In testimony whereof, &c.

A TOUCHING INCIDENT.

What parent on reading the annexed extract, can fail to reflect on the lesson it suggests? How important that when the parent has departed, the example left behind may hous as water."- Wilkes' Spirit of the Timec. be such as the child may be thankful for .of an artless child, is one of the noblest offices that father or mother can fill. Truly hath it been said that 'out of the mouths of generally throughout the country. babes and sucklings' strength has been ordained. What could give greater strength to that widowed heart, than such a scene with her hatle daughter.

She knelt at the accustomed hour to thank God for the mercies of the day, and pray for care during the coming night; then as usual SUNDAY MONING CHRONICLE PUB-large assortment of the above articles, which he came the earnest 'God bless dear mother'but the prayer was stilled, the little hand unclasped, and a look of agony and wonder met | 1. the mother's eye, as the words of hopeful sorrow burst from the lips of the kneeling child, 'I cannot pray for father any more !' Since her little lips had been able to form the dear name, she prayed for a blessing upon it; it had followed close after mother's name, for he had said that must come first. 4. Original sketches of the Churches and Clergy and now to say the familiar prayer, and leave her father out! No wonder the new thought seemed too much for the childish mind to re-

I waited for some moments that she might conquer her emotion, and then urged her to go on. Her pleading eyes met mine, and with a voice that faltered almost too much 7. Essays, Sketches, Tales, and choice gems of for utterance, she said-

'Oh mother, I cannot leave him all out. let me say 'thank God that I had a dear father once! so I can still go on and keep him in my prayers.

And so she always does, and my stricken heart learned a lesson from the loving ingefor the future.

ADVICE TO HOUSEWIVES.

Britannia, should be first rubbed gently with woolen cloth and sweet oil, then washed in warm suds, and rubbed with soft leather and whiting. Thus treated it will retain its beauty to the last.

New iron should be very gradually heated | dire disease Consumption. at first; after it has become used to the heat it is not likely to crack.

It is a good plan to put new earthenware into cold water, and let it heat gradually until it boils-then cool again Brown earthenthrown in while it is boiling, will preserve address the glazing so that it will not be destroyed by acid or salt.

Clean a brass kettle before using it for cooking, with salt and vinegar.

The oftener carpets are shaken, the longer they will wear; the dirt that collects under them grinds out the threads.

If you wish to have fine teeth, always clean them thoroughly after you have eaten your last meal at night. Woolens should be washed in very hot suds and not rinsed. Luke-warm water shrinks a liberal patronage from chosein want of articles Do not wrap knives and forks in woolen Wrap them in good strong paper. Steel is injured by lying in woolen.

Suet keeps good all the year round, if chopped and packed down in a stone jar, and covered with molarses. Barley straw is the best for beds: dry corn husks slit iato shreds are better than straw. When molasses is used in cooking, it is a prodigious improvement to boil and skim it before you use it. It takes the unpleasant raw taste out, and makes it almost as good as First Series of this popular work. Price $1.25 sugar. When molasses is used much in cooking it is well to prepare one or two gallons in this way.

Never allow ashes to be taken up in wood | A SEQUEL TO "SCHOOL DAYS AT RUGBY." or put into wood. Always have your matches ready for use in case of sudden alarm.

Have important papers all together, where you can lay your hand on them at once, in case of fire.

Use hard soap to wash your clothes, and pary that it wastes a good dear in washing Two Dollars.

IS THE ONLY KNOWN REMEDY FOR Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia,

AND A SURE CURE FOR All Mercurial Diseases

It is a conveniently arranged Band, containing a medicated compound, to be worn around the Waist, without injury to the most delicate persons, no change in habits of living is required, and it entirely removes the disease from the system, without producing the injurious effects arising from the use of powerful internal medicires which weaken and destroy the constsitution, and give temporary relief only. By this treatment, the medical properties contained in the Band, come in contact with the blood and reaches the disease, through the pores of the skin, effecting in every instance a perfect cure, and restores the parts afflicted to a healthy condition. This band is also a most powerful ANTI-MERCU-RIAL agent, and will entirely relieve the system from the pernicious effects of mercury. Moderate cases are cured in a few days, and we are constantly receiving testimonials of its efficacy in agrivated cases of long standing.
