DEMOCRAT AND SERTRUEL.

freedom ; no, not for negro freedom, even: | Those Nine Hundred Thousand. for though we tear down this fair fabric, we make no negro free, but for a vain and mad attempt at negro freedom. That is the poor, the abortive, the absurd, the wicked purpose for which we are expected to sacrifice our sacred inheritance.

God forbid it. Here on this consecrated spot of earth, where the foundations were laid of the best Government the world ever saw, let us renew our vows to the Union and send salutations to our brethren. Talk not of secession-go not rashly out of the Union-dim no star of our glorious flag -give us time to place ourselves right in respect to your "peculiar institution," and to roll back the cloud that now obscures, for the moments, our devotion to the Union as it is. Speak thus to the Southren States, and follow our words In '64 they'll be no more and white men by fitting deeds, and Pennsylvania can stop secession or cure it if it occurs, We can win back any State that may stray off, if only we can prove our own loyalty to the Constitution and Union as our fathers formed them.

And would it not be a proud page in the history of Pennsylvania that should record the rescue of the American Union from impending ruin, by prompt, generous, united action of the people of Pennsylvania ? That great glory may be ours Let us grasp it ere it be forever too late

THE CITY SURRENDERED, ON THE FOURTH OF JULY.

The following dispatch was received at headquarters, at noon to-day :

PHILADELPHIA, July 7. "We have just received reliable intelligence that Vicksburg is taken."

SECOND DISPATCH.

CAIRO, July 7 .- The dispatch boat has just arrived here from Vicksburg.

She left at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning; the passengers announce that Gen. Pemberton sent in a flag of truce on the morning of the fourth of July, and offered to surrender if his men were allowed to march out.

Gen. Grant is reported to to have replied that no man should leave except as a prisoner of war.
