Most of their know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes imsely to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffer ing from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them. J. NEWTON BROWN. Philad'a, June 23, 1861.

The subscriber would respectfully an nounce to the public that he has returned from the East with his large and well assorted stock of goods, bought at the lowest cash prices, which he will dispose of at his usual small advance. OUR MOTTO .- " The nimble dime bet ter than the slow dellar." Come one, come all, and be convinced that the cash system is to your advantage, and you will go away with the resolve that my establishment is the place to save money, No charge for showing goods. Call and ex-

I would respectfully invite your attention to my well selected assortment of LADIES' AND MISSES' DRY GOODS containing all the latest and most desirable styles of dress to be found in the Eastern Market, among which may be had Mozambiques, Celliques, Killarnay Checks, Union Checks, Shepherd's Plads, Lineu Lustres, Silk Poplins, a full and complete stock of Fancy and Plain Flannels and Shirtings, Linen, Muslin, Ladies' and Gentlemen's Gloves and Hosiery, and a tremendous stock of Austin Kelly & Ce.'s Patent Hoop Skirts. from four to fifty springs, which I can sell at Twenty-five Per Cent. below Philadelphia

Prices. ALSO, a great variety of CLOAKING CLOTHS, ranging in price from 75 cts. to $2,25 per yard, and the largest assortment of Cassimeres, Sattinetts, Tweeds, Jeans, etc., that is to be found in the country, CARPETING AND OIL CLOTHS in great variety, at the lowest prices.

LOOK.—My stock of GROCERIES are vals, who " Can't see it." The cash system Syrups still range from 40 to 70 cts per gallon. Government Coffee, bought before the late heavy advances, I am selling at 22 cents per lb. It is superior to all the newfangled substitutes now selling.

BEHOLD .- Our TEAS, range from the ow price of 60 cents per pound upwards.

EXCELSIOR. Our would-be competitors stand aghast when they know we have the heaviest and best assorted stock of

CROCKERY, CHINA, GLASS & DELPH WARE to be found in any establishment between Philadelphia and Pittsburg, and that we ell cheaper than they can buy. " They are superb," is the common exclamation on examining our china Tea Sets, ranging in price from $12 to $20, which is lower than they can be purchased in Pittsburg. We ere selling to people from all the surround ng counties, because we keep a large stock om which to select, and sell cheap. One examination will suffice to convince any one that we are not puffing our goods.

All kinds of Ornamental Flower Vases, Mugs, Glassware, and in fact all kinds of rockery ever imagined, we keep on hand. We are still selling the Wedgewood Iron Stone Sets for $5,00, which is 25 cents cheaper than they can be bought for is Philadelphia or Pittsburg retail market.

"I can't see how it is done?" is the mery. Well, we will tell you the secrett is CASH ONLY. By this means I am enabled to increase my business and stock steadily, while other establishments are glad to decrease theirs. We are not compelled to add large profits to make up for losses by had debts, and we save by paying cash for goods instead of buying on time and paying a higher figure.

FATHERS AND MOTHERS, Our stock of Children's Carriages and Coaches, is just the thing for those who value the health of their children more than the small amount we charge for them. Those who use a carriage once will never go back to the old-fashioned way of dragging children around in their arms. Call and see our stock of Infant Carriages and Cabs. WHEELER AND WILSON'S SEWING
