

Traitorous Words—A significant Test.

In one of the towns of Connecticut, just previous to our State election, several persons were discussing the measures and candidates of parties. The Republicans, one of whom was the Town Clerk, were bitter against Governor Seymour, calling him a traitor and a friend of the South, asserting that he was in favor of the plan of the rebellion, which was that the people of the South should govern themselves independently of the North.

"Well," said a Democrat, "do you oppose sentiments of that kind?" "We do," replied the town clerk; "no one except a traitor will utter sentiments of that character." "Let me read them here, word for word; when correctly reported, you may not feel so bitterly hostile to the words uttered: they are as follows."

"Any people, anywhere, being inclined and having the power, have the right to rise up and shake off the existing government and form a new one that suits them better."

"It is rank treason," said one of the Republicans. "It is Tom Seymour capriciousness," said another, "and the man who uttered those detestable words ought to be confined in Fort Lafayette, and be fed on bread and water during the war. He is a traitor."

The Democrat laughed, and quietly said, "Gentlemen, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, the President of the United States uttered those words."

"It's a lie—Tom Seymour is the traitor!" exclaimed the Republican.

"No, gentlemen," coolly replied the Democrat. "Abraham Lincoln is the author of those words you now pronounce as traitorous language. He uttered them in a speech delivered in the House of Representatives, in Washington, on the 12th day of January, 1848, on a question of a reference of certain portions of the President's Message. The speech is reported, officially, in the 'Congressional Globe,' and you may find it on the 94th page of the Appendix, among the debates of the first session of the 30th Congress."

The Republicans denied it, and a bet of ten dollars was finally made that the words were not so reported in the Globe, in one of President Lincoln's speeches. The bet was decided in favor of the Democrat on the 21st inst., on an inspection of the bound volume of the Globe, in the State Library at Hartford, containing the speech of President Lincoln, and the words we have quoted.

What a commentary upon the senseless parrot-cry of "traitor," uttered by fanatics who are generally quite ignorant of the meaning and bearing of the epithets they so frequently use.—Hartford Times.

CARPETING AND OIL CLOTHS in great variety, at the lowest prices.

LOOK—My stock of GROCERIES are selling a few cents below my regular price, who can't see it? The cash system Syrup still range from 40 to 70 cts per gallon. BEHOLD—Our TEAS, range from the low price of 60 cents per pound upwards.

Our would-be competitors stand aghast when they know we have the heaviest and best assorted stock of CROCKERY, CHINA, GLASS & DELPH WARE to be found in any establishment between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, and that we sell cheaper than they can buy. "They are superb," is the common exclamation on examining our china Tea Sets, ranging in price from $12 to $20, which is lower than they can be purchased in Pittsburgh. We are selling to people from all the surrounding counties, because we keep a large stock from which to select, and sell cheap. One examination will suffice to convince any one that we are not puffing our goods.

All kinds of Ornamental Flower Vases, Mugs, Glassware, and in fact all kinds of crockery ever imagined, we keep on hand. We are still selling the Wedgwood Iron Stone Sets for $5.00, which is 25 cents cheaper than they can be bought for in Philadelphia or Pittsburgh retail market.

"I can't see how it is done?" is the query. Well, we will tell you the secret—it is CASH ONLY. By this means I am enabled to increase my business and stock steadily, while other establishments are glad to decrease theirs. We are not compelled to add large profits to make up for losses by bad debts, and we save by paying cash for goods instead of buying on time and paying a higher figure.

FATHERS AND MOTHERS, Our stock of Children's Carriages and Coaches, is just the thing for those who value the health of their children more than the small amount we charge for them. Those who use a carriage once will never go back to the old-fashioned way of dragging children around in their arms. Call and see our stock of Infant Carriages and Cabs.
