.—'How long, Mr. S—— since you first thought of your son becoming insane?'

Mr. S.—'A little over a year.'

Counsel.—'Please state to the jury what it was that first awakened your suspicion?'

Mr. S.—'He joined the mectin!'

Counsel.—'Well, Mr. S——, what else did you see in his conduct that led you to doubt his sanity?'

Mr. S.—'He gave the Minister a Load of Hay.'

It is needless to say, that nothing else of importance appearing against Bill, he was allowed to retain the management of his own affairs.

—A Mississippi correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat relates the following anecdote: 'A negro man from a neighboring plantation had been courting our cook for a long time. He came to see her the other evening, and sitting down beside her, began.

'Well, Lincoln is 'lected, and now you'll see, you'll see.'

'Well, what'll I see?' said she.

'Never mind, you'll see.'

'Well, what'll I see?'

'You'll see, you'll see.'

'Yes,' said the cook exasperated beyond all patience, 'you'll see more niggers licked than ever, that's what I'll see.'

☞ The Tenessee election has gone largely for the Union, and the Legislature of Kentucky has adjourned over to March 20th, refusing to call a convention at all. The vote in Nashville stands—Union candidates, 2900, secessionists, 555.

☞ Not the least of marvels of this marvellous country, is the rapidity with which obsure settlements in the West, expand into vast and populous cities. A case in point is stated by a correspondent of the Western Christian Advocate, who speaking of Superior city says: "The location of the city is charming, superior to any on the lake. Population eight hundred, subsisting mainly by selling lots to one another.

A Physical Discussion.—A contractor who was building a tunnel on a certain railroad, observed one morning that the face of a member of his gang had its surface all spotted with bruises and plasters.

"Ah! Jimmy," said he "what have you been doing?"

"Not very much, sur," answered Jimmy; "I was jist down at Billy Mulligan's last night sur, an' him an' me, we had a bit av a discooshen wid stichks."

☞ An old lady whose son was about to proceed to the Black Sea, among her parting admonitions, gave him strict injunction not to bathe in that sea, for she did not want him to come home a "nigger."

☞ An advocate having lately gained a suit for a poor lady, she remarked: "I have nothing to pay you with, sir, but my heart."

"Hand it over to the clerk, if you please, I wish no fee for myself."

☞ A raw Irishman, on his first sight of a locomotive, declared that it was the devil.

"No said his companion, 'it's only a stameboat hunthing for wathur."

☞ 'Bob, is that dog of your'n a pointer?'

"No, he's half hunter and half setter, he hunts bones when he's hungary, and sets by the stove when he's satisfied.

☞ When you see a gentleman at midnight on the step in front of his house combing his hair with the door-scraper, you may judge he has been out to an adventureing party.
