

Letter from a Disbanded Volunteer.

From the New York Mercury. NAYSANAL HOTEL, Washington, March 5, Eddyturn N. Y. Sundry Mercury: The hull bill of the Kongresshinal Sisseros and Demosthenesazes having returned to the buzzons of their wives and families, my steamed friend, the Absolute Abe, now rules the roast alone. He ken say with the late Robinson Crawso of Jewin Fernando:

"I'm monnick of all I curvey. My right thar is none to dispute; From the centr, all round to the see, I ken seze and inprison and slaut."

But thars no caws for alarm, notwithstanding the loud crows of the Aberlshinists. The Nayshin is not goin to giv up the gost bekae its Constiooshin is brokin. Atratin the First is no Nero. He wouldnt hurt a fly. Its is troo that the Kousscripshin Act, the Bank and Lone Acts, the suspenshin of the Heavest Corpus Act, the Idamity Act, and cetera, make a reglar Seizer of him, but his Majesty—I mean his Eggoelency—is not the man to take advantage of the late ginerat and ginuous surrender of the rights of the States and the people. His antycedents is not of an aristocratrick karrieker. Let us glanst at him for a moment.

Born of tall but modest parients in Kaintucky, he took, at an airly peruyd of his career to the woods, whar he slung a nasty ax and malleddrales with a wunderful assidoody. Emergin thence he studied navaighshin on board a flat bote of the largest kless, making hisself thurrowly akwainted with the theory of the currents and pershin in the poles. Naturally inkind to push ahead—which is allus the sole instink of grate minds—he abandoned the watery elemint and took to the bar, and as he grew in wisdom and statur, gradually arose to emynence. Finerly that profound statesman, the Honabul Horace Greeley of Chippaquaw, diskivered that my Illustrious Friend was wanted, at the head of the Government, and bein put before the people, they rode him on a rale inter the Preesidenshil Cheer. Kwalfified alike by natur and eddicashin to kontrol the destines of the most Enlightened Nayshin on the face of the Airth, Kongress dun perfectly right in conferin on him official power, in this tremenjusrism. Pressing cases rockwires desprit remedeas—and hens the necessita for makin Abrahm cock of the walk, and plain the Sword, the Purce and the Press at his disposhal.

I am awar that sertin fackshus persons pretends not to see the propriety of strong measures agin States at isent in rebellyun; but who knows how sune they may be in rebellyun? A stych in time saves nyne, and the safest way to prevent peopel from bein sedishous is to sow thar monthes up the momunt they begin to grumbul. Libty of Speech and Libty of the Press is all very well when the Republic is not in dangur, but when it is of Oriturs and Eddyturn will pitch inter the Administration, in course they must eggspert to be shet up. Is it a time, I ax, to pertest agin the Constiooshun bein suspended when the Union itself is hanging by its lids? Away with sech Old Foggy thortis, unworthy of the Age of Progress! Why the fite lasts let us cubnit magnanimously to the Hyer Law.

Besides, as I hev expectedly said on former occasions, the Moddern Fathur of his Kuntry is of myld and motherly natur, and o'reflowin with the milk of human kyndness from his toe-nales to his top-not. Altho he has a jiant's power he is the last man on the phootstool to use it like a jiant. Emymbdy who looks back at his precedens durrin the last two yeres will admit that. But like sally-bratd Blunderbore who went to sleep and had hys Seven Legged boots stolen by an owldasun dwarf, thars sum reason to fear that he'll be robbid of his perogatyves by a Cabynet thats rather too much inclined to ride ruff-shod over the peopel. I don't sea for my part what he wants with Constiooshunal Advisers under the suck-emstances. Ef the Constiooshin is suspended why shouldn't the Constiooshunal Advisers be cuspeded too?

Wun thing I ken say to my, fellow kuntryman in this momentous epock of the Nayshin's Hystory. Our Chief shal not suffer for want of paytriotic counsel. Fortnityly I hev not lost his confidens and affekshin. He believes in me as much as I believe in hym. "D. V." ses he to me yesturday at he was sygnin bills at the Kapitol, "will you confirm to stand by me under these no respensibilities?" "Will a duck swim?" I replid—"Will a demagog lye? Will a sutler cheat?" "Will a sunflower turn to her god when he rose?"

