

STRONG CONFIRMATION—The latest instance of "Spiritual Manifestations" that we have ever seen is, that recorded of a young man "Down East," whose father had promised, before his death, to hold invisible communication with him:

The spirit of the gentleman (who by the way, had been somewhat severe in matters of discipline) was called up, and held some conversation with the boy.—But the messages were not at all convincing, and the youth would not believe that his father had anything to do with them.

"Well," said the medium; "what can your father do to remove your doubts?"—"He will perform some act which is characteristic of him, and without any directions as to what it shall be, I shall believe in it."

"Very well," said the medium, "we wait some manifestations from the spirit land."

This was no sooner said than (as the story goes) a table walked up to the youth, and, without ceremony, kicked him out of the room!

"Hold on!" cried the terrified young convert; "that's the old man;—I believe in rappings!"

Our hero has never since had a desire to "stir up the old gentleman."

Dr. Franklin and the South Carolina Planter.

A friend relates to us that the Summer before the war at the house of a hospitable South Carolina planter, he was up one morning with the sun and was about to venture forth on a morning walk, when he was checked by the planter at the door.

"You cannot pass, Sir, too early."

"Too early! Why, my dear Colonel, what says Dr. Franklin?"

"Early to bed and early to rise will make a man healthy and wealthy and wise."

"Very fine, sir; but all a fallacy. Early rising and the inhalation, upon an empty stomach, of the morning malaria of this country, North and South, have been the death of thousands—the death of thousands, sir from the time of Capt. John Smith to this day. Wait till after breakfast, fortify your stomach with a cup of hot coffee, and then, the noxious vapors of the night being exhaled by the sun, we will take a morning ride."

"But my dear Colonel, I am already fortified with a wine-glass of HOSSETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS."

"Ah, then, sir, you may stick to Dr. Franklin. Hostetter's agent at Charleston supplies me, and I am expecting a box to-day with my wagon. Those Bitters, I find, are a sure protective against all the fever resulting from malaria. Doctor Franklin holds good, sir, even in the swamps of South Carolina, if fortified with Hostetter's Bitters."

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered for several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.
