State Editorial Convention.

ADJOURNED MEETING.

Pursuant to the resolution adopted at the last meeting, the Convention assembled at the Merchants' Hotel, at 3 o'clock, on Tuesday, Mr. George Sanderson, President, in the chair.

On motion, Henry Ward and J. A. Fulton were appointed permanent Secretaries. The following papers were presented: Lancaster Intelligencer, Hon. George Sanderson; Johnstown Democrat, James Campbell; Bedford Gazette, B. F. Meyers; Myersburg Messenger, R. W. Jones; Clearfield Republican, G. B. Goodlander; Pennsylvania Argus, J. M. Laird; Lebanon Advertiser, W. M. Breslin; Silver Grove Times, Franklin Merrick; Democrat and Sentinel, Ebensburg, Jas. S. Todd; Patriot and Union, Henry Ward; Mentor, Kittanning, J. Alex. Fulton; Sullivan Co. Democrat, Michael Weigert; Centre Democrat, Fred. Kortz; Bellefonte Republican, P. G. Meek; McKean County Democrat, J. B. Platt; Democratic Standard, N. C. Barclay; Reading Adler, Chas. Lessler; Pittsburgh Post, J. P. Barr; Fulton Democrat, H. G. Smith; Easton Sentinel, D. H. Newman; Standard Mercury, F. W. Grayson; Evening Journal, Chas. N. Pine.

Messrs. Fulton and Myers were appointed a committee on resolutions. The following gentlemen were named to constitute a Permanent Executive Committee, under a previous resolution: Messrs. Barr, Sanderson, Jones, Ward, Boeler, Neumann and Fulton.

After some discussion, the Convention adjourned, to meet at seven o'clock. EVENING SESSION.—The Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which were adopted: Whereas, The freedom of speech and of the press has ever been a cherished right, founded as well in reason as in law, and guaranteed to us by the Constitution of the United States as well as the Constitution of Pennsylvania...

Resolved, That freedom of speech and of the press is as necessary to the perpetuity of liberty as the freedom of the ballot box; and that those who assail the rights of the former would not hesitate to strike down the latter, and are equally the enemies of the people.

Resolved, That we emphatically denounce every attempt to interfere with or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press, whether it be by the unlawful arrest and imprisonment of public speakers and editors, or by suppressing newspapers by either mob violence or pretended civil or military authority.

Resolved, That inasmuch as this liberty interests every citizen, and its denial, abridgement or distinction may effect him personally, we vindicate their high privilege in this behalf; and here we cannot but express our astonishment that Republican editors have not only stood by and seen this dearest of American rights violated, but have actually approved and endorsed the violation.

Resolved, That let others do as they may, for ourselves we intend to stand up for our rights as American freemen; that we will never yield them, but will assert and maintain them by our voices, by our votes, and, if need be, by our lives.

Resolved, That the so-called rulers of the American people are but their agents; and to deny the right of the principles to direct, control or criticize the acts of their agents, is as repugnant to the principles of law as of common sense.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the President of the Convention to prepare and publish an address to the people of Pennsylvania on this important subject.

J. ALEXANDER FULTON, } Com. R. W. JONES, } B. F. MYERS, }

The Chairman of the State Central Committee having been introduced, some discussion took place upon the best mode of circulating political intelligence through the press of the State, and the proper disposition of party patronage, in which Messrs. Barr, Jones, Neumann, Grayson, Ward, Kessler, Fulton, and others, participated. Messrs. Fulton, Grayson and Meylert, were appointed to prepare an address pursuant to the resolution above passed. Mr. Jones offered the following, which was passed:

Resolved, That the interests of the Democratic press of the State demand a thorough and effective organization; that an occasional friendly interchange of opinion and sentiment, by its representatives, will give it harmony and strength; that, to this end, the Executive Committee be and is hereby instructed to appoint a time and place, at least once a year, for a meeting of the Editorial Convention.

The Convention adjourned. GEO. SANDERSON, President. HENRY WARD, } Secretaries. J. A. FULTON, }

Western Correspondence.

MALTOON, Illinois, Aug. 3, 1863.

[From the N. Y. Freeman's Journal.]

