UDOLPHO WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHIDAM SCHNAPPS
A SUPERLATIVE TONIC, DIURETIC, ANTI-DYSPEPTIC AND INVIGORATING CORDIAL TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA.
APOTHECARIES, DRUGGISTS, GROCERS AND PREPARERS.

Wolfe's Pure Cognac Brandy, Wolfe's Pure Maderin, Sherry & Port Wine, Wolfe's Pure Scotch and Irish Whisky, Wolfe's Pure Sarsaparilla and Irish Whiskey.

ALL IN BOTTLES. The public are invited to call on the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his Wines and Liquors, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser. Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at Retail by all the Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

George H. Anderson, No. 682 Market st., Phila. Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

Read the following from the New York Courier: Economic Business for one New York Merchant.—We are happy to hear our fellow-citizens are so interested in our country's wine and spirits, and we are glad to see that the public are so generally purchasing pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouses, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Bourse street, New York, 17, 19 and 21, Market street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintage of 1856 to 1859; and ten thousand cases of Maderin, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some wine &c. and equal to any in the country. He also had three large cellars filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Canton's House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's stock of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandy and Wine.

His business with the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medicinal use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We would have Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against the thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

SCHOOL VISITATIONS.

A monthly report of the operations of the County Superintendent is required by the State Superintendent for the information of the Department, as well as an annual report for publication. It is also proper that the citizens of each county should be informed from time to time, through the public press, of the local operations of the office. This policy has been recommended by the State Superintendent. Accordingly, by the courtesy of the editors of the country press, I will, at suitable intervals, communicate to the people of Cambria county the manner in which the duties of my office are performed. Brevity in these communications will be observed as much as a due regard to perspicuity and fullness will permit.

Since the receipt of my commission on the 11th day of February, six weeks ago, I have visited twenty-one of the twenty-six school districts in the county. In three of the five districts not visited, namely, Johnstown, Ebensburg and Richland, the schools were not in session a sufficient length of time, after my appointment, to enable me to visit them without skipping others which duty demanded should be visited first. In another district, Conemaugh Borough, the schools closed last Fall. In the remaining district which I visited, Blacklick, I did not discover that its schools had closed until I had traveled twelve miles on my way to visit them. Of the twenty-one districts visited, two, namely, Chest Township, and Summitville had closed their schools before my visits, but the fact was not known to me until those visits were made. Of the nineteen districts visited where schools were in session, the following report is submitted—the districts being noticed in the order of visitation:—

WILMOR.—One school visited; Adam George, teacher; 50 pupils present; 114 on the roll; duration of visit, one hour. Accompanied by Wm. R. Hughes, Secretary of the Board. A new district, with but one school in operation. Common School System popular in the district.

CANONSVILLE.—One school visited—only school in the district; Charles Fagan, teacher; 36 pupils present; 57 enrolled; duration of visit, one hour. In this district the System has some opponents.

SENECAVILLE.—One school visited; John Powers, teacher; 20 pupils present; 52 on the roll; duration of visit, one hour. Stopped over night with Francis Bearer, Secretary of the Board and examined district records. System popular.

GIDON.—Two schools visited; Roseland—Gid-on G. Byers, teacher; 11 pupils present; 29 on the roll; cause of slim attendance, diphtheria; remained one hour. Fallen Timber—Thomas A. Powell, teacher; found this school closed for want of fuel; contractor to blame. Visited Geo. W. Bowman, Secretary of the Board, and examined records. Also saw and conversed with Samuel W. Turner, Treasurer of the district. The district is heavily in debt. System popular.

CLEARFIELD.—Two schools visited. No. 9—John A. Kennedy, teacher 26 pupils present; 42 on the roll; remained one hour and a half. St. Augustine—Miss Sue E. M. Cantwell, teacher; 25 pupils present; 48 on the roll; duration of visit, one hour and a half. District in debt; System has some enemies.

CARROLL.—Three schools visited. Buzzards—Hugh R. McMullen, teacher; 22 pupils present; about 40 on the roll; duration of visit, one hour and a half. Luther's—James Luther, teacher; school in charge of his brother, a lad of 16; 21 pupils present; 60 on the roll; duration of visit three quarters of an hour. Fulmer's—Thomas Hoover, teacher; 39 pupils present; 45 on the roll; duration of visit, one hour and a half. Accompanied to the last school by Mr. Gordon Sinclair, one of the substantial citizens of the district. Spent one hour and a half with J. B. Bookmeyer, Secretary of the board, in examining district records. This district is also in debt. The System meets with considerable opposition in some portions of the district.

