THE BLESSINGS OF GOVERNMENT, LIKE THE DEWS OF HEAVEN, SHOULD BE DISTRIBUTED ALLEE UPON THE HIGH AND THE LOW, THE SICH AND THE POOL.

STRIES.

TERMS:

EMOCRAT & SENTINEL' IS PUBlished every Wednesday Morning at OLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS per annum, in advance; ONE DOLLAR AND SEVENTE LLARS if not paid until the termination | his feet.

subscription will be taken for a shorter I than six months, and no subscriber will be sity to discontinue his paper until all ars are paid, except at the option of the serion subscribing for six months will be LONE DOLLAR, unless the money is paid Advertising Rates.

One	insert'n. Tu	10 60. 11	hree do	3.4
T12 lines	$ 50	$ 75.	$1.00	12
intrati, 124 lines	1 00	1 00	2 00	1
quare, [36 lines]	1 50	2 00	8 06	ł.
dimension free concert	S months.	6 do.	12 do ther or lists	$1 50	$3.00	$5 00	13
umre, [12 lines]	2 50	$ 50	9.00	1.
munres, [24 lines]	4 00	7 00	12 00	1
interes. [00 lines]	6 00	9.00	14 00
(a columni.	10 00	12.00	20 00	1
and interior	15 03	22 00	85 00	1
- 1 1 alvertirum	ent must be	marke	d with	4, a ai fusertions desired, or they will be mtil forbid, and charged accordingly

Silert Moetry.

TO A FRIEND. ty heart is soil to night, dear friend, My soul with grief is bowed ; id eard, though wearing joyous smiles. Seence covered with a shroud. is breeze which around me play. Whispining in mournful tores, tonial me of the " passel away !" And coll man Play alone." i'u the silunt grave

A cheri. - run we've lafu;) can it be there well laved tones We nelo- shall see again F

There was the sound of a struggle. A sweet tinder voice-the voice of a woman-cried; "I will pass; I will see him." and the next minute there burst into the presence of the chief a female estraif not paid within six months, and and threw herself in a supplicating attitude at

> " Pardon, pardon !" she cried, " pardon for him! He meant no wrong. It was for me he incurred the penalty. Save him-O, save him ! Santa Anna looked upon the woman and saw that she was young and surpassing beautiful .--Large and dark were her Spanish eyes, and as he gazed into their jetty, sparkling and mournful depths, a feeling came over him like a memory of something half forgotten, half realized. It was with surprise that the sentinel who had followed the lady into the tent, found himself motioned back.

" I have yet to learn fir whom it is you plead," remarked Santa Anna,

" For Rodrigo-for my husband !" ejaculated the lady. " He is no traitor. His colonel offered me insult. Rodrigo struck him. The lash was ordered for his noble back. But I cut his bonds, and we fied to the mountain. For me he did it-unworthy me. Pardon him or kill me !" struggle, and may be a duty after all not love. Santa Anna essayed to raise the lovely womknees.

" No, no," slie exclaimed, " not 'till you pardon him. Let me die for him if need be. Only | were centered in one unhappy person, it would set him free. He is brave-he is true. You | not make him positively ugly if he were wise must not kill him !"

look were as cold as the snows of Popocatapetl, He shook his head and said :

"Though you plead 'till the break of the last dawn, it will not save him. His fault is too great for pardon. It is midnight now-the hour of his doom. While you wait here, the bullets that are to take his life may be driven home in their deadly tubes. You may see him if you hasten."

EBENSBURG, PA. WEDNESDAY, BEC. 4, 1861

was found fighting more bravely for the children of the sun, than the captain of the Guadalajuar company of light infantry-Pion el Rodrigo. And when at last, shattered and routed, the Mexican army retired, and left the Americans to mourn the loss of more than half their effective force, Captain Rodrigo was to be found in the suit of Santa Anna-for even in the hour of defeat the merciless Mexican chief had not failed to remember the debt of gratitude he owed to the mother of Incz-Isabel de Rimenas.

Bemocrat and Sentin

Thus it is, that in every man's career there are bright spots to be found, that should shine like stars so long as his name is remembered among men.