There was a meeting of from eight to ten thousand men, in arms, held last Saturday at Van Doren's farm near Maltoon, in this State. The meeting was held to protest against illegal arrests, the conscription, and other arbitrary measures of the Government. This meeting was, in my opinion, the most significant opposition to the Government policy which was displayed since the war began.

There are 200,000 men in Southern Illinois, armed and sworn not to be conscripted. It is not with them like your New York mob. They have arms and ammunition plenty, are under officers who saw service, and have their woods and prairies to retire to in case of invasion.

This is why the draft is postponed in Illinois. This is also why Gen. John A. Logan, a renegade Democrat of Indiana descent, who began by being a Secessionist, but is now thanks to 8,000 a year, an Abolitionist. Gens. McClelland, Oglesby and other cotton stealers, are now at home in Illinois, striving to speech down the hostile attitude of the Shakers; but they can't succeed. The people of lower Illinois, called "Egypt," are mostly Southern immigrants, and can never be persuaded to fight for negro emancipation.

Hence a collision between the people and the Government is inevitable, and I verily believe the people will be the victors; for every man and boy are armed, and it is in vain to attempt to exterminate these hardy people. Why don't the papers speak of this movement? Because they are paid by the Government to keep silent, and they do not wish the extent of the disaffection to them should be known.

Had I space I could send you other remarkable facts regarding this armed movement in Illinois and Indiana; but let this much suffice for the present from Yours truly, SEPARATOR.

COPPERHEAD WHISKY.—The newest discovery—the most powerful remedy in the world. It is no patent humbug. What is claimed for this over all other whiskeys or medicines—the compound parts of which are alcohol—is that it is made in copper stills, by a new process of distillation, rendering it free from fusil oil and all other poisonous or unhealthy ingredients. We have the highest medical authority for saying it will cure permanently the following diseases: It will cement our glorious old Union now and forever; It will restore our glorious old Constitution; It will restore the habeas corpus and prevent arbitrary arrests; It will give freedom of speech and of the press to future generations; It will release every American citizen from oppression and bastilles; It will prevent New England fanatics from owning and controlling all America; It will bring back the fire-breathers of the South to their first love—the Union and constitutional liberty; It will make an Abolitionist think a white man is as good as a nigger; It will prevent New England squatters from enslaving the white men of Pennsylvania; It will enable insolvent shoe merchants from the State of Maine to pay their old debts in "Scrip"; It will prevent soulless corporations from paying their workmen 85 cents for one dollar; It will make "Scrip" a legal tender in Cambria and adjoining counties for shoe bills of years' standing; It will prevent Jacobin editors from swearing to handwriting they never saw; It will prevent managers of corporations from trying to defraud poor women out of their property; It will prevent any interference with the citizen's rights at the ballot-box in Penna. this fall; It will prevent "truly loyal leaguers" from swearing to destroy the lives, liberties, and property of their less favored neighbors; It will enable Andy Curtin to sign the bill abolishing "Scrip," or store orders; It will enable a High Burgess to prevent the Court from granting licenses;

A wine glass full taken three times a day, before meals, will enable every man to love his neighbor as he loves himself; Our enterprising friend Masrenson, at the Copperhead Corner, has the article for sale. It is manufactured in old Westmoreland and sold at One Dollar a Bottle or ten cents a smile.—Johnstown Democrat.

Dreadful Calamity.

ALBANY, August 17th.—Information reached here this afternoon, of the destruction by fire of Hunt's shoddy mill, at Cohoes, and the burning to death of fifteen female operatives. The flames spread with fearful rapidity, and the only means of escape left to the girls were the windows. Some were so terror-stricken, that they abandoned themselves to their fate and perished in the building. Others fell from the windows into the fire below, and many were badly injured by jumping to the ground. Twenty-five are missing, and fifteen are reported burned to death.

787 PRIZES DRAWN. Following, will be found an abstract list of the "lucky" ones from this county, whose names, with many others, were revolved in the wheel of human destiny. The drawing took place in the Court House, in Huntingdon. Quite a number from this County were present; and some little anxiety was manifested. The whole transaction was conducted orderly and with the most apparent fairness.
