GALLITZIN, Sept. 25, 1863.

FRIEND TODD: The Democracy of Gallitzin and vicinity, held a large and enthusiastic meeting in this place last night, that deserves more than a passing notice in your columns.

The meeting in point of numbers, was decidedly the most respectable ever held in ...wn. Thos. Bradley, Esq., was unanimously called on to preside, and a number of Vice-Presidents and Secretaries elected, after which Phil. S. Noon, Esq., was called on vociferously to address the large assemblage. Comment on his speech to those who know him, were superfluous, suffice it to say, he more than sustained his growing reputation, and produced an effect on his hearers that will redound to the benefit of the party on the 13th day of October next.

John Fenlon, Esq., was then called on, and replied in an able manner, and was repeatedly applauded by the pleased crowd of listeners which paid most strict attention.

Cyrus L. Pershing, Esq., next ascended the platform and made a telling speech of ...hours length.

After which R. L. Johnston, Esq., was ...ly called on. This gentleman never fails to produce an effect, and though his speech was short, it was highly appreciated by the assembled crowd.

The meeting then adjourned with three cheers for the speakers and the candidates.

A more orderly meeting could not be held any place, and we, as citizens of Gallitzin feel proud of our demonstration on Thursday night.

Yours sincerely, GALLITZIN.

A PARODY.

[As it should be Sung at the Polls.]

Now marching to the polls, boys, we're going to the fight,
Shouting the battle-cry of freedom,
And we'll wear the glorious stars for the Union and the right,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.
Chorus—Woodward forever, Hurrah!
Hurrah!

Democrats will mobilize, up with the law,
For we're marching to the polls, boys, going to the fight,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.

We will meet the Abolitionists, with fearless hearts and true,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom,
And we'll show them what Democracy for ...ever can do,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.
Chorus—Woodward forever, &c.

Union and Union we're springing ...gain,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom,
And nothing shall be wrong, for we are ...ong in the right,
Shouting the battle-cry of freedom.
Chorus—Woodward forever, &c.

Then cry for Democracy, rally once again,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom,
We'll rally from the hill-side, we'll rally from the plain,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.
Chorus—Woodward forever, &c.

We welcome to our numbers, the loyal, true and brave,
Shouting the battle-cry of freedom,
And although he may be poor he shall never be a slave,
Shouting the battle-cry of freedom.
Chorus—Woodward forever, &c.

And I further give notice, as fo and by the 13th Section of the aforesid Act I am directed to do, That all persons, excepting Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of this State, or any City or incorporated District, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislative, judiciary or executive department of this State or the United States, or any City or incorporated District; also, that every member of Congress and the State Legislature, and of the Select and Common Councils or any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising, at the same time, the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector, or Clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Inspector or Judge, or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office then to be voted for. Also, in the 4th section of the Act of Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to elections and for other purposes," Approved the 10th day of April, 1856, it is enacted that the foregoing 13th section shal not be so construed as to prevent any military officer or Borough officer from serving as Judge or Inspector at any general of special elections in the Commonwealth.

Also, that in the 61st section of said Act it is enacted that "every General and Special Election shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten o'clock in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment, until seven o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

The general, special, city, incorporated, district, and township elections and all elections for electors of President and Vice President of the United States, shall be held and conducted by the Inspectors and Judges elected as aforesaid, and by clerks appointed as hereinafter provided.

No person shall be permitted to vote at any election, as aforesaid, but a white freeman of the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or County tax which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who had previously been a qualified voter of this State, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district, and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months.—Provided, That the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years, and have resided in the election district ten days as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid their taxes.

No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants, furnished by the Commissioner, unless first he produce a receipt for the payment within two years of a State or County tax, assessed agreeably to the Constitution and give satisfactory evidence, either on his own oath or affirmation, or that of another, that he has paid such tax, or on failure to produce a a receipt, shall make oath thereof, or, second, if he claim a right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation that he has resided in the State at least one year before his application, and make such proof of his residence in the district as is required by this Act and that he does verily believe, from the accounts given him, that he is of age aforesaid, and give such other evidence as is required by this act, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote, shall be inserted in the Alphabetical list by the Inspector, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "Tax" if he shall be permitted to vote by reason of having paid tax; or the word "Age" if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of such age shall be called out to the Clerks, who shall make their notes in the list of voters kept by them.

"In all such cases where the name of a person claiming to vote as found on the list furnished by the Commissioners and Assessors, or his right to vote, whether found thereon or not is objected to by any qualified citizens, it shall be the duty of the Inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more, his oath shall not be sufficient proof thereof, but shall make proof thereof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district for more than ten days next preceding said election, and shall also himself swear that his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is within the district, and that he did not remove into said district for the purpose of voting therein.

"Every person qualified, as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof, as is required, of his residence, and payment of taxes as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward, or district, in which he shall reside.

"If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent, any officer of any election, under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere within the execution of his duty, or shall block up the window, or avenue to any window, where the same may be holding, or shall riotously disturb the peace of such election, or shall use or practice any intimidating threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly, or overawe, any elector, or to prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $500, be imprisoned for any time not less than one month, nor more than twelve months; and if it shall be shown to the Court where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district, or township where the said offence was committed and not entitled to vote therein, then, on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine not less than one hundred, nor more than one thousand dollars, and imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years."

Pursuant to the provisions contained in the Act first aforesaid, the Judges of the aforesaid districts shall respectively take charge of the certificate or return of their respective districts, and produce them at a meeting of one Judge from each district, at the Court House, in the Borough of Ebensburg, on the Third day after the day of election, being Friday the 16th day of October, A. D. 1863, then and there to do and perform those duties required of them by law.

And further, if any Judge, by sickness or unavoidable accident is unable to attend said meeting of Judges, then the certificate or return aforesaid shall be taken charge of by one of the Inspectors or clerks of the election of the same district, who shall do and perform the duties of said Judge unable to attend.

Given under my hand at my office in Ebensburg, the 7th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-seventh.