No RIGHT TO BE UGLY .- Men or women, whatever their physical deformities may be, cannot be ugly, except from mental and intellectual causes, and neither man nor woman has any right to be ugly, and if either be so, it is his or her fault, misdemeanor or crime; and that being ugly, they cannot expect the love of ugly women ; no women can love an ugly man; and if fathers and mothers can love an ugly child, it is a sore To have lost one's eye or nose, to squint or to an. She slipped from his grasp and clasped his have a hunch back, are certainly misfortunes, deterioriation of the human form, and impairments of its high ideal; but if all these calamities witty, benevolent, just and generous, and pas-

Santa Anna felt distressed. But his voice and sed his life in deeds of kindness and charity. Milton has not endowed his sublime fiend with the horns, dragon's tail, and other vulgar ugliness of popular superstition. He was too great a poet and philosopher to fall into such an error .---The physical beauty of his Satan was originally as great as that of the angels who had not fallen, in all the outward attributes; but the hideousness was in the mind, and the mind moulded the body to its own character ; and Satan though he

OUR UNION RIGHT OR WRONG.

Rouse here's of Freedom's only home, The following is an extract from a late Hark to stay distation's cry, Dear libe t beneath her dome, Proclaims that danger's nigh; DOF SBYS: Comp let your noble shouts ring forth,

We believe we can best promote the inter-In trumper voices strong; est of our country by preserving our time honored organization. It has been so closely "We know no South, we know no North, Our Un a right or wrong," identified with the history and progress of "We know no South, we know no North our country that its dissolution would seem Our U _____ wight or wrong." holds our country together. I know that The temple our brave lathers made, The wonder of the world, united in this movement with a belief that Shall they behold their sons dismay'd they should secure a greater degree of unity When treason's flag's unfurled ; of action among our people. They felt that Oh ! never, by the the glorious star past divisious should be overlooked. I appeal Which on-our banner throng : to them if these expectations and hope- have Rouse sous of three victorious wars. been realized. Has this movement produced For Union right or wrong. unanimity of purpose or has it caused confu-

Our patriotic father's shades, With Washington on high. Point to their blood annointed blades And to their children cry, Rouse, freemen by your father's scars, On to the rescue throng:

Defend our flag and sacred stars. The Union right or wrong.

Sons of the press proclaim its worth In telegraphic fires, Bid young America stand forth And emulate their sires; Wake sister states and hand in hand, Round Freedom's Temple throng, Come shout in one united Band, Our Unida right or wrong.

"MORE COPY" OR THE FOREMAN'S DEMAND.

VOL. 8---NO. 52

Ex. Governor Seymour on the Importance upon the vast unoccupied lands of our Gov-of Preserving the Democratic Party. If we would not live with them ances with what justice under the the people of the South do we det " specch of Ex-Goversor Seymour, of New should be s ... to all the evils and in-York, at his residence in Utica. The Gover- security and loss of constitutional right, involved in the immediate abolition of slavery ? We cannot, therefore, make this a war for the abolition of slavery We will not permit it to be made a war on the rights of the States. We shall strive to make the contest in the re-establishment of the Government like the severance of the last bond which and the restoration of fraternal feeling among the people of this country. We shall see that many of our estimus and those for whom I it does not crush out the liberties of the altientertain a strong personal regard, have zons or the received powers of the States. We shall hold that wan to be as much a to be who urges our Government to overstep its Constitutional powers as he who resists the execrcise of its rightful suthority. We shall contend that the rights of the State and the General Government are equally sacreda Our motto is: The Union the Constitution sion ? Has it made fewer parties or more par- and the Laws The Union upon equal terms the whole Constitution, and all the Laws.

ALL ABOUT KISSES.

Kisses are an acknowledged lustifution. they hold discordant opinions now ; we do not It is as natural for " folke" them as it is for object to it that they held different purposes water to run down hill, except when it is so heretofore, but that they are parsuing differ- cold that won't run at all. Kisses like faces ent of jects at this time. The election of its of philosophers, vary some are as hot as coal tickets will not carry harmony and unity of fire, some as sweet as honey, some as mild as purpose to your State Capitol, but discord milk, some as tasteless as long-drawn soda. and confusion. Its very authors have ad. Stulen kisses are said to have more butmeg mitted that this movement was a great mis- and cream than any other sort. As to protake It is simply a party which is all Union posed kisses, they are not liked at all. We have made it our business to inquire among offices and disagrees with respect to principles our friends, a d they agree with us, that a One wing of this organization is conservative stolen kiss is the most agreeable-mat is if the and patriotic; the other is violent and revo- theft is made by the right person. Talk, of lutionary. Some of its nominees have avow. shyness and struggling ; no wooder ! when ed the most extreme doctrines of Secession. some bipeds approach, it is miracu leus that ists of the South, others agree with ultra ladies do not go into convulsions. We do Abolitionists of the North. Which class will not speak from experience, but what we have prevail ? If they are placed in power no prin- others say. We have been kissel a tew times its members or its nominees hold different views in the past, but we do not object to it that and no harmony ; it agrees with regard to ties?

