Democrat and Sentinel.

J. S. TODD, Editor & Publisher.

Democratic Ticket.

Governor, GEO, W. WOODWARD of Luzerne Co.

Judge of the Supreme Court, WALTER H. LOWRIE, of Allegheny Co. James Myers, do

Assembly, CYRUS L. PERSHING, of Johnstown.

Register and Recorder, JAMES GRIFFIN, of Johnstown.

Treasurer, ISAAC WIKE, of Wilmore.

Commissioner. E. GLASS, of Ebensburg.

Coroner. WM. FLATTERY, of Johnstown.

Auditor. F. P. TIERNEY, of Cambria Tp. Poor House Director,

GEO. M'CULLOUGH. of Munster Tp.

Democrats Attend.

The Democracy of Washington town- Jas. F. Campbell, Jas. S. Todd, ship will have a grand rally at Hemlock, M. Douglass, at the house of John Wilkins on Saturday, John Porter, P. M. Messrs, Potts, Pershing, Noon, William Sechler, Patrick Bracken, Fenlon, and other speakers will be pres- John E. Scanlan, J. A. Shoemaker,

MANY DEMOCRATS. Sept, 9, 1863

Trenfendous Gathering of the People!!!

The Democracy of Little Cambria | meeting.

2000 of the " Frosty Sons of Thunder" Assembled on the Mountain!

John Fenlon, Esq., in the chair.

PATRIOTIC SPEECHES AND

RESOLUTIONS.

Enthusiasm of the People-Their Determination to Vote for Woodward, and Stand by the Principles of the Democratic Faith.

Pursuant to a published call, the Democratic voters of Cambria assembled in vast numbers in front of the Public Bail- the State of the country, passed the for its fate, we claim, and will exercise, dings in this place, on yesterday afternoon, monwealth on the 13th day of April last, and urge in becoming terms upon the peofor the purpose of exchanging free senti- and in addition thereto, and as a further ple, and upon the constituted authorities, ments; and like the three brave. Swiss of expression of our views up a public whatever measures will, in our judgment, Uri and Underwalden, to join lands and affairs, do resolve as follows; . swear for the defence of our liberties.— Resolved, That we again renew our whole nation and Union together, under yows of fidelity to the Constitution of our Federal Government. Never before were the honest intentions the United States, the great charter for Resolved, That when this war began of a free-horn people so manifestly ex- which our fathers struggled and fought, had the solemn pledge of the federal adhibited. This, indeed, is a harbinger of and which was established, as they them | ministration and of the party that placed through life may be strewn with flowers. success. It was upon the eternal bills of selves expressed, "to form a perfect it in power, as expressed in the resolution the idea of that grand and imperial city, secure the blessing of liberty to ourselves or subjugation or for the purpose of overwhich was to be the asylum of oppressed and posterity." pilgrims from every clime. It was upon the mountains of Switzerland that a few have for public liberty and private right, ey of the Constitution and to preserve the wish to attend. cantons of brave men, breathing the air as without it we can have no hope of Union, with the dignity, equality and of freedom, hurled the tyrant Gesler from protection from bloodshed, spoilation and rights of the several States unimpaired; his throne, and maintained their indi- anarchy-the man who sneers at "the and that as soon as these objects are nependence against the pumpered birelings. Constitution as it is " proves himself to complished the war ought to cease." But of a military despotism. It is from the triotism, and any officer of the State or the influence of a small faction of ultramountains of Cambria, the banks of the Federal Government who swears to sup- Abolitionists, always opposed to the Union Susquehanna and the valleys of Pennsyl- port the Constitution, and afterwards, and without the consent of the great mass frame dwelling house, belonging to D. C. yaria, that a voice strong and potent, with that oath on his conscience, willfully of the people, has totally changed its Gibboney, of Duncansville, was destroyed must arise, which on the second Tuesday violates it, is wholly unworthy of public ground, avowing and proclaiming its purof October, shall hard from power, the who like Lucifer, stuffed with pride and the Speaker's stand, M. Hasson, Esq., had prompted it.

him, made an appropriate opening of the

P. S. Noon submitted the following or-

PRESIDENT. JOHN FENLON, Esq.

