The convention that nominated Geary for Governor was a curious affair. It was composed in great part of renegade Democrats, was presided over by a renegade Democrat, (Covode,) the proceedings were managed by a renegade Democrat, (Cessum,) the resolutions were drafted by a renegade Democrat, (Forney,) and the names for Governor is a renegade Democrat, (Geary.) This body of renegades, assuming to act for the Republican party, passed a series of resolutions, all of the dead end order, all negatives, except one positive one, which is aimed at a life-long member of that party and a friend of President Johnson, (Cowan) The annals of this renegade convention towards the true friends of the Government is thus shown. It was in the interest of the disunionists.

Michael D. Sullivan, of Illinois owns the largest farm in the world—70,000 acres, 23,000 of which are under cultivation. For eight years' steady devotion to the wash tub has enabled a good woman in La Crosse to build three good houses, and put away a neat little pile of government bonds.

Dr. Franklin and the South Carolina. A friend relates to us that the Summer before the war at the house of a hospitable South Carolina planter, he was up one morning with the sun and was about to venture forth on a morning walk, when he was plucked by the planter at the door. "You cannot pass, Sir. Too early." "Too early! Why, my dear Colonel, what says Dr. Franklin?" "Early to bed and early to rise will make a man healthy and wealthy and wise." "Very fine, Sir; but all a fallacy. Early rising and the inhalation, upon an empty stomach, of the morning malaria of this country, North and South, have been the death of thousands—the death of thousands, Sir, from the time of Capt. John Smith to the day. Wait till after breakfast, fortify your stomach with a cup of hot coffee, and then, the next vapors of the night being expelled by the sun, we will take a morning walk."
