Of destructive forces constituting capital causes of danger, corruption and fanaticism (before mentioned) must be ranked as chief; and are they not now both in existence, and conspicuous beyond any former example in these United States?

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULYERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the rational cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA, or seminal weakness, involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments in Marriage, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY, and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price in a sealed envelope, only six cents. The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure, at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post paid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Address the publishers: CHAS. J. C. KLINE & CO., 127 BOWERY, NEW YORK. June 15, '64 ly Postoffice box 4586.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D. Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson of this city, because I was prevailed against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them. J. NEWTON BROWN.

Disease of Kidneys and Bladder, IN YOUNG OR AGED, MALE OR FEMALE.

Are speedily removed, and the patient restored to health.

DELICATE CHILDREN. These suffering from MARASMOUS, wasting away, with scarcely any flesh on their bones, are cured in a very short time; one bottle in such cases, will have a most surprising effect.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS! AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army, to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposure and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost.

The proprietors are daily receiving thankful letters from sufferers in the army and hospitals, who have been restored to health by the use of these Bitters, sent to them by their friends.

Should your nearest druggist not have the article, do not be put off by any of the intoxicating preparations that may be offered in its place, but send to us, and we will forward, securely packed, by express.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and wonderful Tonic, corrective and alternative of wonderful efficacy in disease of the STOMACH, LIVER and BOWELS.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of either Sex, arising from Bilious Weakness, whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral or any kind, no deadly botanical elements, no fiery exotics, but it is a combination of the extracts of rare and salutiferous herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forewarned against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against malady, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistible as a remedy, and the stomach which resists not under application of an attack, escapes the scourge of malarial fevers, when neglected to yield to the power of its protective qualities.

In a variety of cases, it is cured by a very small quantity of this medicine combined with quinine for malarial fever, with fully natural or with that dangerous ailment, are not infrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it is widely resorted to in cases of Dyspepsia and is less confined, termed Indigestion. Acting as a mild and pleasant aperient, as well as upon the bowels, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretory organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Losses of Spirits and Fits of Anger, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agency of Bilton, C. is immediately assumed by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

A General Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which cannot be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility, and Decrepitude arising from Old Age, it exercises the elastic influence, in the convalescent stage of all diseases, it appears as a delightful beverage. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it is resorted to with frequency and success.

Last, but not least, it is the Only Safe Stimulant being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally and it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburg, Pa. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Storekeepers everywhere. March 9, 1864-ly.
