We ask attention to the call for a John-son-Clymer Soldiers Convention, published in another column. The names of the most gallant soldiers in the service, are appended to the call. There is no doubt that the elite of the Pennsylvania soldiers will repudiate the popinjay Geary. Soldiers, read over the list of signers to this call and satisfy yourselves as to whether they are not worthy of your following.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

Who are for the Union?

On the 7th day of January, 1864, Mr. Rogers, Democrat, of New Jersey, in the House of Representatives of the United States, offered resolutions, declaring that a State or States, "whenever they shall desire to return to the Union, and obey the Constitution of the United States and laws made in pursuance thereof, have a right to come back, their laws and acts of secession being unconstitutional and void; that we are for the most united, determined, and vigorous prosecution of the war, for the purpose of enforcing the Constitution of the United States under the Constitution."

What does this vote mean?

What does this vote mean? What does it assert? What does it defend? It means that the Republicans in Congress, and the radical portion of the constituency they represent, were in 1864, as they are in 1866, and will ever be, opposed to the return of any of the rebellious States to the Union, no matter how submissive and repentant they may be; it asserts, that they (the rebellious States) have no right to come back, although we lavished millions of treasure and piled up whole heta-combs of lives to compel them to come back; it defends a war, which, by their votes, they declared should not be prosecuted for the enforcement of the Constitution and the restoration of the Union. In a word, this vote of the Republican party in Congress, proves them to be secessionists, disunionists and traitors.

The Republican disunionists say they shall not come back; the Democratic Unionists say they shall come back. GEARY represents the Republican disunionists; CLYMER represents the Democratic Unionists. GEARY represents Stevens, Sumner and the "boys in black"; CLYMER represents Johnson, Cowan and the "boys in blue." Stevens, Sumner and the "boys in black" are disunionists—so is GEARY; Johnson, Cowan and the "boys in blue" are Unionists—so is CLYMER. VOTE FOR CLYMER!

WHO ARE THE DISUNIONISTS?

The Damning Record.

On the 14th day of December, 1863, in the House of Representatives at Washington, Mr. Holman, of Indiana, a Democrat, offered a series of resolutions declaring "that the States in rebellion are 'not out of the Union, and should not be held as Territories and subjugated provinces; that the only condition to proper relations should be unconditional submission to the Constitution and laws of the United States, and that when this is accomplished, the war ought to cease.'"

Thaddeus Stevens (disunionist) moved to lay the resolutions on the table; which motion was carried, by vote of eighty-eight disunionists—all Republicans—to sixty-six Unionists—nearly all Democrats.

The vote on this resolution establishes beyond all cavil and dispute, that the Democracy are not only the true friends of the Union, but that they endeavored to preserve inviolate, the faith of the nation as pledged by the Crittenden resolution; while the Republicans are the bitter unrelenting foes of the Union, who recklessly violated a pledge, given with a unanimity that should have sanctified it against infringement.

White men of Pennsylvania, remember this record; read it to your neighbors; post it, in printed placards, in public places, where it can be seen and read by all men!

EIGHTY-EIGHT REPUBLICANS voted that the States in rebellion were out of the Union.

SIXTY-SIX DEMOCRATS voted that they were not out of the Union.

EIGHTY-EIGHT REPUBLICANS voted that the rebellious States should be Territories or subjugated provinces.

SIXTY-SIX DEMOCRATS voted that they should have all their rights, unimpaired, by unconditionally submitting to the Constitution and laws of the United States.

EIGHTY-EIGHT REPUBLICANS wanted the dismembered Union of Sumner, Stevens and Geary.

SIXTY-SIX DEMOCRATS wanted the unbroken Union of Washington, Johnson and Clymer.

EIGHTY-EIGHT REPUBLICANS violated their oaths of office, by acknowledging secession as a "fixed fact," and changing the war for the Union into a crusade for the subjugation and annihilation of the States.

SIXTY-SIX DEMOCRATS preserved their oaths unbroken, by repudiating the heresy of secession, and demanding that the flag that "bore on its azure field a star for every State, should also have a State for every star."

These eighty-eight Republicans are for GEARY AND DISUNION.

These sixty-six Democrats are for CLYMER AND THE UNION.

The skies are brightening! The blackness of darkness that obscured the political horizon, is fading into light; the rumbling of Thad. Stevens' patent thunder is dying away, and the lightning-bugs of Sumner's eloquence no longer flash their coruscations over Radical ignorance.—The Abolition clouds that lately lowered so threateningly overhead, are breaking into gentle and refreshing showers of Johnsonian Unionism and the grand old tree of Democracy, re-invigorated by a grateful political atmosphere, is taking a new growth, and will soon again shelter the people under its protecting branches. The opponents of Democracy are distracted and divided. The followers of Stevens pull one way, the adherents of Johnson another. Now, in "the winter of their discontent," it is "glorious summer" with the Democracy. Let us not fail to take the advantage of circumstances. Let us not be idle and indifferent, when nothing is wanting but exertion, to insure our triumph. Oh! Democrats, will you not work for victory, now that it is within your grasp?

