(From the Harrisburgh Patriot & Union.) WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

and hope are beaming from the horizon of our political embarrassment and national troubles. From private conversations with conservative Republicans, I am satisfied that the Constitutional status of all the Southern States will be preserved inviolate, notwithstanding outward appearance to the contrary. The confiscation bill will be voted down in the Secate by a significant and decided majority. The vote upon it will draw the lines between conservatism and to all who make use of it. No Young La-Abelitionism-between the true friends of DY OR YOUNG GENTLEMAN who is afflicted the Union, and those of the intended Abolition candidate Fremont So that when this war is closed, the States will be handed over to the people thereof, with all the Constitutional guaratees as they came from our fathers. Senator Trumbell, of Illinois, who introduced the confiscation bill, is the only quasi friend of the President, but Senator Browning of that State, is the special and confidential friend of Mr. Lincoln, and will follow the wake of Senator Cowan and make a speech today in opposition to Trumbell's till ; and he will be followed on the same side, by Senators Collamer, of Vermont; Fressenden, of Maine; Harris, of New York; Deolittle, of Wisconsin; Clark, of New Hampshire; Ten Eyck, of New Jersey Howe, of Michigan; and probably by Foster and Dixon, of Connecticut, and others, whose votes, added to the fifteen Union Whigs and Democrats, will of course leave the Abolition wing in the minority. And it is well for the country that it is so; for, from what I can learn concerning the Democratic sentiment of the Army, both officers and mon-and they are very largely in the majority-rather than fight the Secession, ists of the South, merely for the abouition of slavery, would turn their bayonets against the Abolitionists of the North, and thus root out those who were the original cause of this war. God forbid, that in our overburthened troubles, such a contingency should become necessary. But, if it should, the war would soon be brought to a close ; for the whole South-Union men and alland all the conservatives of the North, which now constitute a large majority of the North would unite against the meagre faction, mostly confined to the New England States and crush them out in less than a month --- No 77 Fourth street, Brooklyn, E. D. And thus the only barrier to a reunion of the North and South would be removed. and the Union would be itself again, resting peaceably and harmoniously on its ancient basis of fraternity and equality. However, there is every reason to believe that the turning point in the coeffict with the South is close at hand, and will be settled by the sword, within the next ten days. Within that period, I expect, the gallant McClellan with his servied hosts of brave warriors will plant the flag of the Union upon the inner ramparts of the rebellion forces, in the Metropolis of the Southern Confederacy. The signs of this event are unmistakeable-but distressing wearingss caused by 'mum's' the word. The late message of the President, propo- kceping a bottle of posing the adoption by Congress of a resolution to aid any of the Southern States, who may wish to abolish slavery, is regarded as s to ere sop in the pan for Abolitionists to lick and lap, in order to divert them from mischief, and I see it has the desired effect ; for Greely of the Tribune, goes at it with such a phrensied gusto that there is danger of his shout forcing a hole through the bot- Chestnut Street; and by all Druggists. tom of the pan. The message proposes nothing without the consent of the States to which the offer is to be made; and, by inference, it clearly recognizes the rights guaranteed by the Constitution.

NO COMPROMISE WITH TRAITORS.

This is the cry with which the Repub. lican hungerers and thirsters after, plunder · put down the Crittenden Compromise .---They did not want out troubles settled peaceably, for a peaceable settlement would No, 77 Fourth Street, Brooklyn, E. D. not have filled their pockets. Well, we got no compromise, and what is the result ? We have five thousand traitors now to every single traitor we had when the patriotic Crittenden plead for compromise; and we have a war which, no matter how soon it may end, will leave on our shoulders a debt of at least one thousand millions of dollars. This is the lowest amount we can escape with. The interest on this debt, at 7,30, the present treasury rate, will be seventy three millions per annum. If the country is kept together and the Southern States are and storekeepers are behind the age, we made to pay their proportion, Pennsylvania will have one tenth of this sum to raise -say seven millions of dollars a year. If Hurd's Mouth Wash, and Tooth Ache Drops sell rapidly the South gets off Pennsylvania will have a box of Too h Powder, the Neuralgia Plas, one sixth of it to make up-say twelve millions of dollars a year. Can the people of this State stand the grinding of additional taxes out of them, to the amount of twelve to every young man or woman, or parents with Bittsburgh and Philadelphia, he is premillions per annum ? Can they pay even seven millions above their present State, haps those who would have 'no compromise . with traitors,' can tell .-- Valley Spirit.