VICE PRESIDENTS. Chas. M'Manamy, Allegheny Township. George Emfield, Blacklick Township. Patrick Farren, Cambria Borough. John Flick, Carroll Township. Benjamin Wertner, Carroltown Borough: Frances Glosser, Chest Township. Daniel Litzinger, Chest Springs, Daniel McDonald, Cambria City. Michael Durbin, Clearfield Township. David Farner, Conemaugh Township. Christ Biffinger, Conemaugh Boro. 1 Wd. John Cox, Esq. " 2d John Buck, Ebensburg Borough. M. J. Smith, Gallizin. John Singer, Jackson Township. P. Fredericks, Johnstown 1st Ward. John Crouse, 2d Michael Woods, 3d4th George Kuntz, 5th Adam Kuntz, Francis O'Friel, Lortte. James McCay, Millville. Edmond Farren, Munster. George Orris, Richland. George Pringle, Summerhill James Riffel, Summitville. Jacob Johnston, Susquehanna. John Coony, Taylor. Paul George, Washington. George Walters, White. Patrick McDunn, Wilmore. George Gates, Yoder.

SECRETARIES.

William Murray, Croyle.

the 19th day of September, at 3 o'clock E. R. Donnegan, John F. Barns Esq. Casper Easly, Jas. A. Kittell.

> A committee of five, composed of Messrs, P. Collins, Jas. Potts, M. M. Adams, Wm. Murray, of Summerhill, and F. Bearer, were appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the argumentative and practical speech.

Geo. Northrop, Esq., of Philadelphia, was next introduced. He spoke long thy with the present gigantic rebellion, or and elequently, dealing roughly with this with traitors in arms against the Gov-Administration.

Mr. Northrop was followed by our noble Senator, Hon. Wm. A. Wallace, of Clearfield, after which the neeting adjourned one hour for supper.

called to order, and the committee on sands of Democratic citizens, who were by a young Miss from Bedford, a most Judge of the Supreme Court. It speaks before the public at this time, on resolutions reported the following:-

PEEAMBLE.

tation embodies the only guarantees we but to defend and maintain the Suprema-

Resolved, That among the rights which has greatly allayed our just hope of peace. cringing sycophants of that old lantern- the Constitution provides to every citizen, Resolved, That we adopt the sentijawed monkey who sits gibbering and is that of being secure in his life, liberty ments of the resolution of the Democratic water and other conveniences, but little or joking in the chair of Washington. The and property, so that he cannot be de- Convention of Northampton county, no effort could be made to subdue them. day of our country's salvation is at hand prived of either without due process of calling upon the Legislature to repeal the and the people in their power and majes- and jury of his neighbors, with witnesses have been engaged in proscribing men for ty, will yet arise and show in unmistakea- to confront him and counsel to defend the exercise of their political opinions, or major part of their household effects. ble terms, their determination to be free, him. This is so just in itself, so neces- excluding from the institutions and puband to chastise the unfaithful servants, sary to the happiness of the people for lic conveyances under their control, the pumpered with self-concit, claim homage stitution, and in all the State Constitution and this laudable effort in behalf of conof their true and legitimate rovereigns, the tions, that any person who can misunder- stitutional freedom.

arose and stated to the audiance, how the alarm and deep indignation that some of character she has lost by the base subvery pertinently spake of the causes which dent of the United States a power hitherto the unconstitutional acts of the Federal thanking the people for the honor done pression of their honest opinion on public purity of character and pre-eminent abilionly presumed to exercise this power himall over the land.

Resolved, That among the numerous of the people. officers to whom the President has given Resolved, That the ticket nominated this terrible power above the laws and with great unanimity, by the last County above the people, there must, in the na- Convention, merits, and will receive our ture of things, be a proportion who are united and enthusiastic support. In and his election impossible." totally incapable of wielding it either hon- these times of peril to the liberties beestly or wisely-low politificians filled with | queathed to us by revolutionary ancestors, partisan rancor, knaves who do not care straggles from the old Democratic camp. trampling it under foot; and therefore we lover of our free institutions. are not surprised to learn that the worthiest men have been torn from their families, Judges knocked down on the bench, ministers of the Gospels imprisoned in loathesome dungeons, and respectable women treated with a brutality cal style. which it would be indiscreet even to mention-and all this, in many cases, without a pretence that the victims were guilty even of a political offence, much less of any crime against the laws.

Resolved, That free Government gannot exist without a free press, and the Constitution of this State, as well as that of the United States, has declared that it shall be free. Those persons, therefore, in office or out of office, who attempt to suppress books or newspapers by violence are the enemies of this government and should be themselves suppressed.

