The News.

The news from Virginia leaves us still looking more anxiously for the result. We consider it is now come to the final engagement their great battles heretofore have had no result but the destruction of human lives. If Grant, as is reported, has made a junction with Butler, and both armies are able to take Fort Darling they would then be able to occupy the railroads leading from the south of the rebel capital, by the taking of Petersburg.

The U. S. Two Hundred Million Five Per Cent Loan.—This loan is limited to two hundred millions and is rapidly subscribed for by the people. A moderate portion of this amount has been taken for Europe, and any reasonable portion of the residue, that the Secretary of the Treasury would be willing to designate could be placed on the other side on highly advantageous terms.

The World.—We call the attention of our readers to the prospectus of the World, published in our paper to-day. It is the leading and most reliable Democratic paper in the United States.

much danger of the cowardly minions of this Administration giving him any further trouble.

"He now may sleep safely in Aberloe glin And the devil's in the dice if they catch him again."

The people of the State of Ohio will not permit him to be kidnapped any more, and the cowardly Administration are perfectly aware of that and will run no such risk. That would just be the beginning of the end.

They are now blustering about the Monroe doctrine and passed a resolution in Congress, and another in that piebald convention that nominated Lincoln, regarding that doctrine.

The literary matter includes "A Story for Sisters-in-Law," "Mistress and Maid," "Edna's Faith," "Richard Graham's Love," "The Maiden's Answer," "First and Last," "The Transformed Village," "A Woman's Pride," Editor's Department, &c., &c.

OUR PAPER.—Hereafter our paper will be good, we have secured the exchanges of the best, earliest and most reliable papers of the Union.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—Godey's Lady's book for July is on hand. Mr. Godey maintains his character in this number as well as heretofore.

CELEBRATION.—There will be a celebration of the 4th of July in Loretto, at the Brothers grove north of the town.

Ebensburg.

Our County Commissioners, as fine men as ever were incumbent in that office, are repairing and renovating the Court House in such a manner that when finished it will look quite creditable, and will save the county the expense of building a new Court House for at least a quarter of a century to come.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—The July number of this magazine is one of the best yet issued. It opens with a beautiful and piquant steel engraving, called "How they Caught Fish," which represents a couple of young lovers earnestly engaged in conversation, apparently much to the astonishment of a party of ladies.

Accident.—Young Robert George, a son of E. M. George, Esq., of Hemlock, in this county, a promising young man of 16 or 17 years of age, on last Wednesday, had his arm cut off at a sawmill in the neighborhood.

Correspondence.

LORETTO, Penn'a. June 20, 1864.

FRIEND HASSON:—From this retired village I now address you, and allow me here to say, I have more time, and less trouble to write than heretofore, and besides all that, I have the benefit of the untutored, but honest opinions of the pure Democracy of the County.

Had Jeff. Davis, with his great and unrivalled ability as a statesman, his integrity and honesty of purpose, and his desire for peace been invested with Supreme power, we should have had a termination to our present troubles long ago.

We hope the day is not far distant, when New England and not the South shall be driven out of the Union of States, that the Puritan spirit may be limited, that peace and toleration may again pervade our once happy land.

Look at his platform. "What does he offer? Peace, no. The Washington dynasty does not want peace upon any terms, they want the war to continue for mercenary purposes; proposition for reconstruction. No. Not one word said upon the subject, that project has failed, as enumerated in the President's Message; the Constitution and the Union, they propose to maintain.

THE ACTION OF THE "CLEVELAND CONVENTION" has set the American Republicans to howling, within themselves. They are silent outwardly as the "village of the dead."

From Charleston.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The steamer Fulton from Port Royal, with dates to the 16th has arrived. The rebels opened fire from Sullivan's and James Islands on the 7th, which was replied to by our guns. No damage was sustained by us.

The editor of the Journal of Commerce, being asked in reference to passing events— Why do you not direct attention to this wonderful vindication of General McClellan's military genius?—answers thus:—

DAVENPORT, IOWA, June 13th 1864.

Mr. EDITOR:—From all indications, the Chicago Convention, to be held on the 4th of next month bids fair to be one of great interest and large attendance. The people of Chicago have went to considerable trouble and expense in the erection of a grand amphitheatre of enormous size, in which the convention will be held.

"We, the people," will be there to direct the actions of the only Union Convention that can be held in the country under the present existing circumstances.

We should think that the dis-Union spirit of Charleston would be a warning to the Democratic party in all time to come. We mean the proceedings and the result of the Democratic Convention of the summer of 1860.

Well, just hold on Mr. Abolitionist, I am not making it a case in your favor by any means, because I charge the overthrow of my country and liberty on the heads of a pack of scoundrels, who would persist in the wicked cause of strengthening the damnable heresy of Abolition, the real "cloven-foot," the beguiling serpent in the garden of Eden.

At night the guns of Fort Putnam opened on a rebel steamer bound from Charleston to Fort Sumter, laden with troops and supplies.

The editor of the Journal of Commerce, being asked in reference to passing events— Why do you not direct attention to this wonderful vindication of General McClellan's military genius?—answers thus:—

Because there is no need of it. The eloquence and logic of events are so powerful that there is not to-day in the whole country, from Maine to California, a man of any political party who is not thinking of just this plain and overwhelming proof of the mastery ability of McClellan.

Proceedings of Court.

The Judges were all present, eighteen Grand Jurors answered to their names. After the preliminary business was dispatched; Judge Taylor charged the Grand Jury in his usual lucid, clear and forcible manner.

CIVIL LIST. Jas. Burk vs. Jacob Crum, and others. Summons in trespass for damages. The Jury found for the plaintiff six dollars damages.

William Duke vs. William Jennings and Sarah Jennings. Summons for slander. The Jury found for the plaintiff five dollars damages.

SECOND WEEK. The Court met on Monday at 2 o'clock, the usual number of Jurors were in attendance.

Marbourg & Co., vs. Sarah Andrews et al.; Scire facias. The Jury found for the plaintiff one hundred and ninety dollars and ninety-nine cents.

Joseph Kemp endorsee of James Ross vs. Richard Griffith. Assumpsit, cause withdrawn.

James Clifford vs. John Thompson, action in assumpsit. Plaintiff confessed judgment for two hundred and twenty-three dollars and eighty cents.

Purity of the Administration. Our readers will see from the following item, how pure and immaculate this Republican Administration is.

FEMALE TREASURY CLERKS.—The infamous revelations of the interior of the Treasury Department must bring a red-hot blush to the face of every American who is not dead to shame.

"Employment for women," is a phrase often in the mouths of reforming philanthropists. These would be benefactors of the female sex may here see how their
