WEDNESDAY APRIL 30, 1862

Very Severe.

tional existence. In my humble judgment the "rebel States," so called, and the people of those States are to-day integral parts of the Union, ever whom, when the conflict of arms ceases, the Constitution of the United States, and the laws made under it, will resume their peaceful sway.

No purpose, however humane, beneficent or attractive, can divert our steps from the plain, straight path of sworn duty. What is writ is writ. In seeking to change it by force of arms, we become the rebels we are striving to subdue.

Never can the land forget, How gushed the life blood of her brave, Gashed with hope and valor yet, Upon the soil they fought to save.

Our attention has been directed to this question, by the appearance of a remarkable editorial article entitled "Breckinridge" in the last number of the Alleghenian. It is certainly a literary curiosity in its way.

St. Louis, April 26.—Special dispatches from Cairo to the Democrat says: Passengers who reached here this morning on the steam N. W. Thomas, which left Pittsburg Landing on Thursday night, bring highly important intelligence.

Gen. Halleck was pushing his whole army vigorously forward.

Professor Wood's advertisement can be found in another column. It should be ready every person.

Promising—The grain crops in little Blair—so says the Standard. Ditto in this County say we.

It was always the trick of our English nation," says jolly Jack Falstaff, addressing himself to the Chief Justice, "if they had a good thing, to make it too common."

Our attention has been directed to this question, by the appearance of a remarkable editorial article entitled "Breckinridge" in the last number of the Alleghenian.

The author of the article in question has certainly established his reputation for fluency in that language the free and frequent use of which is the certain index of a low minded blaguard.

From the course of the so called Union Democrats in the Legislature we are inclined to hope, that we will not be annoyed with talk about a "Union Party," during the coming campaign.

Devil," "barbarous brute." That will do, Mr. Deputy Editor stop and take breath, and then have at it again. Surely your vocabulary of billingsgate slang is not yet exhausted; the balance next week if you please.

With regard to the portion of the article which refers to Mr. Breckinridge we care nothing, only so far as it illustrates the excellent moral and literary taste of the editor of the Alleghenian and his deputies.

But Barker and his deputies assert that there are men in this neighborhood, who secretly sympathize with the treason of Breckinridge.

We last week mentioned, that Capt. William's company in the 19th regular infantry, recruited in this County, were in the battle of Pittsburg Landing.

The Cost of the War.

According to the most reliable calculations we have seen, the cost of the present war is likely to be about $700,000,000 annually during its continuance.

A "Goak."

The Republican newspapers still persist in styling Forney's Press, a Democratic sheet. This is the best joke of the season, and doubtless the virtuous John, enjoys many a sly laugh at it.

Our friend of the Bedford Inquirer advises the citizens of that place, to "pen up their logs."

We last week mentioned, that Capt. William's company in the 19th regular infantry, recruited in this County, were in the battle of Pittsburg Landing.

Mr. John Singer, of Jackson township, received a letter on Sunday last from his son James, who was in the battle, and in the fiercest of the fight.

James B. Simpson, Esq., formerly of the Fulton County Democrat has purchased the Johnstown Echo, with the intention of starting a Democratic paper in the Borough of Indiana, Indiana County.

New Firm—Those who wish to purchase good and cheap goods, should peruse the advertisement of E. J. Mills & Co., which will be found in another column.

Our citizens making garden, Bewailing Anxious—The officers of the both Democratic and Republican parties.

On a Courtship Expedition—The junior of the Bellflower Watchman. So says the senior.

In town on Monday—Capt. Palmer of the "Silver Grays." He looked well, and reported all the boys in good health.

The May number of Godey's Lady's Book has been received. The Fashion Plates and engravings in this number are beautiful.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Prof. Wood, the renowned discoverer of the invincible Hair Restorative, still continues to labor in behalf of the afflicted.

His medicines are universally admitted by the American press to be far superior to all others for causing the hair on the head of the aged, that has been silvered for many years, to grow forth with as much vigor and luxuriance as when blessed with the advantage of youth.

There can be no doubt that it is one of the greatest discoveries in the medical world. It restores permanently gray hair to its original color, and makes it assume the beautiful silky texture, which has been very desirable in all ages of the world.

S.M. by all good Druggists.

We would attract the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column, of "Dr. Leland's Anti-Rheumatic Band."

NEW MUSIC—MR. HORACE WALTERS, the well known Music Publisher and Piano Dealer, of 481 Broadway, New York, has recently issued some very popular and choice pieces of music.

Major General C. F. Smith, died at Savannah, Tennessee, on the 25th inst., at four o'clock p. m., of dysentery. He was taken sick shortly after the occupation of Savannah by the forces under him, and has been suffering and sinking slowly for some weeks, though his condition was not thought dangerous until within the past week.