Resolved. That we heartily thank the lion-hearted Domocraey of Ohio for the manly vindication they have given to the Constitution against the great crime committed upon it in the arrest and deportation of Clement Vallandigham and we assure them of our cordial sympathy in the great struggle they are making for the delicious fruit, from a single tree. their undoubted rights.

Resolved, That the plain duty of the Chief Magistrate of this Commonwealth requires him to use every power the law has placed in his hand to protect the State and the people from lawless outrages, come from what quarter they may, and no man is fit to be Governor of this State who will consent to hold his own liberties and let the people hold theirs at the mere will of the Federal Executive.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Pennsylvania has ever been true to the cause of the Union. It was in the name, and Hon. Hiester Clymer, of Berks Co., for the sake of the Union, that our party intimation that the Democratic party en- burg. tertains now, or ever has entertained, or ever can enterfain, the slightest sympaerament, or would ever consent to peace live in big white houses, the men wear such a bait. upon any terms involving a dismemberment of the Union, as utterly unjust : and in proof of this, we point with evident exultation to the lavish contributions to the in bags." war in blood and treasure, heretofore and After supper the meeting was again now being made by the hundreds of thouamong the first to fly to the rescue of the Union, and peril their lives in its defence.

Resolved. That as the true friends of That we approve the resolutions, upon the Union, and feeling a profound anxiety House of Representatives of this Com- the right to consider, discuss, ascertain be most likely to please and keep the throwing or interfering with the rights or Resolved, That inasmuch as the Consti- established institutions of those States; be deficient in the first element of pa- the federal administration, acting under and entertaining. pose to be wholly different, and thus it

law, and a fair trial by a competent judge charters of all corporations that shall

Governor, with peculiar pleasure, his fested. Resolved, That we heard with intense election will restore to Pennsylvania the wholly unknown in America and never Administration, and by the shameless chair. If ascended the stand, and after power to arrest free citizens for the ex- we recognize a tried statesman, whose world does move.

affairs: and that the President has not ty, will adorn the executive chair. Resolved, That the nomination of Hor. self with the moderation and mercy which Walter H. Lowrie, for Judge of the

his own nature might prompt, but has Supreme Court was one eminently "fit to ganization, which was unanimously agreed delegated it to many subordinates, and be made." Chief Justice Lowrie has His corpse was interred in Lloyd's Cemthey again to others in every part of the ever maintained the character of an able, etry country, until its presence is seen and felt upright and fearless jurist, and his election is demanded by the highest interests

Joseph M. Thompson, Esq., of Indiana Co, was then introduced, who made an excellent speech, followed by C. L. Pershing Esq., who spoke in his usually logi

The meeting adjourned by giving three cheers for the Democracy and the Democratic ticket.

Frequent cheering and much enthusiasm prevailed during the entire occasion.

A FREAK OF NATURE.-We were pre sented on last Monday, by Mr. William Kaylor, of Cambria township, with a bunch of twenty well formed pears, which had matured on a stem of not more than two inches in length much resembling a cluster of grapes.

This is certainly, a freak of nature, no less tempting than it is curious. If every twig of Mr. Kaylor's pear tree yield in proportionate abundance, he would be able to supply an ordinary market with

We thank Mr. Kaylor for the gift, and hope, he may realize a renumeration sufficient from his pears, to purchase his life from the fate which Lincoln's wheel of destiny has assigned him.

from one of the rural districts, who had print, charging him with Knew-Nothings represented by the Pittsburg Gara was, very naturally, interrogated by her him to the Supreme Bench. Fearing to ciations like this, it is easy e was then introduced who made a long was made; that we denounce the least younger sister as to how she liked Ebens- attack him openly, they now whisper the bear evidence that the fair donoress of the to understand the truth: fragrant gift, is possessed of refined taste, | Lon. Geo W. Woodward: and a high appreciation of the truly beau- DEAR SIR :- The undersigned members of cial elections, but the terms of your

As an acknowledgement of the compliment, we return our thanks, and hope your views upon the naturalization laws, that her countenance may ever wear an and aliedged he tility to the naturalized judice. innocent smile; and that her pathway

