each, and when marching each is required to carry his piece or share the burden. There is considerable sickness in the regiments, because of the soldier failing to make his appearance. Even in this Brigade have six month's pay coming and cannot get a dollar of it. It is a most flagrant outrage on most of the poor who compose the rank of the army, as they were promised when—they were promised a bounty of two months pay in advance, which the Government has not fulfilled. Even the "flag" broke," but if we had we could soon get rid of it by a set of hungry land sharks who follow the army from place to place vending all kinds of trash, such as the New York Tribune, Philadelphia Inquirer, &c., at ten cents a piece. The Tribune is a pack of extortioners and liars. They sell a very inferior sort of paper from $1,50 to $2 per pkg, which they retail at 60 cents per quire and 20 cents a loaf, crackers 25 cents, and all other articles in proportion. If we do not get our pay soon, I am afraid that thousands of families will be reduced to beggary and want. This is the general talk in all the regiments that I have been in. We know the kind and liberal people will get tired of contributing to the families while the Government owes them so much of just dues. Our company are in excellent health and have had good success since we left camp Curtin. We receive your paper regularly and find a welcome visitor in camp; it is sought for by all the boys in the company, especially by those of company "A" from close by sending the compliments of the company to our mountain friends, and you shall hear from me soon again. Accept for the present good bye.

The American almanac for 1863 is received and livery gratis at Mr. Benn's who is happy to supply them. Every family should have and keep this book. It is worth having. Comprising much general information of great value; it gives the best prescription for the cure of prevalent diseases that we can get anywhere. Its remedies alone are worth a bushel of dollars. Its medical advice is sometimes equal to the sick the wheats weight in gold. Many of the Medical almanacs are worth their weight, but this is solid metal. Its statistics are made purposely for this work and are therefore correct. Call at Mr. Ayer's almanac and when got.

Annual Address of Gov. Seymour.

ALBANY, Jan. 1, 1863.—Governor Seymour delivered Governor Morgan for the expression of his good wishes, and congratulated him on the able close of his administration.

He said, I have solemnly sworn to support the Constitution of the United States with all its grants, restrictions and limitations, and I shall support it. I have sworn to support the Constitution of the State of New York, with all its rights, and I shall support them.

I am sworn to support the duties of the office of Governor of the State, and, by the aid, they shall be faithfully performed. These Constitutions and laws are meant for the guidence of our conduct and for your protection in office.

The first law recorded for my observance is that declaring that "it shall be the duty of the Governor to maintain and support the sovereinty and jurisdiction of the State." The most strict injunction of the Constitution is, that the Governor shall take care that the laws "are faithfully executed." And, so help me God! they shall be.

I would not dwell, on the present occasion, on our national affairs. "Our Union as a State has been hapily attended by my predecessor—my views on that subject will be laid before the Legislature.

While knowing that his position gave him control over National affairs, (Seymour) yet ventured to trust that at the end of his term of service, the country would be again great, glorious and united as it once was.

The Emancipation Proclamation of the President of the United States.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1st, 1863.—By the President of the United States of America:

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas, On the twenty-second day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, a proclamation was issued by the President of the United States, containing among other things the following, to wit:

"That on the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, all persons held as slaves within any State or designated part of a State, the people whereof shall then be in rebellion against the United States, shall be then, thenceforward and forever free, and the executive government of the United States, including the military and naval authority thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of such persons, and will do no act or acts to repress such persons, or any of them, in any effort they may make for their actual freedom. That the Executive will, on the first day of January aforesaid, by proclamation, designate the States and parts of States, if any in which the people therein, respectively, shall then be in rebellion against the United States, and that any State, and the people thereof, shall, on that day, be, in good faith represented in the Congress of the United States, by members chosen thereto at elections, wherein a majority of the qualified voters of such State shall have participated, shall, in the absence of strong countervailing testimony, be deemed conclusive evidence that such State and the people thereof are not then in rebellion against the United States."

Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, by virtue of the power in me vested as Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, in time of actual armed rebellion against the authority and Government of the United States, and as a fit and necessary war measure for suppressing the said rebellion, do, on this, the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and, in accordance with my purpose so to do, publicly proclaimed for the full period of one hundred days from the day first above mentioned, order and designate as the States and parts of States wherein the people thereof respectively are this day in rebellion against the United States, the following, to wit:

Arkansas, Texas, Louisiana, [except the Parishes of St Bernard, Plaquemines, Jefferson, St James, Ascension, Assumption, Terrebonne, Lafourche, St. Martin and Orleans, including the City of New Orleans,] Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Virginia, [except the forty eight counties designated as West Virginia, and also the counties of Berkley, Accomac, Northampton, Elizabeth City, York, Princess Anne and Norfolk, including the Cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth,] and which excepted parts are for the present left precisely as if the proclamation were not issued.

And by virtue of the power and for the purpose aforesaid, I do order and declare that all persons held as slaves within the said designated States and parts of said States, are and henceforward shall be free, and that the Executive Government of the United States, including the military and naval authorities thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of said persons.

