

We need not answer for you these inquiries. We know what must be the response of every mind not demented by Abolitionism.

Have we not shown, then, the policy of Abolitionism, if carried out, is to the overthrow of our Constitution and Union? That Abolitionists are the enemies of the Republic? Believing we have done so, it remains to inquire: What is the relief for us in this our hour of gloom for our beloved country? We answer: Remove the causes; remove Abolitionism and Secessionism. Put down the farmer at the ballot-box; put down the latter (backed by arms) by force of arms. In the execution of the latter, insist that the Government shall stand by its pledged faith—to conduct the war to uphold the Constitution and the Union, and not, as Abolitionism would have it, to make Disunion complete, and to overthrow the Constitution! As Pennsylvanians, you have probably a greater stake in the preservation of the Union than the people of any other State. Should the co-operative, yet, in some sense, hostile movements of Abolitionism and Secessionism succeed, and Disunion become an established fact, Pennsylvania, owing to her peculiar geographical position, would be exposed to the desolation and become the battle-field of the conflicting forces that would remain as the heritage of Disunion.

These, however, we will forbear now to contemplate; for we are unwilling to believe that "that God who presides over the destinies of nations" will permit such a terrible dispensation to befall us. We are unwilling to believe that the people of the free States will ever become so maddened as to aid the spirit of Abolitionism that seems now to brood over us like some evil genius, that would control us to our destruction. It cannot be that we are to have a doom worse than befell Babylon after she had "become the habitation of devils and the hold of every foul spirit."

The only excuse offered by Abolitionism for its policy is the plausible fallacy that "slavery is the cause of our threatened Disunion." To those who look only to immediate and proximate causes, this position is captivating; but to those who remember that the original Union, which waged the war of the Revolution, was made up of thirteen slave-holding States; that the Union at the time of the adoption of the present Constitution, consisted of twelve slaveholding to one free State. It is very plain, that instead of slavery producing Disunion, that, unless it had been recognized and the faith of the whole people pledged for its protection, this Union would have never existed.

It would be as reasonable to argue that houses and money should be exterminated, because so long as they exist there will be incendiaries and thieves, as to argue that slavery should be destroyed, because so long as it exists there will be Abolitionists. Houses and money are not more clearly and decidedly recognized by the Constitution and laws of the Federal Government, as subject to the laws and protection of the States where they exist, as is the right of the master to the services of his negro slave in the States where negro slavery is recognized. Incendiaries and thieves no more violate the recognized rights of others when they burn houses and commit robbery, than do Abolitionists, when, by the underground railroad or other devices, they deprive the slaveholder of the South of that property which the Constitution and the laws of his State, as well as those of the United States guarantee protection. If in the attempt to commit arson or robbery, life is taken, it is murder in the first degree, so too it is murder of the same grade to take life in the unlawful attempt to deprive the owner of his rights in the services of his negro. And here, too, we will remark that the present war, if Abolitionists should succeed in diverting it from its proper purpose of upholding the Constitution and the Union, and prostituting it to their cherished object of freeing negroes by killing white men, would become an atrocious murderous war, that would justify subject all who gave it such direction to the penalty of the law imposed against the highest of crimes.

The policy of Abolitionism, therefore, is not only unsupported by one tangible ground, even for its palliation, but judged by its objects and its effects, it is in the highest degree criminal and disloyal. By eradicating Abolitionism, we remove not only sectionalism from the North, but the cause of sectionalism in the South.

The fall of Abolitionism, we verily believe, would in a short time be attended the fall of secessionism. Although the imaginary advantages of a Southern Confederacy, entertained by many in the revolted States, has secured for it unconditional supporters, yet the desolation that has already attended upon their efforts at separation, the continued pressure of our arms, and the recollections of the blessings of the Union, will, upon the removal of the cause of Southern sectionalism, revive their sentiments of nationality.

We believe that upon the substantial extinction of Abolitionism, the Union certainly can be restored, but that, without such extinction, it never can be. It is, therefore, quite as essential that the energies of the loyal men of the North be directed against the Abolition foes of the Union as it is against Secessionism. It remains, therefore, only to inquire in what way can these energies be most effectively ly directed to accomplish the desired purpose? We reply, only by supporting the organization of the Democratic party. There is no other thoroughly loyal party in the land; it has always been national; it is the only party that has no affiliation of sympathy with sectionalism—North or South—it is the only party in Pennsylvania that is not in the sympathy or support of such friends as Wade, Sumner, Greeley, Phillips, Lovejoy and Wilmot. The national men who supported Bell and Everett in the late Presidential canvass, we believe, may now be counted in the ranks of the Democratic party. The only other political organization in this State is the enemy of the Democratic party which has rallied once more under the designation of the People's party. This party held their Convention at Harrisburg on the 17th instant, and their true character is abundantly shown that in their resolutions they eulogize and sustain Senator Wilmot, while they condemn Senator Cowan; both by the homage paid to Mr. Wilmot, and by refusing to Mr. Cowan even the meed of "faint praise." The distinguishing feature in the political course of these two Senators, it is well known, is that Mr. Wilmot has supported the extremist Abolition members of the present Congress, whilst Mr. Cowan has won the admiration and confidence of every Union-loving patriot in the land by his honest and fearless opposition to these measures—measures that tended to make Disunion perpetual.