Romalus and Remus taking tranquility, provide for the common deomens from the flight of birds, conceived fense, promote the general welfare, and oppression or for any purpose of conquest Church of this place, by the Right Rev. and mislead persons to whom the truth is Dr. Domenec, Bishop of Pittsburg, on next Sunday, at 4 o'clock, P. M. A the subject, if your time will permit, not will not descend to low appliances to general invitation is extended to all who doubting that every candid mind will thus commplish a party purpose. Such

> ner and forcible in his address; and his words will no doubt, be both instructive

FIRE IN DUNCANSVILLE.-A double by fire on Friday afternoon last. When first discovered, the flames had made but little progress, but owing to the lack of The house was occupied by two Welsh families, who succeded in saving the

OUR MARKET HOUSE.-We linked whom all government is made, and so Democratic press of the country, and we arms with a basket yesterday morning and plainly written down in the Federal Con- request the member from this county, to proceeded to the new market place, to "Native American" in any political in effect in service, either by himself procure some of the substantial necessastand it has not, in our opinion, the men- Resolved, That we have the nomination ries of life, and were pleased with the ap-After the people had assembled around tal capacity which fits him for public of Hon. George W Woodward for pearance and spirit of competition manimeeting had been brought about, and our political opponents claim for the Presi- serviency of the present executive to all Iron Company have concluded to issue no more scrip. Their employees will exercised in Europe or Asia, except by plunder of the Treasury by Gov. Curtin's hereafter, be paid in cash, or its repre-John Fenlan, Esq., was called to the the most despotic monarchs, namely: the political favorites. In Judge Woodward sentation, Lincoln greenbacks. The ship, who enlisted in the Pennsylvenia ducing the subject into that body lie Reserve corps and was discharged on account of ill health, died on last Thursday. I am not responsible for. It was

ABOUTTON AUTHORITY. - The Pitts- fore publication, and which he never burg Gazette told its renders before the I made some observations explanator nomination of Andy Curtin, that, "his my amendment of Thomas' motion nomination would be a disgrace to the party

Right Rev. Dr. Domenec, Bishop of Pittsburg will administer Confirmation for justice and ruffians who delight in should receive no encouragement from any in St. Patrick's Church in this place, on Sunday, the 13, inst., after last Mass.

> We commend the resolutions in to- hostility to foreigners. I promptly day's paper, adopted by the Democrafic nounced the imputation there, in the meeting yesterday. They are sound and patriotic; and should be read and preserved by every Democrat.

There is not an invention of this inventive age which honors American genins more than the Sewing machine. No adopted citizens, and all of them our family ought to be deprived of its benefits. to Nativism. Would this have been The Wheeler & Wilson Machine is unri- sible if the Whig reports of my se valed in all the excellencies that constitute a good machine, while, in artistic Seven years ago I was the caucus now finish, it vies with the piano in the bou- nee for United States Senator D doir."-Independent.

The above Machines are sold by R. A. O. Kerr, Altoona, Pa.

Read It!

NOTHENGISM.

The slanderers of Judge Woodward's Lir reputation are again busy in circulating a garbled extract from a letter wis disrepresentations in order to deceive the me about a year age, in which I am people. Desperate, indeed, are the means the importance of Nativism as disresorted too, by the opposition to defeat the Democratic candidate for Governor

In 1852, they boldly assailed Judge time adverse to the rights of fireign An nusophisticated young lass, Woodward's character through the public never before been from home, nor wit- ism, but facts and the searching light of nessed the ostenation of fashionable life, truth, soon convinced the people that the visited one of her relatives in this place, accusation was false, and they showed their passions to get the better of their a short time ago, and on her return home, appreciation of his merits by elevating so far as to impel them to acts and a same old slanders, and endeavor to secure | whose natives for doing so were jo "Oh My!" exclaimed the girl with the foreign vote for Curtin. But our citi- strong as those which actuate my pall disgust, "I don't like it at all; every- zens of foreign birth in this county are, opponents now. body's so proud up there. The people we trust, too intelligent to be caught by their 'Sunday clothes' every day, and | For the benefit of these who might be recently made against me. I never the girls are so lazy they earry their hair deceived, we publish the following corres- posed any nominee on account of birls pordence between prominent men and religion, and I supported no normal Judge Woodward, during the campaign of FLOWERS.—We had presented to us, 1852, when he was a candidate for It is with infinite reluctance Lap exquisite boquette, composed of nature's for itself. If any one, after reading it, self-defence. A candidate for just choisest flowers, which not only reflect the suspects him of Know-Nothing proclivity office is, perhaps, more than any of goodness and Omnipotence of God, but lies, he is too firmly wedded to falsehood the Democratic party beg leave to call your cial elections, but the terms of your ettention to certain charges now frequently leave me no choice but to answer. It made by the Whig presses, in regard to because it is the truth, and I acomjustly regard your life and conduct in the H industrious defamation can see legb station you have occupied, and the in representing me as having ever see boundless confidence of the Democratic ed any illiberal or prescriptive is a A FREE LECTURE. - A doctrinal loc- leavy which you enj y, as a sufficient an- Truth and a life are powerless as swer to such calumnies.