CAMBRIA.—Three schools visited. No. —, near yellow church—Daniel J. Jones, teacher; 25 pupils present; 35 on the roll; remained one hour. Pensacola—Thomas Davis, teacher; 28 pupils present; 35 on the roll; remained one hour. No. —, near Marletts—Orlando Brookbank, teacher; 36 pupils present; 50 on the roll; remained one hour. Accompanied in visit to last school by Major Marlett. System popular.

CHRIST SPRINGS.—One school visited—only school in the district; Miss Lizzie Roberts, teacher; 39 pupils present; 75 on the roll; duration of visit, one hour and a half. System popular.

ALLEGHENY.—Two schools visited—Wills' John Meloy, teacher; reached the school-house at 8 o'clock in the morning; remained until 9 o'clock without a fire, when the teacher not making his appearance, it was deemed advisable to adjourn. We accordingly left, in company with the half dozen scholars. Where was Mr. Maloy? Weakland's—William Adams teacher; only 10 pupils present; 42 on the roll; duration of visit, one hour. System popular in this district, although a few oppose it. Remained overnight with Michael F. Wagner, Esq., Secretary of the Board, and examined the records.

LORETO.—Two schools visited—the only schools in the village. Boys'—Brother Vincent, teacher; 30 pupils present; 33 on the roll; duration of visit, one hour. Girls'—in charge of the Sisters of Mercy; 40 pupils enrolled; reached the schoolroom at 3 o'clock; just as the afternoon session had closed. Were entertained, however, with vocal and instrumental music by a few of the young ladies connected with the school. The sentiment of the community is supposed to be favorable to the System.

CHRYSLER.—Two schools visited. Summerhill—Sharretts George, teacher; 40 pupils present; 65 on the roll; remained one hour. No. —, David Lamb, teacher; 12 pupils present; about 30 on the roll. Cause of slim attendance, maple sugar; remained one hour. The System is popular in the district.

SUMMERHILL.—Two schools visited. No. —, near Oliver Crum's, Miss Kate G. Young, teacher; 20 pupils present; 26 on the roll; remained one hour. No. —, Albert G. Collier, teacher; 14 pupils present; 61 on the roll, cause of empty benches, we were informed, was maple sugar, remained one hour. Public opinion in this district sustains the System.

WASHINGTON.—Visited the only school open in this district, located near Summitville.—Miss Susan Meehan, teacher, 20 scholars present, 33 on the roll. Called upon Bernard McColgan, Secretary of the Board, and examined his records. The district is largely in debt, and in some localities the System has no hold upon the affections of the people, because of alleged mismanagement in the collection and disbursement of school funds.

MUNSTER. Two schools visited. Glass's William Leavy, teacher, 40 pupils present, 60 on the roll, length of visit, one hour and a quarter. Red Schoolhouse, A. D. Criste, teacher, 45 pupils present, about 60 on the roll, duration of visit, two hours.

CONEMAUGH. Two schools visited. Mineral Point. Miss Sallie Coleman, teacher, 21 pupils present, about 40 enrolled, remained one hour and a half. Conemaugh Station. Mr. — Chapman, teacher, 55 pupils present, 75 enrolled, remained two hours. In this district the System is not known to have an enemy.

TAYLOR. Three schools visited. Conemaugh Station. Mr. W. A. Scott, teacher, 40 pupils present, 57 enrolled, length of visit, 2 hours. Angus's. Miss Martha Nesbit, teacher, 41 pupils on the roll, nearly all of whom were present. Reached this school at 12 M. and remained only during the noon hour—other engagements limiting the visit and fixing it at an inopportune time. Cambria Furnace. Mr. A. B. Davis, teacher, 29 pupils on the roll, only 8 present, causes of absenteeism too delicate to be publicly mentioned. Duration of visit, one hour and a half. System popular in this district, but finances somewhat deranged.

YODER. Four schools visited. Cambria City. Mr. Erhard Baustner, teacher, 60 pupils present, 93 on the roll, remained one hour and a half. Bhean's. R. H. Pike, teacher, 40 pupils present, 56 enrolled, remained one hour and a half. Younker's. J. F. Allen, teacher, 20 pupils present, 34 on the roll, remained two hours. Stutzman's. Jacob A. Stutzman, teacher, 26 pupils present, 41 enrolled, duration of visit, one hour. The System has some opponents in Cambria City.