ciple will be settled, no contest will be ended | and as we are not very old, we hope to receive

We do not object to this organization that tions have only forever clesed ; And has that spirit ded 7 the one so fourly tweet Now numbered with the dead 7 ie's crossel the billows, gained the shore Of 15 's tempestature sea. Is surrent memories of the past. So hely and so deep. i peasure as a precious boon, bongh off they but has worn.

DESERTER Incident of the Mexicau Campalgn.

1. Duvirs. 254 C.

ers on the eve of the battle of Burna Vista. sufficient of eletory on the morrow. Day | rigs, standing there with folded arms. ty they had struggled through and desorts othern huvaders would at mahs me !" re their overwhelming into Anno set in the door of his pavilion, loo aphonand his five thousand men burned in aim, fire !"

were interrupted .-u hamen brought into his presence a man, bards bound behind, and blood flowing aon el Rodrigo," said We discovered him in the mountain, at an What shall be his fate ?"

dits Anna glanged at the prisoner. The t of the forehes fell upon the face of singular benevalence of expression, blenwhich firmerss-one of these beautiful faces just trembling on the lieutenant's lips. the motimes see in portraits of the old Span-

Is there any doubt ?" queried the general. He does not deny it," was the reply. "Speak, tree, came forward. " I am your general. Pla-30, have you say thing to say ?" or prismer shock his head-radly, hopeless-plant was thereas.

Santa Auna pointed to a ravine near at band. "Cochine appreciated his meaning. A priite had that day been shot there for the same nes. All that Santa Anna said was ;---

are beaming-and his voice is heard still carry it on in a spirit of hatred, malice or what dey would come to." screaming. "Sir, the foreman wants some revenge. What our views be with respect give a good title But I'd like to know if the supply hands as he was led away, and menas. Isabel was not benefactor years ago. I have a debt of gratitude to pay. Inez-Inez de "What would they come to ?" there be much prarie or ague there to bothto slavery, we do not regard it as the cause "A chicken pot pie an' a sudden disappearof the controversies. We hold that the con- er a poor devil Rimenas, wife of Rodrigo, arise !" and he stoop-Intz, In . Lost. lost forever ! And our soul peirced with that screaming ed and tenderly took the lady's hand. "Your ance." troversies of the day do not grow so much and a chill to awakened from its dreaming and has lost the Don't marry too smart a gurl, for she will out of the institution of slavery as from the husband is pardoned !" it that heard it, and Santa Anna himself, -A broker, not long ago, when escorting existence at the South of vast numbers of the outrarn you; nor one to simple, for children peace it had before, for the fancy will come The glad announcement was a potent charm. a fair damsel, asked her what kind of money of a hundred bloody fights, gazed reo'er as that each readers face before us, bears take their talents from their mother ; nor 100 African race, that abolition of slavery would A minute only elapsed, and husband and wife. she liked best. Of course the blashing beauty I after the prisoner till the latter vanishthe horrid words-"he wants a little more !" not end the contest, but would be the com- rich, for she will remind you of it ; nor too instantly suggested matrimony. "What rate were in each other's arms, Inez wceping with Words on their foreheads glaring, "your mencement of a lasting, destructive terrible poor, for she will act the beg gar on horseback. ato darkness. of interest does it bring ? inquired the man funny column wants some more !" tears of joy. domestic conflict. We know that the people o o * of current funds and wildcat documents. "If Fame is like an eel -rather hard to catch, Santa Anna softly withdrew to his pavillion. Next day, when the fierce battle of Buena Vis: properly invested it will double the original " is midnight. Santa Anna had just disof the North would not consent that 4,000. and a good deal harder to hold. The best life-preserver in this world, is a 000 of free negroes should live in their midst. a council of officers, and was alone in his stock every two years." marriage certificate. One half the rheuma- that they would not agree to the abolition of Only at the entrance stood the armed ta was fought, when for many long hours, four When is thunder like an caion? When From the boby's purity the mud receives tism in the market, is only vice, assuming slavery if those manumitted slaves were to be a. Suddenly there was a roise; the guards- thousand Americans bore up against the repeatthe shape of caues and crutches. moved into the Northern States and placed, it comes peal on peal. " The heard challenging some new conter .-- charges of twenty thousand Mexicans, no man a sympathetic aid.

