

Democrat and Sentinel.

CLARK WILSON, Editor & Proprietor.

EBENSBURG, MARCH 22, 1866.

FOR GOVERNOR.

HIESTER CLYMER.

THE APPROACHING CONTEST.

The Democratic party has now in the field her choice as the standard bearer for the highest office in the State...

The Democratic party in each county should feel it to be the first duty, to organize in each election district...

The new spring bonnet has made its appearance. It is called the "Gipsy," and is said to look like anything but a bonnet.

The boiler attached to Althoff's planing mill at Erie, Pa., exploded on the 16th inst., killing one man and injuring three others.

It is understood that the government intends to order the muster out of forty thousand negro troops...

The Louisville Journal contains a call for a "grand mass meeting of the friends of President Johnson's restoration policy."

The city of St. Paul, Minn., having refused to settle a claim of $15,000 presented by the gas works...

It is a very remarkable fact (observes the Hartford Times) since the days of the second Adams...

The following sketch of President Johnson's demerit on the occasion of the delivery of his great speech on the 22d ult., is from the pen of a radical Congressman...

Not my will, but Thine, O Lord, be done; but if it be consistent with Thy holy pleasure, we would that thou speedily telegraph for President Johnson to come up to Heaven.

If President Johnson should be assassinated, fortunately we will not have as much trouble in finding the conspirators, as was taken after the death of Mr. Lincoln to seek out his murderers.

Volunteers in one paragraph.—The following inimitable hit is as irresistible in argument as it is in humor.

It seems to us as hard to get in the Union as it is to get out. The South respectfully asks to move one way or the other.

The present Congress passed, without hesitation, a bill which contemplated an expenditure of twenty millions of dollars per annum for the maintenance of negroes.

The same Congress has neglected to appropriate one cent to the equalization and payment of bounties due white soldiers.

Who are the soldiers' friends? Those who postpone his interests to the elevation of the negro, or those who demand that the elevation of the negro shall be postponed to his interests?

HARRISBURG ELECTION.—The city election in Harrisburg was held on Friday and resulted in the election of the entire Democratic ticket.

This season it is thought that the Virginia tobacco crop will be about one-third of what it was before the war.