And I hereby enjoin upon the people so declared to be free, to abstain from all violence, unless in necessary self-defence, and I recommend to them that in all cases when allowed, they labor faithfully for reasonable wages. And I further declare and make known, that such persons, of suitable condition, will be received into the armed service of the United States, to garrison forts, positions, stations, and other places, and to man vessels of all sorts in the said service. And upon this act, sincerely believed to be an act of justice, warranted by the Constitution, upon military necessity, I invoke the considerate judgment of mankind, and the gracious favor of Almighty God.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

[L. S.] Done at the city of Washington, this the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-seventh. ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

By the President,
W. H. SEWARD, Sec'y of State.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—The Secretary of War was to-day advised as follows:

CLEVELAND, Jan 2.—The following has just been received by telegraph from Cincinnati, dated MURFREESBORO, Jan. 1.—A terrible battle was fought yesterday.

The latest from the field is up to noon.

The rebel centre had been broken and things looked favorable

The losses are reported to have been enormous.

Stanley, Rousseau and Palmer are wounded, and the rebels Cheatham and Rains are killed.

CATHARTIC PILLS

OPERATE on their peculiar influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action. They remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver and other organs of the body, and by restoring their irregular action to health, correct, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first causes of disease. An extensive trial of their virtues, in Professional Physicians, and Patients, has shown that even in cases of the most desperate character, and where disease had assumed almost incredible virulence, none that could be obtained have been found to withstand their power, when administered in accordance with the directions which accompany the remedy.

Their certificates are published in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named are supplied to furnish free to all inquiring.

Annexed we give DIRECTIONS for their use in the complaints which they have been found to cure.

FOR CONSTIPATION.—Take one or two Pills, or such quantity as to gently move the bowels. Costiveness is frequently the aggravating cause of many, and the cure of one complained is the cure of both. No person can feel well while under a costive habit of body. Relieve it, and health, in most cases, will be restored.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, which is sometimes the cause of Constipation, and always uncomfortable, take small doses—from one to four—to stimulate the stomach and liver into healthy action. They will do it, and a desirable, healthful, and permanent state of digestion will rapidly discover. When it has come, don't expect what cured you.

For a FOUL STOMACH, or if, for [illegible] of the bowels, which produces general depression of the spirits and bad health, take from four to eight Pills 2 first, and smaller doses afterwards, until activity and strength is restored to the bowels.

FOR NEURALGIA, SICK HEADACHE, NAUSEA, Pain in the Stomach, Bad Breath, or Sick, take from four to eight pills on going to bed. If they do not operate sufficiently, take more the next day until they do. These complaints will be surely cured from the system. Don't wear them, and their kindred disorders because your stomach is sick.

FOR SUPPRESSED, IRREGULAR, or Painful Menses in any class, take the Pills freely, and bowels, so as to keep the bowels open. The emptions will generally soon be at an end, and disappear. Many robust ladies have been healed up by taking a few doses of these Pills, and some disgusting diseases which seemed to saturate the whole system, have completely yielded to their influence, leaving the sufferer in perfect health. "Patients" your duty to society, friends that you should gracefully commend around the world covered with sunshine, blooming cheeks, roses, and all or any of the various diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing.

To PURIFY THE BLOOD, there is no remedy for ever discovered. They should be taken freely, and frequently, and the impurities which now vex the world of carnality disease will be expelled from the system like chaff before the wind. In fact in giving they do as much good in preventing sickness, as in the remarkable cures which their use is making everywhere.

LIVER COMPLAINT, JAUNDICE, and all the different forms arising from some derangement of the digestive organs, or obstruction of the liver. Torpidity and congestion vitiate the bile and render it unfit for digestion. This is disastrous to the health, and the constitution is frequently undermined by no other cause. Indigestion is the consequence. Obstruction of the duct which empties the bile into the stomach causes the bile to regurgitate into the blood. This produces Jaundice, with a long and dangerous train of evils. Costiveness, or alternate costiveness and diarrhœa, sometimes Feverish symptoms, languor, low spirits, weariness, restlessness, and melancholy, with sometimes inability to sleep, and sometimes great drowsiness; sometimes there is severe pain in the side, the skin and the white of the eyes become greenish colour, the stomach acids, the bowels sore to the touch, the whole system irritable, with a tendency to fever, which may turn to bilious fever, bilious colic, bilious diarrhœa, dysentery, &c. A medium dose of three or four Pills taken at night, followed by four or five in the morning, and repeated a few days, will remove the cause of all these troubles. It is wished to notice such pains when you can cure them for 25 cents.

RHEUMATISM, GOUT, and all Inflammatory Diseases are rapidly cured by the purifying effects of these Pills upon the blood and the stimulus which they afford to the vital principle of Life. For these and all kindred complaints they should be taken in mild doses, to move the bowels gently, not freely.

AGUE DISEASE PILLS, this is both agreeable and useful. No Pill can be made more pleasant to take and certainly none has been made more effectual to the purpose for which a similar pill is employed.
