Our paper this week, owing to some necessary repairs we were obliged to make to our press, has been delayed a couple of days later than our regular time of publication : but we hope our readers will bear with this, as we are enabled thereby to give the official feturas and a fuller statement of the result throughout the State.

THE RESULT.

A Glorious Victory in "Little Cambria."

The Democracy Triumphant!!

A most signal victory in this county and in the Nineteenth Senatorial and Seventeenth Congressional Districts, by the conservative people has been gained. We have succeeded in electing our ticket by an overwhelming majority in this county. The State ticket is reported to have gone against us, but we do not yet give it up. There has been a large increase, in favor of the Democratic party, over the entire State: and from fair indications Ohio, Indiana and other States, we have good reason to hope that we may send a majority or at least such force to Congress as may stay and keep in check, those who would outstep the limits of the Constitution. The terrible conflict is over and we breathe a lighter air as through the broken clouds of despair, we see the bright sunshine of hope stream through our ill

A bad Investment. The politicians who succeeded in buying the influence of a certain Dutch Editor. made a bad out-lay of their small change or superfluous scrip: for instead of aiding the sinking cause of Abolitionism, they only opened the eyes of unsuspecting Germans, to the corrupt means resorted to by the "Peoples Party," to bolster up a rotten cause. And the infamy and shame in which "mien Herr" is forced to hang his head since the election, must be, to him, any thing but pleasant; unless the paltry sum of "gelt" which glittered in his eyes and weakened him in the knees, still continues to shine consolation and to compensate him for the abandonment of all principle and the political faith he was wont to defend. We pity this man, not because he has been deserted by his patrons and political friends, whose honest indignation he has justly merited, but beause, in the hour of our country's peril, he proved faithless to his party and like Iscarriot, for the avarice of an insignificant bribe would sell his honor, his liberty, tion for four more three years' regiments his country and deceive his patrons by an argument of sophistry and twaddle, which more than likely, his own brain never conceived. The Democratic increase in those so great, many of the very best ladies of rural localities where this "Zeitung" had its largest circulation shows, that although its editor has his price, for which he can be made the willing automaton of designelected in Berks county, by about four ing aspirants to office, that its subscribers, although many of them cannot read Eng-Do not fail to read the advertise- lish, cannot, nevertheless, be duped ment of Mr Tuck, Clothier, in an other col- by a miserable pretext and flaming editorial nor be swayed by an advice from a source which was, to the simplest, most apparently
