

How is Gold To-day?

There was a time when if we met A friend upon the street, He talked on common themes—the war, The cold, or else the heat, And took an interest in ones health. That time has passed away; Now, no one asks us how we do, But, "How is gold to-day?"

Under the Lindsens.

Under the lindsens lately sat A couple, and no more, in chat, I pondered what they would be at Under the lindsens. I saw four eyes and four lips meet, I heard the words—how sweet! how sweet! Had then the Fairies given a treat Under the lindsens?

An Unkind Tear.

When I used to tend store at the "Regulator," in Syracuse, the old gentleman comes round one day and he says: "Boys, the one that sells the most twist now and Christmas, gets a vest pattern as a present. Maybe he didn't work for that vest pattern! I tell you there was some tall stories told in praise of goods just about that time; but the tallest talker and the one that had more cheek than any of us was a certain Jonah Squires, who roomed with me. He could take a dollar out of a man's pocket when the man had intended to spend only a sixpence; and the women, Lord bless you, they just handed their pocket-books to him and let him lay out what he liked for them. One night Josh waked me up with: "By Gosh, old fellow, if you think that ere's got any cotton in it, I'll bring down the sheep it was cut from and make him swear to his own wool! 'Twon't wear out either—wore a pair of pants of that kind 'o stuff myself for years, and they are as good now as when I first put 'em on! Take it at thirty cents, and I'll say you don't owe me anything. Eh, too dear? Well, call it twenty-eight cents. What d'ye say? Shall I tear it? All right, it's a bargain." I could feel Jonah's hands playing about the bed-clothes for an instant, then rip! tear! went something or another and I hid my head under the blankets, perfectly convulsed with laughter, and sure that Jonah had torn the sheet from top to bottom. When I woke up next morning I found—alas! unkindest tear of all—that the back of my night-shirt was split from tail to collar-band!

A Good story is told of a Washington countryman, who on his way to Cincinnati became somewhat elevated by sundry "drinks," but, as good luck would have it, found a boat at the wharf, and was quickly on his way. Soon after leaving the wharf, a man came around for his fare. Horrall handed out a five dollar bill, and received four dollars and ninety-five cents in change. He rammed it into his pocket book with great eagerness, supposing the clerk had made a mistake. That done he leaned back into his chair and fell asleep. A little while and he was plucked awake by the same man, who again demanded fare. "Discussed the mistake," holding out a handful of change. The man as before took only five cents, and Horrall again went into a doze. Ere he had got fairly into dreaming of home and friends far away, around came the collector again, and thus it went on for a long time. At last Horrall thought it very inconvenient, and concluded to vote the collector a nuisance, and give him a bit of advice besides: so he said; "Is (hic) this a da-n-ger (hic) ons (hic) bo-boat?" "By no means," said the man. "Bran new." Then, by gummy, (hic) why do (hic) don't you collect all the fa (hic) hair at once—not to bother a fel (hic) heller for it every mile as it comes due? "Really," said the man, "where do you think you are going?" "Cincin (hic) cinnati, said Horrall. "Cincinnati," said the polite conductor, "why you must be sadly out of your reckoning. This is the ferryboat, and all this afternoon you have been riding to and fro between New Albany and Portland." —Louisville Democrat.

Why is a man with his eyes shut like an illiterate schoolmaster?—Because he keeps his pupils in the dark. When is a man thinner than a lath?—When he's a shaving.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA, or seminal weakness, involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments in Marriage, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY, and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

THE peculiar taint of infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay.

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in its effect upon the system, wherein it may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will never be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease. This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and wonderful Tonic, corrective and alterative of wonderful efficacy in disease of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS. Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Head ache, General Debility, Nervousness, Impression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes. Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant but is a combination of the extracts of rare and simple herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants. It is well to be forewarned against those, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard. In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistible as a remedy and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being pined with quinine for months in vain, unfailingly saturated with that dangerous alkali, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Indigestion, Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretory organs. Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Losses of Spirit and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes. The agency of Bileous Colic is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented. As a General Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constipation of Weakness, Prostration, Decay and Debility and Deceitful arising from Old Age, it exerts the electric influence. It operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to reinforce and re-establish them. Last, but not least, it is The Only Safe Stimulant being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day. No family medicine has been so universally, and it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Storekeepers everywhere. March 9, 1864-ly.