Can any loyal man in the State, therefore, hesitate which of the two political organizations is entitled to his support? The standard bearers selected by the Democratic State Convention are in every respect deserving of your confidence.

ISAAC SLENKER, Esq., our candidate for Auditor General, is a gentleman of distinguished ability and spotless reputation. He is a native of York county, Pennsylvania—born of German parents, and who were tillers of the soil. The early political course and well tried integrity of Isaac Slenker is well known to many of the people of Pennsylvania. In 1851 he was elected to represent Union and Northumberland counties in the Senate of Pennsylvania; and while too many Senators in that body yielded to the influence that were employed by the late Bank of the United States to obtain its charter from a Pennsylvania Legislature, Isaac Slenker, with eleven others, as honest men, resisted these influences, and won the reputation of faithful among the faithful. He was upon the Judiciary Committee of the Senate, and took an active part in the revision of our civil code. At the expiration of his Senatorial term, Mr. Slenker returned again to the practice of his profession as a lawyer, and since then has been out of public position, except that in 1856 he was one of the Presidential Electors on the Democratic ticket in this State. Mr. Slenker is a gentleman of commanding abilities; highly exemplary in his habits of life; of great industry and purity of character.

COL. JAMES P. BARR, our candidate for Surveyor General, is the editor and proprietor of the Pittsburg Post, a newspaper that since Mr. Barr's connection with it, has ever been the advocate of sound principles. During the present civil war the Post has ably advocated the prosecution of the war for the suppression of the rebellion, and the preservation of the Constitution and the Union. At the same time it has been unsparing in its hostility to that disloyal party or combination that has sought to prostitute such war to the mere purpose of negro emancipation, and to that policy in conducting it that necessarily tends to make Disunion perpetual, and to permanently destroy our republican form of government. Mr. Barr, like Mr. Slenker, is a Pennsylvanian by birth, born in the county of Westmoreland—is a practical printer—has raised himself to a proud political and business position by his industry and energetic character, and is a gentleman of promptness and integrity in all his private and political relations.

While our candidates have great reason to entertain a just pride that they have been selected as the standard-bearers of a great national party, struggling to maintain the Union and Constitution against dangerous and insidious assaults of their enemies, still that party may well congratulate itself that it is so worthily represented in its standard-bearers.

Fellow-countrymen, a great issue is before you. It involves the momentous consideration whether Abolitionism, North or Secessionism, South shall destroy them! Every patriot in the land should know and feel that the only chance for the preservation of our present Government, its Constitution and the Union based thereon, is in the success of the free States at the next election! If we fail, then, all is lost, and the hitherto glorious fabric of our once great Government will fall into the abyss of anarchy, or else upon its ruins a despotism will be reared.

In either event, our future will be marked in desolated homes, ruined fortunes—the deprivation of personal liberty and personal security, and very possibly our soil and our streams be reddened with the blood of our own people. In such circumstances we appeal to every loyal Pennsylvanian to do his duty by giving his energies, his influence, and his vote to insure the success of the nominees of the Democratic party.

None are available except the *Neuralgia

modate persons in places where the druggists
and storekeepers are behind the age, we

boxes, seven inches by four, with compartments—each box containing a bottle of *Dr.
Hurd's Mouth Wash*, and Tooth Ache Drops,
and a valuable little Treatise on *Tooth

to every young man or woman, or parents with young children; with sturdy other articles; price per package one dollar, or six packages for $5, sent by express as directed.
As the Express charges are not much, if any more on a dozen than on one, it is far cheaper to order six or dozen packages at a time.
A large family will want all, or the surplus
can be disposed of to neighbors with public benefit, for no one can estimate how much pain, suffering, unhappiness, and disfigure-

would be saved to the country if every family to day had one of these packages, which,
in itself, is a complete set of Dental Remedies. Address Wm. B. Hurd & Co. Trib