The lady sprang to her feet with a shriek of despair. She looked into the unchanging and relentless eye of Santa Anna, and became hope-

" Let me go to him !" she cried in agony .--"Take me to hun ! My husband-O, take me to my husband !"

Santa Anna spoke to the guardsman. " It is weil, let her see him. Half an hour more or less, is of small account. But see to it. that the man is dead when the clock strikes all and The lady wrung her hands. The general's mercilers words had hardly died away, when he was again alone. The guard, eager and earnest, had departed with the lady t and in Santa Anna's bosom there was left the memory of her agony like a haunting spirit.

. . . . In the ravine, half an hour after, down among the dense shadows of the bushes, half a dozen torches threw a luried light on a score of glittertaynty thousand Mexicans slept on their and a fainting woman. The prisoner was Rod-

" Quick !" he cried, quick ! I cannot witness the stand their present position, her agony! Let the blow fall, before serrow un. shaped like a coffin, and left in that situation

O, the despairing firmness of that voice ! The these twenty thousand parting words had all been said-the parting it of their eldef-Santa kisses had all been given, and, fainting with desquestion an accomplished pair, the lovely Inez had been torn from her hus-"youndander, and who, had he but com- band's arms. Now she lay there upon the before alluded to, watched, each in turn to wita'el Abgle Saxen'er Gallic or Deltie troops, ground, her head supported by a kneeling soldier addition on the name removined to the end while another was bathing her hands and brow the watch heard a movement, laid down by the with water.

" Why this delay ?" ejaculated Rodrigo. " It 2 out over the land to where the watch fires is torfure to me. Let me give the word-ready,

The soldiers did not obey the prisoner. It was hought Santa Anna, " we only when their lieutenant repeated the word d stroy these Fankce invaders, root and "Ready ?" that the musket barrels dropped from the One single blow shall finish the cam- their shoulders to their hands, and the sharp click was heard as they cocked their pieces.

. Aim!" and up the dozan muskets went, and the soldiers' eyes gleanned along the tubes to see that the muzzeles pointed full at the bosom of Rodrigo.

Just then the prisoner spoke-a last ejaculation:

" My wife, Inez de Rimenas, farewell ! Heaven keep you !??

It was the maiden name of his wife that the doomed man had uttered. The word 'fire' was " Hold! I command you, on pain of death !" thundered a new voice. A cloaked form, which had hitherto been concealed in the shadow of a toon, shoulder, arms !"

The pieces, undischarged, were thrown to a We knew that there was no mercy for him. perpendicular position again, and all present stood in fixed surprise.

> Rimenas. Where was your wife born ?" " In the bacienda of Los formio," returned my. Let her die at midnight." No other word was spoken, save that the pris- the chief. " It is the daughter of Isabel de Ri-"Yis, be jabers, a whole cection if you was as Sidney Smith said 'a fine fellow in one sense, was terribly ugly in the other; sublime > high and shapely as the Apollo Beldivere, but the evil spirit that is in him has set the indescribable seal of a bad mind upon all his physical lineaments. He bears the brand of criminality Jinks," that's knocking at our door ; Jinks upon his forehead as Cain did, and carries a mark divine displeasure stamped upon his face, shapet in his aspect, toned in his voice and telegraphed in his looks and gestures.

unfortunate as to have a wife of a very different character, in alert one that would get beastly druph. Being in the company with a few intimates one evening, one of them remarked to him that if she was his wife-since all other things ing bayonets, a prisoner stripped for execution, had failed-he would frighten her in some way, so that she would quit her evil habit, and pro- always civil) that Jinkins was the posed the following method; that some time to stay there evermore, there to find his when dead drunk she should be laid in a box until her fit should be over, and consciousness restored.

A few evenings afterwards the dame being in a proper state, the plan was out into execution ; knocking there before. and after the lid was properly secure, the party ness the result. About daylight next morning bore, Jiuks, nameless evermore.

a few times was heard to say; " Bless me ! where am 1 ??