but the charges are intended to operate unknown. We would, therefore, solicit from you an expression of your views on be satisfied, that by no act of your life have and presses command my respect. Ap you been just'y chargeable with Laving en-The Bishop is pleasing in his his man-tertained men or measures favoring illiberal or proscriptive policy towar's adopted citizens, on account of the place of their or their religious opinions. Very respectively, yours, &c.,

EDWIN M. STANTON. CHARLES SHALER, SAMUEL W. BLACK, WM. WILKINS. JAS. ROSS SYOWDEN, and others. JUDGE WOODWARD'S REPLY.

Pattsburg, September 14, 1852. Gentlemen: - The official duties which brought me to Pittsburg, keep me constantly engaged. My answer to your let- giving his opinion in regard to the Si ter must therefore be brief.

From my earliest youth to this present moment, I have been an carnest and Dear Sir: - In answer to your hearty supporter of the Democratic party, quiry, my opinion is that the payma and an equally zealous opponent, so far the $300 commutation and the lan as my political action could decorously a substitute have precisely the same of and properly go, of whatever has opposed Either of them frees the drafted B it. I am not and never have been a from further draft for three years. It sense, any more than I am or have been a another. The payment of $300 mis which I made in the Reform Convention says he may "on or before the day of 1837. That was simply a limitation for his appearance furnish an accept Sensible. The Johnstown Cambria of a motion made by Mr. Thomas, a substitute, or pay such sum not exceed a substitute, or pay such sum not exceed a substitute. Whig member from Chester county, and ing $300 for the procuration of such so was calculated to compel his party (who stitute, and thereupon the person furnis were in a majority in the Convention,) to ing the substitute, or paging the come up to the mark or back out. They shall be discharged from further links chose the latter branch of the alternative, under that draft." No one doubt the and my motion having answered its pur- | furnishing a substitute excuses for the

Edward Davis of Blacklick town- pose, was withdrawn. The sin of the door of a whig, and not at mine

The speech so often quoted agains a in violation of the rules of the body required him to submit it for revission that speech is not a fair report of My other speeches were submitted for vision; this one I never saw till the la was printed, and I never ceased to be demn it.

During the session of the Contract namely, on the 18th day of January 1838, a member in debate alludel motion, not the speech, as indicates of the Convention, as I have done m a time since, as a gross misrepresentati See debate of the Convention, vol. 16

I have retained the undiminished car dence of the Democratic members of Reform Convenion, several of whom the and doings had been true? The ray American party itself is toy within county of Philadelphia was represby Nations They asked now when if elected by their votes, I would their own measures for changing the a pralization laws. I amswered then and they threw every vote they JUDGE WOODWARD ON KNOW, command against me and ruled a of trium; h over their victory

You refer to statements in the papers of this city. Une of them shown me a few three ago, is which as I dony it now. Yet the velor his readers that the letter contains as mission that my acotim als were a citizens. A copy of the letter this n

When men will allow their

Judge Campbell last fall, is as his any other of the numerous misstatem fall more heartily than I del Judge Can candidate, required to await quietly decision of the people. I am as say as any man can be, that politics our be kept away as far as possible from the it with no appeal to party passion w

There are some presses, and many opposed to me in political sentiments. are disposed to treat me fairly, and " others who are less scrupulous, I have shield but the truth and my life; and lying on these, I can afford to await patience, the verdict of the people. The ing you gentlemen, for the kind fee manifested in your letter, I am, with g

Your obedient servant, GEO. W. WOODWARD

THE $300 COMMITATION.—Helow publish a letter from Hon. Thaddens? vens, addressed to a citizen of Lance exemption clause in the conscription b Lancaster, Aug. 57, 1863

Whig, Anti-Mason or Abolitionist. the government his agent to procure