

Prospectus for 1864.

THE WORLD:

AN INDEPENDENT DEMOCRATIC DAILY, SEMI-WEEKLY AND WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.

UNION OF THE WORLD AND ARGUS.

THE WORLD, to which the New York Weekly Argus has been united, has to-day five times the aggregate circulation of any Democratic or conservative newspaper. It reaches at least half a million readers, and the steady increase in circulation which it now enjoys, these numbers will be doubled by the 1st of January, 1864.

Special exertions will be used to make its reports of the Crops, of the Cattle, Produce, and Money Markets, comprehensive and accurate. Realizing that the bone and sinew of the country are to be found upon its farms and in its workshops.

The war in which the nation is engaged against armed and infatuated Rebels, and the radical policy of the administration which prolongs it, have conspired to bring together upon one platform and conservative, Union-loving and Constitution loving men, of whatever former name and creed, many of those who, within the limits of the Constitution, fought the battles of the ballot box under the leadership of those patriotic statesmen of other and better days, Henry Clay and Daniel Webster, together with the masses whose principles were those of such patriots as Andrew Jackson and William L. Marcy, Silas Wright and Stephen A. Douglas, now stand shoulder to shoulder upon the same platform and under the same banner.

It will oppose every violation of THE CONSTITUTION, which is the only hope and bond of Union, and our only authority for exhorting or compelling the allegiance of the South.

It will oppose every infraction of THE LAW, in high places or low, by reckless and misguided partisans, or by the administration which has been their example.

It will fearlessly exercise the Freedom of the Press; it will constantly uphold and defend Freedom of Speech and Freedom of the Ballot.

To the lawless acts of the Administration, its arbitrary and unjust arrests and expatriations, its denial of the right to the writ of habeas corpus, its illegal proclamations, its abrogation of State and Federal laws, its despotic accumulations of ungranted power, and its subversions of the safeguards of civil and personal liberty, it will constantly oppose the letter and the spirit of our supreme law and the advocacy of sound doctrine, until American freemen shall be roused to the recovery of their rights, their liberties, their laws, and their limited and well-balanced government, by the resistless decision of the ballot.

Profoundly impressed with the desire to contribute all that it may to the great work of this generation, namely, to restore our national unity, and to place the United States again foremost among the nations of the earth, and first in peace, prosperity, and happiness of its people. THE WORLD seeks from those who desire such things their sympathy and support, and, above all, the favor of Him who crowns every good work.

Such has been the case in thousands of instances, and a fair trial is but required to prove the assertion.

From Rec. J. Newton Brown, D. D. Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them. J. NEWTON BROWN, Philad'a. June 23, 1861.

Diseases of Kidneys and Bladder, IN YOUNG OR AGED, MALE OR FEMALE. Are speedily removed, and the patient restored to health.

DELICATE CHILDREN, Those suffering from MARASMUS, wasting away, with scarcely any flesh on their bones, are cured in a very short time; one bottle in such cases, will have a most surprising effect.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS! AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost.

The proprietors are daily receiving thankful letters from sufferers in the army and hospitals, who have been restored to health by the use of these Bitters, sent to them by their friends.

Should your nearest druggist not have the article, do not be put off by any of the intoxicating preparations that may be offered in its place, but send to us, and we will forward, securely packed, by express.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS! See that the signature of "C. M. Jackson" is on the wrapper. Principal Office and Manufactory No. 631 ARCH Street. JONES & EVANS, (Successors to C. M. JACKSON & Co.) Proprietors.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and wonderful Tonic, corrective and alterative of wonderful efficacy in disease of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of either Sex, arising from Biliary Weakness whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forewarned against disease, and so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistible as a remedy and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being pined with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkali, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretory organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Locomotion of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agency of Bileous Colic is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a General Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Deepitude arising from Old Age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-inforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is The Only Safe Stimulant being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally popular, and it may be truly said, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.