JACKSON. Three schools visited. Albough's. Christian Harrison, teacher, 15 pupils present, 45 on the list, cause of absenteeism, Spring work on the farm, remained one hour and a half. Brown's. James M. Singer, teacher, 25 pupils present, 40 on the roll, remained two hours. Harris's. Timothy Davis, teacher, 26 pupils on the roll for the present month, 40 have been registered, duration of visit, one hour and a half. In the last two visits I was accompanied by W. W. Harris, Esq., Secretary of the Board, with whom I also stopped over night. System popular.

MILLVILLE. Visited all the schools in this district. No. 3. James Eldridge, teacher, 60 pupils in attendance, 80 on the roll, length of visit, two hours. No. 2. J. A. Harrold, teacher, 75 pupils present, 128 on the roll, length of visit, two hours. No. 1. Henry Ely, teacher, 104 pupils on the roll, average attendance 80, duration of visit, two hours. System liberally sustained.

It will thus be seen that only 40 schools have been visited during five weeks of active labor. So much time must necessarily be consumed in traveling from place to place upon country roads, on horseback or on foot that no more than half the working hours of a day can be passed inside of the schoolhouse.

It is believed that but four or five unvisited schools are now in session, and these are scattered throughout the county.

In addition to the 40 schools above enumerated, two school exhibitions in Conemaugh township were attended—one at Jacoby's schoolhouse on the evening of the 9th inst., and the other at Gossett's schoolhouse on the evening of the 13th inst. Mr. Joseph Hollopp was the teacher in charge of the former school, and Mr. George Stinebush the teacher in charge of the latter. Both exhibitions were creditable to teacher and pupils, and both were well attended by parents and citizens generally. Brief addresses were delivered at these exhibitions, as well as in 38 of the 40 schools visited.

My acknowledgments are due the following persons for extending to me the hospitality of their homes when even a "wayside inn" could not be reached: Francis Bearer, Susquehanna, George Walters, White, Richard J. Proudfoot, Chest. Wm. Douglass, Carroll, Gordon Sinclair, Carroll, M. F. Wagner, Allegheny, W. W. Harris, Jackson. Also to the Sisters of Mercy of Loreto, for the courteous manner in which I was received by them, and to Aaron Sherbins of Summerhill, for taking a horse out of his team to place at my service. Also, to J. Patton Thompson, and Major Marlett, for their generous aid in helping me on my journey on the 22nd of February.

The school visitations for the winter may now be said to be closed. The next subject that will engage my attention will be the organization of permanent Teachers' Institutes in every section of the county. The suggestions of teachers upon this subject are respectfully solicited, and will be carefully considered. I will be glad to hear by mail from teachers in the remote districts of the county. JAMES M. SWANK, Co. Supt. Johnstown, March 23, 1861.

He's Come.

One of John D's best years was spun in our hearing a few evenings since, and was substantially as follows—

John was boarding at the National Hotel, at which a Mr. —, a Connecticut manufacturer also stopped when doing business in town. Mr. A. was a prompt and successful business man, "smart as a whip," as the Yankees say, and withal (when business was all done up snug) a genial, social companion, which naturally enough accounted for his sometimes paralyzing with something heavy in his hat.

The dining room of the National is of generous capacity—say one hundred (perhaps more) feet deep—quite a journey from the entrance to the end. One day, as our narrator was comfortably seated at the table preparing to do justice to the merits of a capital dinner, who should he see enter the dining room but Mr. A. —, minus a hat, but with the bric-a-brac evidently still adhering to some portion of his upper story. No vacant seat at the lower extremity of the table offered rest and refreshment to the discouraged pedestrian; so he kept on the even "tenor of his way," surveying the Virginia rail fence up the right side of the table until he reached the extreme head, where he found an empty chair tilted forward, equivalent to being labelled "reserved"—the property, by courtesy, of a lawyer whose august presence it was at that moment awaiting. A — made a demonstration towards the vacant chair, but was interrupted by a waiter, who took the liberty of remarking:

"This seat is reserved for a gentleman!" A — drew himself up proudly, flung one withering glance of scorn at the impudent waiter, and remarked, loud enough for the whole table to hear:

"By —, he's come!" The guest, who had watched the whole scene with interest, exploded, while A. coolly sat down to the enjoyment of his dinner.

Power of a Word.

