A Beacon of Health.

The good things of this world have each their appointed missions. It is the mission of HOSTETTER'S STON-

ACH BITTERS to prevent and relieve a great variety of ailments. For twelve years its success as a protective and a remody has been without check or drawback. It is strong negative evidence of this fact, that the efficacy of the article as a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, nervousness, general debility, and intermittent fevers, has never been questioned. As proof positive of its infallibility in such cases, the statements of public men whose names are familiar as household words, have from time to time been given to the world. If its reputation is not founded in facts, then truth is a shadow, and the utterances of conscientious citizens are of no more value than "dicers' oaths." And what is its reputation? Let the Bitters were sold in 1855, five hundred dozen are disposed of now.

"THE AGE,"

1866.

The only Democratic Daily Journal in Philadelphia.

Great Improvements and great Inducements. Union, Restoration.

And Constitutional Liberty! The publishers of THE AGE respectfully call attention to the Daily and Weekly issues of their popular journal.

THE DAILY AGE contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day ; Local intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial Intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters; and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance. Besides special telegrams, it has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and the news from all parts of Europe, brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from whatever point the steamers first touch.

TERMS OF THE DAILY .- One copy, one year $9.00; six months, $4.50; three months, $2.50 ; for any less period, at the rate of one dollar per month. Payments required invariably in advance. Postage on the Daily, thirty cents per quarter, or one dollar and twenty cents per annum, if pre-

THE WEEKLY AGE will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorials from the Daily, will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It will be in all respects a first class Family Journal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Farmer, the Merchant, the Mechanic, the Family Circle and the General Reader, having, in fact, every characteristic of a live newspaper. At an early day will be begun an intensely interesting serial. by one of the most popular and fascinating authors, and it is also the intention to publish, from week to week, in the course of the year, three or four of the best and latest novels.

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY .- One copy, one year, $2; five copies, one year, $9, ten copies, one year, $17.50; twenty copies, and year, $33. To clubs, where the papers are sent to one address, the following reduction will be made : Ten copies, one year, $16.50; twenty copies, one year, $80. A copy will be furnished gratis for each club of ten, or more, to one address, for one year.