General Fremont and wife called on John Brent, mate of the Dean Richmond, last week, and presented him with a magnificent gold watch as a token of their gratitude for saving their son's life on the night of the 9th of June. The watch is a superb one, double case, of American manufacture. The following is the inscription: "General and Mrs. J. C. Fremont to John Brent, in grateful remembrance of June 9, 1866."

JOHN COVODE, predicts that the Democrats will gain seven members of Congress in Pennsylvania.

SOLDIERS' COUNTY CONVENTION.

A DISPOSITION having been manifested to make it appear that the Soldiers, who battled for the Union during the late civil war are now in fellowship with those radicals who are practically seeking to destroy it, the undersigned, honorably discharged Union Soldiers of Cambria county, feeling that their exertions and sacrifices and those of their comrades in arms, will not have met with their proper reward until the Union of the States is completely restored, and that they cannot consistently remain silent while their views are thus persistently misrepresented, hereby unite in requesting all the honorably discharged Officers, Soldiers and Seamen of Cambria county, who favor the wise and constitutional policy of President Johnson, who opposes the doctrine of Negro Equality and Suffrage and desire the election of the Hon. HIESTER CLYMER, to meet in Convention at Ebensburg, on Wednesday, the 25th day of July, 1866, for the purpose of organization, to distinctly announce their principles and to elect seven Delegates to the Convention of Union Soldiers which is to assemble at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, August 1st, 1866.

The Democratic press of Pennsylvania should not permit the fact to be overlooked, that the Radical party with Geary for its Pennsylvania head, is the only disunion party in the country. The members of that destructive organization admit that "Peace reigns over our United Country," and yet they won't permit the Southern States to be represented in Congress. Let the Union men of Pennsylvania remember this.

The so-called Reverend Mr. Lindsley, of Medina, New York, who whipped his child to death, has fled to Canada to save his life, which he did not deem safe in the neighborhood where he resided. After giving bail in the sum of $10,000, he went to his father's house, and not feeling himself safe, he returned to Albion and offered his living body to the sheriff for safe keeping, but the sheriff refused to accept him, and Lindsley took the first train to Canada.

The Republican members of Congress held an adjourned caucus meeting in the Capitol last night. A day for the final adjournment of Congress was the principal subject of discussion. After numerous speeches had been delivered; Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, offered a resolution expressing the opinion that the state of business was such that Congress can adjourn sine die on next Monday week. This was the impression of the majority, the resolution being agreed to by a vote of sixty years to forty nays.

DARING ADVENTURE.—A New York paper says: Mons. Auguste Duislay, a gymnast, went up in a balloon from Elm Parke, on Wednesday afternoon, and performed some very difficult feats upon a trapeze pendant therefrom. When six or seven thousand feet in the air he was overtaken by a rain storm, and the balloon became wet and heavy and began to descend. When over the Hudson river, and sixty feet in the air, the balloonist sprang from his air ship into the river, fearing to get entangled if both came down together. He swam for the New York shore, and was finally picked up, when nearly exhausted, by a small boat which had put out to his relief. He will repeat the experiment on Saturday next.

The Graves of the Southern Dead.

A Charleston, S. C., letter of the 24th ult says: Last Saturday was an impressive and gloomy day in Charleston. It was a day set apart by the ladies of this city and surrounding towns for the decoration of the graves of the Confederate dead most of whom repose at Magnolia Cemetery. Nearly all the stores, except some Boston firms, were closed before noon, and the city presented a Sabbath-day appearance. Protestant and Catholic denominations alike and together joined in the floral tribute, the flowers being the contributions of citizens. The entire day was devoted to ceremonies of some character or another; and, although it was the anniversary of the battle of Secessionville, which was quite a Federal defeat, I witnessed nothing which savored of a celebration of this well-known rebel victory. Services took place at all the churches in the morning. I visited St. Mary's Church, in the porch of which was a pyramid made of magnolia, palm branches, evergreens, white roses, and other flowers, in the centre of which suspended a wreath with the inscription, "To the memory of the Confederate dead." The most critical observer would have failed to have detected anything of a political character whatever; it was purely a devotional exercise, and nothing more. The floral exercises took place, or commenced at five p. m., at Magnolia Park, many of the participants in which got completely drenched by a smart shower which had fallen half an hour before. The distribution of the flowers was a most solemn and impressive exhibition. No grave escaped attendance, and men and women shed tears profusely. At the cemetery a prayer was delivered, songs were sung, poetry repeated, and addresses were made.
