

Ex-President Buchanan on the WEST CHESTER. Pa , Oct. 4 .-- At a great Union meeting at Hayesville, Chester county, Buchanan was read :-

WHEATLAND, near Laucaster, Pa., Sept. 28 .- Dear Sir: I have been henored by your kind invitation as Chairman of the appropriate committee, to attend and address Union meeting of the citizens of Chester and Lancaster counties, to be be held at Hayesville on the first of October. This I should gladly accept, proceeding as it does, from a much valued portion of my old Congressional District, but advancing years and the present state of my health render it impossible,

You correctly estimate the deep interest which I feel, in common with the citizens who will be there assembled, in the present condition of our country. This is indeed serious; but our recent military reverses, so far from producing despondency in the minds of a loyal and powerful people, will only animate them to more mighty exertions in sustaining a war which has become inevitable by the assault of the Confederate States on Fort Sumpter

For this reason, were it possible for me to address you, waiving all other topics, I should confine myself to a solemn and earnest appeal to my countrymen, and especially those without families, to volunteer for the war, mud join the many thousands of brave and patriotic volunteers who are already in the

This is the moment for action; for prompt energetic and united action; and not for the discussion of peace propositions These, we in. must know, would be rejected by the States visions, etc. that have seceeded, unless we should offer to recognize their independence, which is entirely out of the question.

Better councils may hereafter prevail, when these people is convinced that the war is conducted, not for their conquest or subjugation, but solely for the purpose of bringing them back to their original position in the degree any of their constitutional rights. Whilst, therefore, we shatl cordially hail their return under our common and glorious flag, and welcome them as brothers, yet, until that happy day shall arrive, it will be our copse, but soon broke in every direction, and duty to support the President with all the took refuge in their vessels. A shell passed men and means at the command of the country, in a vigorous and successful prosecution of the war. Yours, very respectfully, JAMES BUCHANAN.

The Preparations for the War,

Letters from officers of the army to their other source. The country has no correct notion of the vastness of the great Union army that lies stretched out on both sides of the Potomac, or of the extensiveness and completeness of its appointments. At the battle of Bull Run, says a correspondent, his pistol. the artillery was confined to something like half a dozen light battories. Now there are the Monticello, Susquebanna and land forces more than one hundred, beside the guns in the fortifications, so that in case the rebels advance, it must be in the face of from 15 000 to two thousand cannon, many of them the best the world has yet seen. An officer writes that there are nine batteries in the sin business in not new. LOUISILLE Oct, 9 -Richmond papers of the first, and Chareston of the the third inst., received on the evening of 26th, states that Gen Lee joined Gen Floyd with four regiments and two pieces of artillery, at Reddaw Bluff. Floyd's forces are represented to be greatly demoralized since the battle of Carnefex Ferry, and Wise's generalship is severely criticised by the Richmond papers. The En quirer says the relations between Gens Floyd and Wise are painful enough to explain all our reverses in Virginia.

Gen Wise, accompanied by Gen Henningson, arrived in Richmond. The former will probably be court martialed. Lee takes command of the forces under himself and those JEFFERSON CITY, Oct 9-The surrender of a federal camp near Hermann, reported this morning, proves not to have been so serious an affair as was at first stated Col Matthews simply abandoned it on the approach of the rebels, and retired to Hermann without loss of any kind. The three cannon mention-Pa, the following letter of Ex-President ed in a previous dispatch, belonged to the rebels Col. Harding now telegraphs from Hermann, that he has no apprehension of an attack on that place, and that the Gasconade and Osage bridges, are well guarded, and secure against the rebels.

FORTRESS Mouroe, Oct. 8 .- The frigate Susquehana has arrived from Hatteras Inlet, and brings more interesting intelligence. The day after the capture of Fanny, the Ceres and Putnam, having one of the launches of the Susquebanna in tow, went up to Chicimancofrianco, and landed seven days provisions, returning the same evening, without having seen anything of the Confederates. On Friday however, word reached Hatteras Inlet by the Stars and Stripes that twenty-five bundred Confederates, consisting of a Georgia, South Carolina and Virginia regiments, had come over from the main land in six small steamers and schooners, with flat boats, and had attacked the Indiana regiment, who were obliged to retreat. The Susquehanna and Monticello steamed up outside, while Col. Hawkins marched up with six companies and reached Hatteras Light by nightfall, a distance of thirteen miles, and during the night Col. Hawkins was joined by the Twentieth Indiana regiment, who had passed in the darkness a large body of the rebels, landed for the purpose of cutting them off. Col. Brown reperted a loss of fifty men

They were within easy range, and the Monticello opened on them with shells of five seconds fuses, two hun-Union, without impairing in the slightest dred and eighteen of which were fired from three guns in three hours and thirty-five minutes, doing great executed. The Corfederates at first tried to shelter themselves behind a sand hill, and then in a narrow through the wheel house of the Fanny, which was already employed against us. It is supposed that their loss must have reached to between two and three hundred killed and wounded during the engagement. A member of the Indiana regiment, who had been taken prisoner, managed to break the rope friends, give a better side view of affairs on by which he was tied, and escaped. He took the Potomac than can be obtained from any to the surf, and was picked up by a boat from the Monticello. He reports that the first shell from her killed Col. Moving Back .- Beauregard, as Pat would say, is moving back the advanced lines of his army; and as they recede our advanced lines fill their places. This cannot go on much longer without an extensive collision; and from all the indications of the day, General M'Clellan is not only prepared for it, but is deliberately preparing to bring it on. D. DR MOTT'S CHALY BEATE RATIVE PILLS of IRON

An aperient and stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctified by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable

Innoxious in all malladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz: In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhoa, Dysentery, cipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruction, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from Chronic complaints one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotton in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from a protracted travel in a distant land, Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exbaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to Medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating, and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative or inflicting a disagreeable sensati on. It is this latter property, among others which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant costiveness. In unchecked Diarrhora, even when advanced to Dysentary, confirmed emaciating and apparently malignent, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength biliating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicates Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances. In Scrofulous Tuberculsis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparetions of idione, without any of their well known liabillities. The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the caces peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both Chronic and inflamatory

-in the latter, however, more decidedly-it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stifness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic rest-rative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West will probably be one of high renown and use-No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole his tory of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy and fully restorative effects. Good appetitee, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposi-tion for active and cheerful exercise, immediate-