The outsider answered, in a sephulchral tone : " Madain you are dead and in the other world." A pause ensued, after which the old lady inquired again :

" Where are you ?" " Oh I am dead too." said he.

" Can you tell me how long I have been dead ?" " About three weeks "

" How long have you been dead ?"

" Four months." "Well, you have been here so much longer than I have, can't you tell me where I can get a little gin ?"

scholar ?"

"Not quite as good as I ought to be, Sam, why ?"

"Because I just wanted to ask you one question."

" What is it, Sam ?"

" Have you ever studied arithmetic ?" " Of course." "Well, now, suppose that a man should buy a pair of chickens at twelve and a half cents a to ?" " Was it in the morning ?"

Once in August, wet and dreary, sat this writer, weak and weary, wandering oe'r a place. horrible and infinitely more fearful to think of memorandum book of items used beforethan the grotesque compound of Satyr and Dra- (book of scrawling head notes rather; item taking days together, then in hot and sultry An ugly person may have a well developed weather, using up much time and leather.) nose and regular features, he may be six feet poudering we these items ce'r. While we conu'd them, slowly rocking. (through our minds queer ideas flocking.) came a quick and nervous knocking-at the sanctum door. "Sure that must be Jinks," was muttered -...

the ever asting more " Ab, how do we remind us : in the walls which then collised us, "exchanges" lay behind us, ap I before us, and around us, all oe'r the floor. Thought we. " Jinks want's A CONFIRMED CASE .- A gentleman of excel- to borrow some newspapers till to-morrow, leat babits and very amiable disposition was so and 'twill relief from sorrow to get rid of Jinkins, the bore, by opening wide the door."

still the visitor kept knocking-knocking louder than before Aud the scattered piles of papers cut some rather curious capers, being lifted by the breeze coming through the door; and we wished (the wish was evil, for one deemed level-Jinks the never tiring bore !

Backing up our patience firmer, then without a murna ; "Mr. Jinks," said we "your pardon, your forgiveness we implore. But the fact is we were reading some curious proceeding, and thus it was unheeded, your loud

Here we opened the wide door. But fancy now our pheelings-for it wasn't Jinks. the

But the form that stood before us, caused box, when the ladyship after bumping her head a trembling to come oe'r us. and memory quickly bore us back again to days of yore days when "items" were in plenty and where 'er this writer went he picked up itoms by the score-"Twas the form of our 'devil' in an attitude uncivil; and thrust his head within the open door, with "The foreman's out' of copy ! Sir-and says he wants more" Yes. like Alexander, wanted more."

Now, this 'local' had already walked about till nearly dead-he had sauntered through the city till his feet were walked through the street called Dauphlien, and by-ways running off into the portion of the city both public and obscure, and examined store and ceilar, and had questioned every 'feller' whom we met. from door to door, if anything was stiring, any seeident occuring, not published here--"Julius, I suppose you are a very good tofore; and had met with no success; he would rather kinder guess he felt a little wicked at that ugly little bore, with his message from the foreman that he wanted something more.

"Now it's time you were departing, you scamp," cried we upstarting ; get you back of your pockets and leave the sanctum door : Peunsylvania, and strive to place in power "Prisoner," cried Santa Anna, "you called pound, and the chickens weighed seven pounds tell the foreman there's no copy, you ugly not only a harmonious State Administration. and a quarter, what you think they'd come little bore." Quoth our devil, 'send him but one that will have the confidence of patmore."

And our devil, never sitting, still is flitting. We are willing to support this war as a the astonished prisoner. "Her father's name meaning the four pages of letter press be " Why, what has that to do with it ?" back and forth upon the landing just outside means of restoring the Union, and because we had in his band. The map of the house in-"I cannot park a desertion in presence of an was Juan." "A great deal; because if it was in the mor- the sanctum door. Tears down his cheeks regard it as a harsh but a necessary remedy "Thank the Lord! thank the Lord!" cried ning and my wife bought 'em, I know 'xactly are streaming-strange light from his eyes for the evils of the day. But we will not stantly replied men who have joined that organization. if to be found. Mest men would contaminate they are noting wisely and well affiliating the check of a lady, (her lips must be left awith those whose principles and pursuits they lone) with the odious insense of Chappane, detest, or in placing in effice men whom they tobacco, or seeds-which are worse than all believe to have been instrumental in causing even though they do conceal the performe this war and, who do not hold one purpose of the first two mentioned ; For certainas to the future in common to themselves. It that is all they are eaten for We expect Are they not contributing to bring about the that gentleman think we are entirely innocent very evils and calamities which they wish of understanding their use, but they are misto avoid? If they succeed, what influence taken.