He was satisfied, and went on signin with a lively air outill Kongress adjourned sypure etc. The Scmit in extree seeshin, is grindin out extree Bragadeur and Major Gimirals, with extraordinary despatch. I spose, however, as it will take em a week or ten days to put the hull barch thro the mill. Sum of the candydates dont no gunpowder from onion seed, nor a howitzer from a homminy mortar; but reckon they'll all fall thro. A military offisr from New York told me tuther day, that a fresh made Bragadeur had applied to him for a rebirbal sargen to teach him the words of cummand and how to dror up his corpse in order of battle. Ef enny boddly doubts this fack I ken furnish the name of the epyletted ignoramus. He hales from a sertin commershal emporium that you are tolably well akwainted with. Hopin I am to hear of unexpected victories, and trustin that Providence will pay no attenshin to the Seesch Fast ordered by that retched Farisee, Jeff Davis, I remain Yours allus, A DISBANDED VOLUNTEER.

JEFFERSON ON ARBITRARY ARRESTS.—In the draft of instruction for the Virginia delegates to the Revolutionary Congress, drawn up by Thomas Jefferson, we find, in his detail of guidance, his indignation thus vigorously expressed: "The wretched criminal, if he happens to have offended on the American side, stripped of his privilege of trial by peers of his vicinity, removed from the place where alone full evidence could be obtained, without money, without counsel, without friends, without exculpatory proof, is tried before judges predetermined to condemn. The cowards who would suffer a countryman to be torn from their society, in order to be thus offered a sacrifice to parliamentary tyranny, would merit that everlasting infamy now fixed on the authors of the act."

ALSO CABINET FURNITURE of every description and of latest STYLES, WITH PRICES TO SUIT THE Tastes of all. Thankful for past favors, he respectfully solicits a liberal share of public patronage. Clinton Street, Johnstown Cambria Co. Pa. November 20th, 1861. 4y.

Circular from the Cash Store. The subscriber would respectfully announce to the public that he has just returned from the East with his stock of FALL AND WINTER GOODS, which will sell, as usual, at a very small advance on cost, FOR CASH ONLY. He desires to give a price list owing to the daily fluctuations in the market. His stock is the heaviest and most complete ever brought to the place, and has been purchased at the very lowest market prices, will be sold at prices which will make the interest of cash buyers to call and examine his stock and be convinced that he can and does sell a little cheaper than any credit establishment. He would call particular attention to his large stock of DRY GOODS, embracing the latest and MOST DESIRABLE STYLES OF LADIES' DRESS GOODS to be found in the Eastern market. A full assortment of fancy and plain Flannels and Shirtings, large and excellent supply of Laces and Muslins, dozens of patterns of Ladies' and Gent's Gloves, all styles of Hosiery, with the most complete selection of Shawls, Nubias, Opera Hoods, Ladies' Patent Veils, and a tremendous pile of Ausing, Kelly & Co.'s Patent Hoop Skirts, ranging from 25 to fifty springs, which will be sold at 25 per cent. under present market price. Our stock of GROCERIES is complete, and selling a few cents below other establishments.—Our Syrups range from 70 cents per gallon. We would invite particular attention to our large stock of Government Coffee, bought here at the very heavy advance, which we sell at 25 cents per lb. It is far superior to any of the substitutes lately invented. We have also heavy stock of TEAS, ranging in price from 90 cents per pound upwards. Our stock of CHINA, GLASS & EARTH WARE is the largest, most varied and best ever offered to the people of this section. It is really beautiful. An examination of our "Show Window" must convince all who stop to view it that we are not "padding" our wares. The China Ware embraces Tea Sets ranging in price from $12 to $25. Flower Vases, Mugs and other ornaments. The Glass Ware embraces everything in every style of manufacture. Owing to the late advance we cannot now sell the celebrated Wedgewood Iron Stone Tea Sets for less than $4.75 per set, which is 15% below the selling price elsewhere. I am now fully convinced that the CASE SYSTEM is the best for both seller and buyer, enabling me to sell cheaper, without loss, and giving my customers a better article, and more of it, for the same money, than they get at any other establishment. But argument on this point is superfluous. The reason why I can sell cheaper than credit establishments must be apparent to all, and that I do sell cheaper I can convince all who give me a call. A full stock of boots and shoes. All Wool, Ingrain, List, Rag and Hoop carpets. Table and floor oil cloth, window shades, &c., &c. Altoona, Dec. 17, 1862. [Seal]
