Winding up of the Sumter Affairs. From Charleston telegrams af Monday, we select as follows -

Major Anderson embarked on board the Isabel. His laggage and that of his men was put on the steamer Clinch. He anchored off Fort Sumter, and will go out to-night and be taken aboard the Baltic. Major Auderson expressed great regret at the destruction of property. The first gun from Fort Sumter was fired by Captain Doubleday .--All the officers and men look hearty and appear to have been well fed. It is said they have plenty of provisions. Major Anderson complimented Major Stevens of the South Carolina iron battery. He said that Fort fired the best, but he did not think much of the other's fire. The Fort's (Sumter) walls are not much damaged, except in appearance, being as strong as ever.

Major Anderson said he expected aid from South Carolina in putting out his fire. This, he said, was nothing more than usual in civilized warfare. He likewise was surprised at no bloodshed, the best evidence of skillfal engineering. The Federal fleet has been off the bar all day. Major Anderson has been all day with his men in the Isabel, I do not believe the Federal fleet can prevent the ingress or egress of vessels, though it was reported this morning that a British brig had been prevented from coming in. There was a brig of this character in the offing this morning. The evacuation of Fort Sumter was completed by two o'clock on Sunday. Major Anderson and his men came out with the honors of war. This was granted by General Beauregard, after an unconditional surrender.

There was a great commotion in the harbor fleet of small boats, steamers being crowded with passengers The American flag was brought down with a salute of 50 guns, While it was being fired, a gun exploded killing one of Major Anderson's men, wounding three mortally, and severely injuring four. Daniel Howe died last night, while being brought to the City Hospital. Edw'd Galway is mortally wounded. George Fielding, John Erwinand, and George Pinchard were severely hurt All were of company E 1st Regiment, Federal Army. The man killed outright, was tossed in the air, and came down a mangled mass of humanity.

An aperient and stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctified by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Inturities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions inlicate its necessity in almost every conceivable

Innoxious in all malladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility. Nervous Affections, Emacuation, Dyspepsia. Constipation, Diarrhaa, Dysentery, cipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorous. Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism. Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face.

In cases of General Debility, whether the resuit of acute disease, or of the continued dirainution of nervous and muscular energy from Chronic complaints one trial of this restorative as proved successful to an extent which no escription for written attestation would render redible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotton in their own neighborhoods. ave suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as f just returned from a protracted travel in a listant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exbaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name. In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for easons familiar to Medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously touic, without being exciting and overheating, and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others which nakes it so remarkably effectual and permanent remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them. In Dyspepsia innumerable as are its causes. a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often how to cook for them; how to prepare Drinks, sufficed for the most habitual cases, including

MAJOR ANDERSON'S ARRIVAL IN NEW YORK.

The steamship Baltic, Capt Fletcher, came up to the city, and anchored off the Battery at 1 o'clock on the afternoon of April 18th. The Baltic had flying from her main mast head the flag of Sumter, and at her fore mast head the flag from Moultrie. The passengers by the Baltic are are follows: Major Robert Auderson, Capt. A. Doubleday, Capt. T. Seymour, 1st Lt. J. C. Davis, 2nd Lieut N. J. Hall, Capt. G. Foster, and about 370 recruits for general service.

Major Anderson landed at the Battery & was received by an immense crowd. His carriage was surrounded by the people, who expressed in obcers and other demonstrations their congratulations. He was followed by an immense throng through Broadway to the Brevoort House where he joined his wife -Doubleday's statement is as follows: The demand for the surrender of Sumter was made on the 11th inst., and refused, not only by Major Anderson, but by the unanimous force under his command. On Friday morning. st three o'clock, the rebels sent word that their fire would be opened in an hour, and every direction, including a hidden battery. The fire opened with a volley of seventeen mortars firing ten inch shells, and shot from thirty-five guns, columbiads. We took our breakfast, Lowever, very leisurely, The command was then divided into three watches, each under the direction of the officers.

After breakfast they immediately went to the guns and opened a fire on Moaltrie, Cumming's Point, and Sullivan's Island. The iron battery at Cumming's Point was of immense strength, and most of our shots glanced off. Major Anderson refused to allow on account of such a terrific fire being directed against that point. There was scarcely a room in Fort Moultrie left inhabitable .-Several shots went through the floating battery, though it was but littled damaged. 2 guns on the iron battery were dismounted. A man was stationed, who cried out, shot or shell, when the rebels fired, and the garrison was thus enabled to dodge it. At first the workmen were reluctant to help to work the guns, but they afterwards served most willingly and effectively against the Iron battery. The barracks caught fire several times on Friday, but the flames were extinguished and Mr. Lyman, of Baltimore, both volun-
