

you laboring under pecuniary embarrassments, I was prompted to come and see you.

"I had little dreamed of such an honor and such a kindness, General," she responded, nearly overpowered by her emotions and the imposing presence of her august visitor.

"There is a mortgage," he rejoined, without responding in any way to her last remarks, "a rather heavy mortgage on your homestead."

"I am sorry," she replied sadly, "every cent to be compelled to say there is a much heavier one than I can ever pay."

"So I had ascertained," he proceeded, "and I have also, before coming here been at the pains of ascertaining the exact amount now due, and required to cancel this, to you, doubtless ruinous incumbrance, and I propose now to leave with you the sum of money you will need for effecting that desirable object."

"Does the money come from Government, sir?" she asked doubtfully, and with a look that seemed to say, "If it does, then all right."

Washington looked at her, and hesitated a little at first, but soon, while taking up the valise he had brought in with him, slowly responded:

"In one sense it does, I may say, madam, if you have delicacies on the subject. I am in receipt of a liberal yearly salary from Government, from which it is discretionary with me to impart aid sometimes to deserving objects; and I certainly know of none more so than one which will relieve the family of so meritorious an officer as your self-sacrificing husband."

Without waiting for any rejoinder to these remarks, he opened his valise and took from it a bag of silver money, and deliberately proceeded to draw out and count from it, till he had reached the sum of nine hundred and some odd dollars, which afterward proved to be the precisely demanded, in principal, interest, and fees, for the discharge of the mortgage on our place. He then, after returning the money to the bag, and setting it aside for the purpose he had designated, and taking the hand of my mother, who seemed inclined to remonstrate, but could not force the words for it from her quivering lips, tenderly but with an air that seemed to forbid any attempt at refusal said to her:

"Accept it, don't hesitate to accept it—take it and get the mortgage discharged at once; and then all your immediately pressing anxieties will be relieved, and soon you will find those brighter days the God of the widow has kept in store for you. And now, as my time is quite limited, it only remains for me to say, as I do most sincerely and kindly, Heaven bless you, dear madam, Heaven bless you. Farewell!"

I was present during the whole of this interview between General Washington and my mother. I heard every word, they both said, and saw all the money counted down on the table, and feel confident that I have neither taken from nor added to anything that there took place.

On leaving the house, Washington immediately mounted his horse and rode away, leaving us quite unable for a while to realize this unexpected visit, and the still more unexpected benefaction of the illustrious visitor.

As Mr. Warner was ascertained to have been a man of integrity, and of an unbroken memory, there need be but little doubt respecting the truth and authenticity of the above related incident, which, while it involves testimony highly honorable to the heroic leader of the Green Mountain Boys, furnishes a new and beautiful illustration of the elevated and benevolent character of Washington.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS DISEASES.

From Emory Pills, a well-known merchant of Oxford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, but an ailing humor, had her eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Danversville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous humor, which became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost everything a man could do for her, but in vain. I then procured your SARSAPARILLA, and in a few weeks she was cured. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the red skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as anybody's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of, but feel perfectly healthy, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

From Dr. Robt. Searin, Howston St., N. Y.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly more and more disfiguring, until it became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost everything a man could do for it, but in vain. I then procured your SARSAPARILLA, and in a few weeks it was cured. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the red skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as anybody's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of, but feel perfectly healthy, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

From Dr. J. E. Johnston, Esq., Walsman, Ohio.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for several years, and with the most beneficial results, and feel confident it is commending it to the afflicted."

From Hon. Henry Monroe, M. P. P. of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for several years, and with the most beneficial results, and feel confident it is commending it to the afflicted."

From Dr. Hiram Sizer, Esq., the able editor of the "Freemason," Providence, R. I.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread over his face, and he became very irritable, and would not eat. I tried every thing else, but in vain. I then procured your SARSAPARILLA, and in a few weeks he was cured. It immediately made his face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the red skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until his face is as smooth as anybody's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of, but feel perfectly healthy, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

From Dr. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of that State.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and wonderful Tonic, corrective and alternative of wonderful efficacy in disease of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS. Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Prostration of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

Nothing that is not wholesome, mild and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no fatty botanical element, no fiery excitant but is a combination of the extracts of rare and valuable herbs and plants with the purest and most delicate stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against evils engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistible as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvellous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being fed with quinine for months in vain, are fully saturated with that dangerous alkali, as not infrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretory organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lassitude of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agency of Bilious Colic is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a General Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from Old Age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-inforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is The Only Safe Stimulant being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and containing no acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally, and it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburg, Pa. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Storekeepers everywhere. March 9, 1864-ly.