Wendell Phillips, in his lecture last winter, before the Parent Washington Society, told the following story—

Let it Alone, Boys.

Let what alone? To drink that stuff in the drunkards bowl. Aye, let that alone! Don't even learn how it tastes. As the serpent fascinates the bird only to destroy it, so strong drink charms at first and kills at last. The first drop may charm you, therefore don't drink the first drop. If you wish to enjoy good health, if you wish a good character, if you want to be happy and to make others happy, if you want to go to Heaven, avoid strong drinks.

"Beware of the first drop!" See you youth with iron on his hands and feet. He is in prison. Another youth with weeping eyes bidding him farewell, for the prisoner is about to be led out to die! He is a murderer—The law is about to take his life. But hearken! He is speaking something to his brother. What does he say!—These are his words:

"Remember what I told you—Let the liquor alone!"

Good reason he had for giving his counsel, liquor had brought him to the felon's doom—Let boys heed his words—Let Liquor alone!

"Artemus" on the Union.—I'm a Union man I live the Union from the bottom of my heart. I live every hoop-hole in Maine, and every shape ranch in Texas. The low posters of No Hampshire are as dere 2 A. Ward as the rice plantations of Mississippi. There is meat taters in both them as States, and that is likewise good men and true. It don't look very pretty for a lot of inflammatory individuals, who never lifted there hands in defence of America, or did the fast thing towards secession and independence, to get there box up and swear they'll dissolve the Union. Too much blood was spilt a courtin' one martyr that highly respectable female the Goddess of Liberty, 2 get a divorce at this late day. The old gal behaved too well 2 cast her off now, at the request of a passul of saddle braned men & wimmen, who never did nobody good, and never will again. I'm sorry the pictur of the Goddess never give her no sluse or stockings, but the hand of stars must continue to shine brighter so long as the earth continues 2 revolve on its axle-tree.

Kissing the hands and feet.—A distinguished candidate for an office of high trust in a certain State, who is 'up to a thing or two' and has a benevolent appreciation of living beauty, when about to set off on an electrifying tour, recently said to his wife, who was to accompany him for prudential reasons—

"My dear, inasmuch as this election is complicated, and the canvass will be close, I am anxious to leave nothing undone that would promote my popularity, and so I have thought it would be a good plan for me to kiss a number of the handsomest girls in every place where I may be honored with a public reception. Don't you think it would be a capital idea?"

Capital! exclaimed the devoted wife, 'and to make your election a sure thing, while you are kissing the handsomest girls, I will kiss an equal number of the handsomest young men!"

The distinguished candidate, we believe, has not since referred to this pleasing means of popularity.

A Moderate Bill.—Mr. Lincoln and his staff stopped one day at the Delavan House, formerly a rigid temperance hotel, in Albany but he and his wife dined with a friend. The proprietor of the hotel has presented the moderate bill of $1,120 for that day's eating and drinking. There were sixteen persons in all really entertained, and the charge was therefore $70 for each. The items were curious for a Temperance house; for instance, there is the sum of $357 for wines and liquors, and $150 for broker stools and chairs. If sixteen persons drank $357 worth of liquors, a cost of twenty-two dollars worth each, the only wonder is that they did not break their necks as well as their $150 worth of stoves and chairs. This extraordinary bill beats the experience of the Japanese and English princes.

Indelicately Delicate.—The other day a young lady stepped into a well known establishment and enquired of a fine looking clerk: "Sir, have you any mouse-colored ladies' hose?"

"Mouse colored ladies' hose, miss?"

"Yes—a sort of grey—just the color of your drawers here," replied she, meaning the store drawers, which were painted grey.

"My drawers, miss," ejaculated the young man looking about to see if everything was right and tight. "My drawers, miss! why I don't wear any."

The young lady was carried home on a shutter.

The Long Sight.—Two sparks from London, while enjoying themselves among the heathens in Argyleshire, last autumn, came upon a decent looking shepherd, reading on the top of a hill. They accosted him by remarking:

"You have a fine view here; you will see a great way."

"Oh aye, on aye, a ferry great way."

"All you will see America here?"

"Farther than that," said Donald.

"All how's that?"

"Oh, just wait till the mist gangs awn, an you'll see the mune."

A Pig Joke.—We had a hearty laugh the other day, at hearing a friend tell of a man who was attempting to put a yoke on a pig. He had cornered the grunter in a room having a glazed window, when the animal, believing they were preparing to infringe upon its full freedom, went with a single bound through