Controversies will begin with their advent to

the State? their nominations are suppor- an elegant gentleman, to appear in the prested most cordially by every journal and every ence of ladies with his pockets well stored class of men who have not only been vindic- with those abomniable mode, is absurd. If tive, violent and revolutionary in the past, you wish to kiss a lady, without her blushtionary now.

I implore the patriotic conservative men. who have heretolore acted with this organization for conservative purposes, to pause and ponder, and see if they are not about to fall tached to the travelling menageries of our dressed idlers with country an exhibition called the "happy family," where animals of the most opposite character are penned together in one cage. it yeou !" said the court man, We admire the skill which seems to subdue their natural instincts to rend and destroy each other, and are surprised to see birds beasts and reptiles living in apparent har- deown on business. mony. This may do for one of the cariositics of a museum, but it will not answer for you on? the Government of a State. It will be found that the passions and prejudices of of men Boston, to look -- und and find half a dozen are not so easily subdued, and our political of the biggest to edicate 'em, and, I "happy family" will be found to be not only rather guess a bluuder but a disaster.

But is the proposition of our Republican at a glance. friends, that they will dissolve their organization and that we shall give up ours, quite to himself, where he quietly fluished his fair and equal? Their party is but a thing doughnut. of yesterday. It. grew out of a sectional passion or prejudice. It never embraced our whole country within its organization. this world as falling in love; yet it is not so Its first victory is associated with the ruin of common to love. The one is a flower that our land If they wish to abandon it let may bloom and wither in a night; the other them do so, but let them not attempt to cov- rich in fruit from the flower that can surviva er that abandonment by a proposal that we the sun and storm, and ripen to decay no shall give up a party which is identified with more When feverish anxieties have passed the greatness, the progress and the power of away-When "hopes and fears that kindle our nation.

It has been well said by one of our townsmen, that if an American citizen returning ey moons" are long forgotten, and the snowy from abroad and ignorant of the events which have happened within the past two years, should hear that civil war was raging here, his first exclamation would be : "Then the Democratic party was defeated at the last rificing, seeking not its own but the more pinese Presidential election !" We believe that our of its beloved - a love such as youth Lover success at this time will strengthen the into the office-office where you were before ; Union men of the South. We believe that or the words you have spoken will get your the dissolution of the Democratic party would bones broken," (and he seized a cudgel that discourage them We mean, therefore, to was lying on the floor.) "take your hands out conslate the example of our brethern in riotic men in every section of our country.

many more.

A clean mouth and handsome teeth are in-I appeal to the conservative and patriotic dispensible requisites, but they are seldem will any conservative or patriotic man have in The very idea of one who professes to be but are also viadictive, violent and revolu- ing and struggling, dispense with these disagreeable articles, and we will gurantee you will have no unnecessary trouble.

(Ladiez' Enterprise.

Found His Chowp-A young man, cled in into the hands of those from whom they differ homespun, was standing in Court street. most widely. This movement is not only few days since, devouring a doughout, when dangerous but absurd. There is usually at- he was accosted with half a dozen geoteel

" Just come down ?"

"Yes. guess I have, great place this, ain't

" Tis so, bub; how marm! asked the city buck, bent on spo. . . . the greeney. "Wull, she's pretty well; she sont me

"She did? What kind of busicess are

.. Why, she wanted me to come down to my eyes on 'em neow,' said the stratige.

The next moment he had the curb stores

Love -- Nothing is indeed so common in hope" have crasod -- When selfish jealousies and lovers' quarrels are burried-When thonbrow has become wrikled, and the eye last its moisture; then does love, worthy of the name, become the numste of the heart and home :- love, pare, noble, devoted, solf-szedreamed of or realized.

ACCEPTING & TRACE - A colporterur some time ago, when engaged in distributing tracts among the poor benighten ones above town, met with an amusing incident; coming to at isolated building, of humble pretensions on the common, he opened the door without knocking, saying-

. Will you accept a tract of the Holy Land ?"