

A Blind Woman Restored.

An interesting young woman, twenty-two years of age, born stone blind—partly educated in the family of a clergyman, all this time by finger alphabets, as we see blind men tracing the letters in one or two places in town—blind for twenty-two years, was restored to perfect vision in four days by a surgical operation, and to partial vision in two minutes. This young woman in an instant having been twenty-two years and from her birth stone blind of congenial cataract, began to see as those deaf mutes in Paris begin to hear for the first time. The effect on the young woman was most curious and something of this kind. She saw everything, but there was no idea whatever of perspective. She put her hand in the window to try and catch the trees on the other side of the street, then in Moorfield; she tried to touch the ceiling of a high ward; she was utterly ignorant also of common things—eggs: what such things as a bunch of keys were, of a silver watch or a common cup and saucer; but when she shut her eyes and was allowed to touch them (the educated sense), she told them at once! She could almost distinguish the greasy feel of the silver ball crown from the cold, dry, harsh feel of a copper penny. Her joy was excessive when shown some mignonette and sweet peas that one of the surgeons had accidentally in his coat, for it seems she knew all the plants in the clergyman's garden by the touch and smell. She looked at the bunch of keys, and with equal blankness at the flowers, then shut her eyes so as to recognize them. All this took up less than five minutes! But she failed to say, as well as I now remember the case, "these are flowers." But on my saying when she opened her eyes again, "Why these are flowers." "Oh! so they are," she replied shutting her eyes quickly and putting them to her nose, "this is mignonette," etc.—Scientific American.

THE FUTURE RELATIONS OF SLAVES AND THEIR OWNERS.—The N. Y. Times says that Gen. Haristuff, at Petersburg, has begun to experience the danger that the released slaves misapprehend their position and duties. Many of them, it seems, are deluding themselves with the idea that they are entitled to live with and be supported by their former owners, without being required to labor. Not the least painful feature of this state of things come from the fact that these emancipated slaves are encouraged by ignorant white men, who have made themselves apostles of a doctrine—which is by no means confined to a small class—that the negro must be protected and defended in idleness, if he chooses to be idle. Gens. Schofield and Haristuff promise to make short work of this delusion. What a fund of information our people have yet to acquire! and the negroes, too! Before they get through with this business, they will appreciate the reasons why we have expressed the hope that slavery may not be destroyed by this war.

See The Philadelphia Inquirer says that Sherman made a characteristic speech, when serenaded at Washington, on the 24th. Some one in the crowd asked him then, how about Mexico, to which he replied: "You can go there, if you like, and you can go to the devil, if you like."

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the

SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent. GOLD-BEARING BONDS

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts

One cent per day on a $50 note,	$100
Two cents " " "	$200
Ten " " " "	$1000
20 " " " "	$2000
$1 " " " "	$5000

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is THE ONLY LOAN IN MARKET now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the GREAT POPULAR LOAN OF THE PEOPLE.

Less than $800,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State banks, and Private bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

JAY COOKE, SUBSCRIPTION AGENT, Philadelphia. Subscriptions will be received by the

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF ALTOONA.
