

Democrat and Sentinel.

Democratic County Convention.

The Democracy of Cambria county are requested to assemble at the usual places for holding elections, in their respective election districts, on Saturday, the 23d day of June, 1866, to elect Delegates to a Convention, which will convene at the Court House, in Ebensburg, on Monday, the 25th day of June, 1866, at one o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of nominating a County Ticket, and to perform such other duties as the usages of the party and the interests of the Country may require.

A full attendance is requested. GEORGE W. OATMAN, Chairman Democratic Co. Com. Ebensburg, May 29, 1866.

The locusts are coming. The Blairsville Locust says that section of country is swarming with them. Soon the forests will resound with the cry of "Phar-o-a-h."

Huntingdon boasts two Base Ball Clubs, both of which, the Monitor says, play well. Send some of your best up this way, boys, and learn us how to play the game.

Nancy Himes of Summerhill township has lost her cow, and offers a reward of twenty dollars to any person who will return her. See advertisement in another column.

We notice that an amendment has been adopted to the new tax bill now before Congress, that prohibits the publishing of libels, which are not to be furnished to editors or other persons under any pretext whatever.

Horse Steals.—On Monday night last, a valuable horse was stolen from the pasture of Washington Orr, in Tyrone township, Blair county. The horse was of a brown color, about six years old and in good condition. A reward of $200 is offered for the recovery of the horse and arrest and conviction of the thief, or $50 for the return of the horse alone. The horse was branded with the letter "C" under his mane.

When in Johnstown last week we stopped at the Scott House, kept by A. Row & Co., and when we assert that this is a well kept house, under the management of the present proprietors, we speak understandingly. The Mills are moderate and the accommodations excellent. Those who tarry in this house for any length of time fare snugly every day. See card in another column.

The States Union Hotel, Market st., Philadelphia, is now what may be termed a good hotel. Those of our readers who may have occasion to visit the city, will find it a comfortable and convenient stopping place. We speak understandingly on this subject as we tarried at the States Union during a part of last week. See card in another column, under the head of "Philadelphia Business Cards."

Two circus men engaged in a game of fisticuff, at the depot, on Monday evening. The reasons for this little "mill" were a plenteous whiskey and a scarcity of "where-with-all." Circusmen generally put their best foot foremost, but if these performers are correct representatives of the circus which is shortly to visit us, it must be a show of vice and depravity.

Some of our readers may not be aware that a one-horse circus is expected here sometime this month. Such is the case, however, as will be seen by a few blue hills which the agent, who had been indulging rather freely in ardent-strychnine, stuck up, without permission on our fence. The thing looked bad, and from present appearances, we advise all those who will persist in attending a poor show to look well to their pocket-books.

We direct attention to the advertisement of Frank W. Hay, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Copper, Tin and Sheet-Iron Ware, Canal street, Johnstown. When in Johnstown last week, we called with Mr. Hay and found his stock large and well adapted to the wants of our readers. His prices are as low as the lowest, and Mr. Hay, if we mistake not, is a gentleman in every sense of the word—a man with whom it is a pleasure to deal. Those of our readers who are in the habit of making purchases in Johnstown, should not fail to call with Frank W. Hay.

Take Notice.—Know all men by these presents, that I, V. S. Barker, of the borough of Ebensburg, county of Cambria, and State of Pennsylvania, do hereby positively assert that I have constantly on hand one of the largest and best selected stocks of Dry Goods, Groceries, &c., to be found in the market, which will be sold at a very small advance.

The two young men named George Berkeley and Robert James, who were injured at the Portable Steam Mill of James Young & Co., in Cambria township, by a boiler explosion, some ten days ago, we are happy to learn, are rapidly improving and are likely to recover from their injuries. A number of persons were in the mill at the time the explosion took place, which shattered the mill to pieces, but all escaped unharmed except the two persons mentioned above.

A Beacon of Health.

The good things of this world have each their appointed missions.

It is the mission of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS to prevent and relieve a great variety of ailments.

For twelve years its success as a protective and a remedy has been without check or drawback. It is strong negative evidence of this fact, that the efficacy of the article as a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, nervousness, general debility, and intermittent fevers, has never been questioned.

As proof positive of its infallibility in such cases, the statements of public men whose names are familiar as household words, have from time to time been given to the world.

If its reputation is not founded in facts, then truth is a shadow, and the utterances of conscientious citizens are of no more value than "dancers' oaths."

And what is its reputation? Let the progress of its sales answer the inquiry.—Where twenty dozen bottles of Hostetter's Bitters were sold in 1855, five hundred dozen are disposed of now.

Could public opinion be more significantly expressed than by its unparalleled increase of consumption? It seems impossible.

The preparation has been imitated.—Where are the imitators? Echo answers, "Where?" To the "limbo" of things lost on earth they are all either gone or going.—Peace be with them!

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered for several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a SURE CURE FOR CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all Throat and Lung Affections. The only object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, FREE by return mail, will please address Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings Co., New York Feb. 1, 1866. 1y.

Sufferers wishing to profit by the advertiser's experience, can do so by addressing,
